- Reservation of Name. 32. (1) The Commission may on written application and on payment of the prescribed fee reserve a name pending registration of a company or a change of name by a company.
- (2) Such reservation as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section shall be for such period as the Commission shall think fit not exceeding 60 days and during the period of reservation no other company shall be registered under the reserved name or under any other name which in the opinion of the Commission bears too close a resemblance to the reserved name.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION.

- Articles for regulating companies. 33. There shall be registered with the memorandum of association articles of association signed by the subscribers to the memorandum of association, and prescribing regulations for the company.
- Forms and contents of articles. 34. (1) The form and contents of the articles of association of a public company having a share capital, a private company having a share capital, a company limited by guarantee and an unlimited company shall be as in Parts I, II, III, and IV respectively of Table A in Schedule 1 to this Decree with such additions, omissions or alterations as may be required in the circumstances.
- (2) In the case of a company limited by guarantee, the articles of association shall state the number of members with which the company proposes to be registered for the purpose of enabling the Commission to determine the fees payable on registration.
- (3) The articles of association shall -
- (a) be printed;
 - (b) be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively; and
 - (c) be signed by each subscriber of the memorandum of association in the presence of at least one witness who shall attest the signature.
- (4) The articles shall bear the same stamp duty as if they were contained in a deed.

REGISTRATION OF COMPANIES.

- Documents of Incorporation. 35. (1) As from the commencement of this Decree, a company shall be formed in the manner set out in this section.
- (2) There shall be delivered to the Commission -
- (a) the memorandum of association and articles of association complying with the provisions of this Part of this Decree;
 - (b) the notice of the address of the registered office of the company and the head office if different from the registered office:

Provided that a postal box address or a private bag address shall not be accepted by the Commission as the registered office;
 - (c) a statement in the prescribed form containing the list and particulars together with the consent of the persons who are to be the first directors of the company;
 - (d) a statement of the authorised share capital signed by at least one director; and
 - (e) any other document required by the Commission to satisfy the requirements of any law relating to the formation of a company.

- (3) A statutory declaration in the prescribed form by a legal practitioner that those requirements of this Decree for the registration of a company have been complied with which shall be produced to the Commission, and it may accept such a declaration as sufficient evidence of compliance:

Provided that where the Commission refuses a declaration, it shall within 30 days of the date of receipt of the declaration send to the declarant a notice of its refusal giving the grounds of such refusal.

- Registration. 36. (1) The Commission shall register the memorandum and articles unless in its opinion-
- (a) they do not comply with the provisions of this Decree; or
 - (b) the business which the company is to carry on, or the objects for which it is formed, or any of them are illegal; or
 - (c) any of the subscribers to the memorandum is incompetent or disqualified in accordance with section 20 of this Decree; or
 - (d) there is non-compliance with the requirement of any other law as to registration and incorporation of a company; or
 - (e) the proposed name conflicts with or is likely to conflict with an existing trade mark, or business name registered in Nigeria.
- (2) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Commission under subsection (1) of this section, may give notice to the Commission requiring it to apply to the court for directions and the Commission shall within 21 days of the receipt of such notice apply to the court for the directions.
- (3) The Commission may, in order to satisfy itself as provided in subsection (1) (c) of this section, by instrument in writing require a person subscribing to the memorandum to make and lodge with the Commission, a statutory declaration to the effect that he is not disqualified under section 20 of this Decree from joining in forming a company.
- (4) Steps to be taken under this Decree to incorporate a company shall not include any invitation to subscribe for shares or otherwise howsoever on the basis of a prospectus.
- (5) Upon registration of the memorandum and articles, the Commission shall certify under its seal -
- (a) that the company is incorporated;
 - (b) in the case of a limited company, that the liability of the members is limited by shares or by guarantee; or
 - (c) in the case of an unlimited company, that the liability of the members is unlimited; and
 - (d) that the company is a private or public company, as the case may be.
- (6) The certificate of incorporation shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of this Decree in respect of registration and of matters precedent and incidental to it have been complied with and that the association is a company authorised to be registered and duly registered under this Decree.

Effect of registration. 37. As from the date of incorporation mentioned in the certificate of incorporation, the subscriber of the memorandum together with such other persons as may, from time to time, become members of the company, shall be a body corporate by the name contained in the memorandum, capable forthwith of exercising all the powers and functions of an incorporated company including the power to hold land, and having perpetual succession and a common seal, but with such liability on the part of the members to contribute to the assets of the company in the event of its being wound up as is mentioned in this Decree.

CAPACITY AND POWERS OF COMPANIES.

Powers of companies. 38. (1) Except to the extent that the company's memorandum or any enactment otherwise provides, every company shall, for the furtherance of its authorised business or objects, have all the powers of a natural person of full capacity.

(2) A company shall not have or exercise power either directly or indirectly to make a donation or gift of any of its property or funds to a political party or political association, or for any political purpose; and if any company, in breach of this subsection makes any donation or gift of its property to a political party or political association, or for any political purpose, the officers in default and any member who voted for the breach shall be jointly and severally liable to refund to the company the sum or value of the donation or gift and in addition the company and every such officer or member shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine equal to the amount or value of the donation or gift.

Effects of ultra vires acts. 39. (1) A company shall not carry on any business not authorised by its memorandum and shall not exceed the powers conferred upon it by its memorandum or this Decree.

(2) A breach of subsection (1) of this section, may be asserted in any proceedings under sections 300 to 313 of this Decree or under subsection (4) of this section.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, no act of a company and no conveyance or transfer of property to or by a company shall be invalid by reason of the fact that such act, conveyance or transfer was not done or made for the furtherance of any of the authorised business of the company or that the company was otherwise exceeding its objects or powers.

(4) On the application of -

(a) any member of the company, or

(b) the holder of any debenture secured by a floating charge over all or any of the company's property or by the trustee of the holders of any such debentures, the court may prohibit by injunction, the doing of any act or the conveyance or transfer of any property in breach of subsection (1) of this section.

(5) If the transactions sought to be prohibited in any proceeding under subsection (4) of this section are being, or are to be performed or made pursuant to any contract to which the company is a party, the court may, if it deems the same to be equitable and if all the parties to the contract are parties to the proceedings, set aside and prohibit the performance of such contract, and may allow to the company or to the other parties to the contract, such contract compensation for any loss or damage sustained by them by reason of the setting aside or prohibition of the performance of such contract but no compensation shall be allowed for loss or anticipated profits to be derived from the performance of such contract.

- Effect of reliance on restrictions in the memorandum. 40. (1) Where there is provision in the memorandum of association of a company restricting the powers and capacity of the company to carry on its authorised business or object, the restriction, may be relied on and have effect only for the purpose of -
- (a) proceedings against the company by a director or member of the company, or where the company has issued debentures secured by a floating charge over all or any of the company's property, by the holder of any of the debentures or the trustee for the holders of the debentures; or
 - (b) proceedings by the company or a member of the company against the present or former officers of the company for failure to observe any such restrictions; or
 - (c) proceedings by the Commission or a member of the company to wind up the company; or
 - (d) proceedings for the purpose of restraining the company or other person from acting in breach of the memorandum or directing the company or such person to comply with the same.
- (2) A person may not in proceedings referred to in subsection (1) (a), (b), or (c), of this section, rely on the restriction of the power or capacity of the company contained in the memorandum in any case where he voted in favour of, or otherwise expressly or by conduct agreed to the doing of an act by the company or the conveyance by or to the company of property which, it is alleged in the proceedings, was or would be contrary to such a restriction.
- Effect of memorandum and articles. 41. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Decree, the memorandum and articles, when registered, shall have the effect of a contract under seal between the company and its members and officers and between the members and officers themselves whereby they agree to observe and perform the provisions of the memorandum and articles, as altered from time to time in so far as they relate to the company, members or officers as such.
- (2) All money payable by any member to the company under the memorandum or articles shall be a debt due from him to the company and shall be of the nature of a speciality debt.
- (3) Where the memorandum or articles empower any person to appoint or remove any director or other officer of the company, such power shall be enforceable by that person notwithstanding that he is not a member or officer of the company.
- (4) In any action by any member or officer to enforce any obligation owed under the memorandum or articles to him and any other member or officer, such member or officer, may if any other member or officer is affected, by the alleged breach of such obligation with his consent, sue in a representative capacity on behalf of himself and all other members or officers who may be affected other than any who are defendants and the provisions of Part X of this Decree shall apply.
- MEMBER'S RIGHT TO COPY OF MEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES.
- Member's right to copies of memorandum etc. 42. (1) A company shall, on being so required by any member, send to him a copy of the memorandum and of the articles, if any, and copy of any enactment which alters the memorandum, subject to payment, in the case of a copy of the memorandum and of the articles, of ₦20 or such less sum as the company may prescribe and in the case of a copy of an enactment of such sum not exceeding the published price thereof as the company may require.

- (2) If a company makes default in complying with this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable for each offence to a fine not exceeding =N=25.
- Copies of memorandum issued to embody alterations. 43. (1) Where an alteration is made in the memorandum of a company every copy of the memorandum issued after the date of the alteration shall be in accordance with the alteration.
- (2) If, where any such alteration has been made, the company at any time after the date of the alteration issues any copies of the memorandum which are not in accordance with the alteration, it shall be liable to a fine not exceeding =N=25 for each copy so issued, and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to the like penalty.

ALTERATION OF MEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES.

- Restriction on alteration of memorandum. 44. (1) A company may not alter the conditions contained in its memorandum except in the cases and in the manner and to the extent for which express provision is made in this Decree.
- (2) Only those provisions which are required by section 27 of this Decree or by any other specific provision contained in this Decree, to be stated in the memorandum of the company concerned shall be deemed to be conditions contained in its memorandum.
- Alteration of memorandum. 45. (1) The name of the company shall not be altered except with the consent of the Commission in accordance with section 31 of this Decree.
- (2) The business which the company is authorised to carry on or, if the company is not formed for the purpose of carrying on business, the objects for which it is established may be altered or added to in accordance with the provisions of section 46 or of Part V of this Decree.
- (3) Any restriction on the powers of the company may be altered in the same way as the business or object of the company.
- (4) The share capital of the company may be altered in accordance with the provisions of section 100 to 111 of this Decree but not otherwise.
- (5) Subject to section 49 of this Decree, any other provision of the memorandum may be altered in accordance with section 46 of this Decree, or as otherwise provided in this Decree.
- Mode of alteration of business or objects. 46. (1) A company may, at a meeting of which notice in writing has been duly given to all members (whether or not otherwise entitled thereto), by special resolution alter the provisions of its memorandum with respect to the business or objects of the company:
- Provided that if an application is made to the court in accordance with this section for the alteration to be cancelled, it shall not have effect except in so far as it is confirmed by the court.
- (2) An application under this section may be made to the court -
- (a) by the holders of not less in the aggregate than 15 percent in nominal value of the company's issued share capital or any class thereof or, if the company is not limited by shares not less than 15 percent of the company's members; or

- (b) by the holders of not less than 15 percent of the company's debentures entitling the holders to object to alterations of its objects:
Provided that any such application shall not be made by any person who has consented to or voted in favour of the alteration.
- (3) An application under this section shall be made not later than 28 days after the date on which the resolution altering the company's business or objects was passed, and may be made on behalf of the persons entitled to make the application by such one or more of their number as they may appoint in writing for the purpose.
- (4) On an application under this section, the court may make an order confirming the alteration either wholly or in part and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, and may adjourn the proceedings in order that an arrangement may be made to the satisfaction of the court for the purchase of the interest of dissentient members, and the court may give such directions and make such orders as it thinks expedient for facilitating or carrying into effect any such arrangement:
Provided that no part of the capital of the company shall be expended in any purchase.
- (5) The debentures entitling the holders to object to alterations of a company's business or objects shall be any debentures secured by a floating charge.
- (6) The special resolution altering a company's business or objects shall require the same notice to the holders of any such debentures as to members of the company; and in default of any provisions regulating the giving of notice to any such debenture holders, the provisions of the company's articles regulating the giving of notice to members shall apply.
- (7) Where a company passes a resolution altering its business or objects and -
- (a) application is thereafter made to the court for its confirmation under this section, the company shall forthwith give notice to the Commission of the making of the application, and thereafter there shall be delivered to the Commission within 15 days from the date of its making -
- (i) a certified true copy of the order in the case of refusal to confirm the resolution; and
- (ii) a certified true copy of the order in the case of confirmation of the resolution together with the printed copy of the memorandum as thereby altered;
- (b) no application is made with respect thereto to a court under this section, the company shall within 15 days from the end of the period for taking such an application deliver to the Commission a copy of the resolution as passed; and if the Commission -
- (i) is satisfied, a printed copy of the memorandum as altered by the resolution shall forthwith thereafter be delivered to it;
- (ii) is not satisfied, it shall give notice in writing to the company of its decision and an appeal from its decision shall thereafter lie to the court at the suit of any person aggrieved, if made within 21 days from the date of the receipt by the company of the notice of the rejection, or within such extended time as the court may allow.
- (8) The court may at any time extend the time for the delivery of documents to the Commission under paragraph (a) of subsection (7) of this section for such period as the court may think proper.

- (9) If a company makes default in giving notice or delivering any document to the Commission as required by subsection (6) of this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine of =N=50.
- (10) The validity of an alteration of the provision of a company's memorandum with respect to the business or objects of the company shall not be questioned on the ground that it was not authorised by subsection (1) of this section except in proceedings taken for the purpose (whether under this section or otherwise) before the expiration of 21 days after the date of the resolution in that behalf, and where any such proceedings are taken otherwise than under this section, subsections (6), (7), and (8) of this section shall apply in relation thereto as if they had been taken under this section, and as if an order declaring the alteration invalid were an order cancelling it and as if any order dismissing the proceedings were an order confirming the alteration.
- (11) In this section "member" includes any person financially interested in the company.
- Power to alter provision in the memorandum in certain cases 47
- (1) Subject to the provisions of section 44 of this Decree and of this section and of any Part of this Decree (which preserves the rights of minorities in certain cases) any provision in a company's memorandum which might lawfully have been in articles of association instead of in the memorandum may be altered by the company by special resolution; but if an application is made to the court for the alteration to be cancelled, the alteration shall not have effect except in so far as it is confirmed by the court.
- (2) This section shall not apply where the memorandum itself provides for or prohibits the alteration of all or any of the said provisions, and shall not authorise any variation or abrogation of the special rights of any class of members.
- (3) Subsections (2), (3), (4), (7), (8) and (9) of section 46 of this Decree (which relate to mode of alteration of business or object) except paragraph (b) of subsection (2) thereof shall apply in relation to any alteration and to any application made under this section as they apply in relation to alterations and to applications made under that section.
- (4) This section shall apply to a company's memorandum whether registered before or after the commencement of this Decree.
- Alteration of articles 48
- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Decree and to the conditions or other provisions contained in its memorandum, a company may by special resolution alter or add to its articles
- (2) Any alteration or addition so made in the articles shall, subject to the provisions of this Decree, be as valid as if originally contained therein and be subject, in like manner, to alteration by special resolutions.
- Limitation of liability to contribute to share capital if memorandum, etc. altered 49
- (1) Save to the extent to which a member of a company agrees in writing at any time to be bound thereby, and anything to the contrary in the memorandum or articles notwithstanding, the member shall not be bound by any alteration made in the memorandum or articles of the company requiring him on or after the date of the alteration to -
- (a) take or subscribe for more shares than he held at the date on which he became a member; or
- (b) increase his liability to contribute to the share capital of the company; or
- (c) pay money by any other means to the company.

CHAPTER 2 - CONVERSION AND RE-REGISTRATION OF COMPANIES.

- Re-registration of private company as public.
50. (1) Subject to this section, a private company having a share capital may be re-registered as a public company if -
- (a) a special resolution that it should be so re-registered is passed; and
 - (b) an application for re-registration is delivered to the Commission together with the documents prescribed in subsection (3) of this section.
- (2) The special resolution shall -
- (a) alter the company's memorandum so that it states that the company is to be a public company; and
 - (b) make such other alterations in the memorandum as are necessary to bring it into conformity with the requirements of this Decree with respect to the memorandum of a public company in accordance with section 27 of this Decree; and
 - (c) make such alterations in the company's articles as are requisite in the circumstances.
- (3) The application shall be made to the Commission in the prescribed form and be signed by at least one director and the secretary of the company; and the documents to be delivered with it are the following -
- (a) a printed copy of the memorandum and articles as altered in pursuance of the resolution; and
 - (b) a copy of a written statement by the directors and the secretary certified on oath by them, and showing that the paid up capital of the company as at the date of the application is not less than 25 percent of the authorised share capital as at that date; and
 - (c) a copy of the balance sheet of the company as at the date of the resolution or the preceding 6 months, whichever is later; and
 - (d) a statutory declaration in the prescribed form by a director and the secretary of the company -
 - (i) that the special resolution required under this section has been passed; and
 - (ii) that the company's net assets are not less than the aggregate of the paid up share capital and undistributable reserves; and
 - (e) a copy of any prospectus or statement in lieu of prospectus delivered within the preceding 12 months to the Securities and Exchange Commission established under the Securities and Exchange Commission Decree 1988.
- (4) If the Commission is satisfied that a company has complied with the provisions of this section and may be re-registered as a public company, it shall -
- (a) retain the application and other documents delivered to it under this section;
 - (b) register the application and other documents; and
 - (c) issue the company a certificate of incorporation, stating that the company is a public company.

- (5) Upon the issue to a company of the certificate of incorporation under this section -
- (a) the company shall by virtue of the issue of that certificate become a public company; and
 - (b) any alterations in the memorandum and articles set out in the resolution shall take effect accordingly.
- (6) The certificate shall be prima facie evidence that -
- (a) the requirements of this Decree in respect of re-registration and of matters precedent and incidental thereto have been complied with; and
 - (b) the company is a public company.
- (7) A company shall not be re-registered under this section if it has previously been re-registered as an unlimited company.
- Re-registration of company limited by shares as unlimited. 51.
- (1) Subject as follows, a company which is registered as limited by shares may be re-registered as unlimited in pursuance of an application in that behalf complying with the requirements of this section.
- (2) A company shall be precluded from re-registering under this section if it is limited by virtue of re-registration under section 52 of this Decree.
- (3) A public company or a company which has previously been re-registered as unlimited company shall not be re-registered under this section.
- (4) An application under this section shall be in the prescribed form and be signed by a director and the secretary of the company, and be lodged with the Commission together with the documents specified in subsection (6) of this section.
- (5) The application shall set out such alterations in the company's memorandum and articles as are requisite to bring it into conformity with the requirements of this Decree with respect to the memorandum and articles of a company to be formed as an unlimited company.
- (6) The documents to be lodged with the Commission are as follows -
- (a) the prescribed form of assent, to the company being registered as unlimited, subscribed by or on behalf of all the members of the company;
 - (b) a statutory declaration made by the directors of the company -
 - (i) that the persons by whom or on whose behalf the form of assent is subscribed constitute the whole membership of the company; and
 - (ii) if any of the members have not subscribed that form themselves, that the directors have taken all reasonable steps to satisfy themselves that each person who subscribed to it on behalf of a member was lawfully empowered to do so; and
 - (c) a printed copy of the memorandum and the articles incorporating the alterations set out in the application.
- (7) If the Commission is satisfied that the company be registered under this section as an unlimited company, it shall retain the application and other documents lodged with it under this section and -

Re-registration of unlimited as limited by shares

- (a) register the application and other documents; and
 - (b) issue to the company a certificate of incorporation appropriate to the status to be assumed by virtue of this section.
- (8) On the issue of the certificate -
- (a) the status of the company, by virtue of the issue, shall be changed from limited to unlimited; and
 - (b) the alterations in the memorandum set out in the application and any alteration in the articles so set out shall take effect as if duly made by resolution of the company; and
 - (c) the provisions of this Decree shall apply accordingly to the memorandum and articles as altered.
- (9) The certificate shall be prima facie evidence that the requirements of this section in respect of the re-registration and of matters precedent and incidental to it have been complied with, and that the company was authorised to be re-registered under this Decree in pursuance of this section and was duly so re-registered.
- (1) Subject as follows, a company which is registered as unlimited may be re-registered as limited by shares if a special resolution that it should be so re-registered is passed, and the requirements of this section are complied with in respect of the resolution and otherwise.
- (2) A company shall not under this section be re-registered as a public company or company limited by guarantee, and a company shall be precluded from re-registering under it if it is unlimited by virtue of re-registration under section 51 of this Decree.
- (3) The special resolution shall state the proposed authorised share capital and provide for the making of such alterations in the memorandum as are necessary to bring it into conformity with the requirements of this Decree with respect to the memorandum of a company so limited, and such alterations in the articles as are requisite in the circumstances.
- (4) An application in the prescribed form for the company to be re-registered as limited signed by a director and the secretary of the company shall be lodged with the Commission together with the necessary documents, not earlier than the day on which the resolution was filed under section 237 of this Decree.
- (5) The documents to be lodged with the Commission shall be a printed copy of the -
- (a) memorandum as altered in pursuance of the resolution; and
 - (b) articles as so altered.
- (6) If the Commission is satisfied that the company be re-registered under this section as a company limited by shares, it shall retain the application and other documents lodged with it under this section and register them, and it shall issue to the company a certificate of incorporation appropriate to the status to be assumed by the company by virtue of this section.
- (7) On the issue of the certificate -
- (a) the status of the company shall, by virtue of the issue, change from unlimited to limited; and

Re-registration
of public companies as private

- (b) the alterations in the memorandum specified in the resolution and the alterations in, and additions to, the articles so specified shall take effect accordingly.
- (8) The certificate shall be prima facie evidence that the requirements of this section in respect of re-registration and of matters precedent and incidental to it have been complied with, and that the company was authorised to be re-registered in pursuance of this section and was duly so re-registered.
- (9) The re-registration of an unlimited company as a limited company shall not affect the rights and liabilities of the company in respect of any debt or obligation incurred, or any contract entered into, by, to, with, or on behalf of the company before the re-registration, and those rights or liabilities may be enforced in the manner provided by Part III of this Decree as in the case of a company registered pursuant to Part II of this Decree.
- (1) A public company may be re-registered as a private company if -
- (a) a special resolution complying with subsection (2) of this section that it should be so re-registered is passed and has not been cancelled by the court under this section.
- (b) an application for the purpose in the prescribed form and signed by a director and the secretary of the company is delivered to the Commission together with a printed copy of the memorandum and articles of the company as altered by the resolution; and
- (c) either -
- (i) the period during which an application for the cancellation of the resolution under this section may be made has expired without any such application having been made; and
- (ii) where such an application has been made, the application has been withdrawn or an order has been made confirming the resolution and a copy of that order has been delivered to the Commission.
- (2) The special resolution shall alter the company's memorandum so that it states that the company is a private company and shall make such other alterations in the company's memorandum and articles as are requisite in the circumstances.
- (3) Where the special resolution is passed, an application may be made to the court for the cancellation of the resolution, and such application may be made by -
- (a) the holders of not less in the aggregate than 5 percent in the nominal value of the company's issued share capital, or any class thereof; or
- (b) not less than 5 percent of the company's members; but not by a person who has consented to or voted in favour of the resolution.
- (4) The application shall be made within 28 days after the passing of the resolution and the applicant shall forthwith give notice of the application in the prescribed form to the Commission and to the company.
- (5) On the hearing of the application, the court shall make an order either cancelling or confirming the resolution and may make all such orders or give such directions as it may think expedient in the circumstances.

- (6) The company shall, within 15 days from the making of the court's order, or within such other period as the court may by order direct, deliver to the Commission a certified true copy of the order.
- (7) If a company fails to deliver to the Commission a certified true copy of the order as required in subsection (6) of this section, the company and any officer of it who is in default, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of ₦100 and for continued contravention, to a daily default fine of ₦25.
- (8) If the Commission is satisfied that a company may be re-registered under this section, it shall -
- (a) retain the application and other documents delivered to it under this section;
 - (b) register the application and other documents; and
 - (c) issue the company with a certificate of incorporation as a private company.
- (9) On the issue of the certificate -
- (a) the company shall become a private company; and
 - (b) the alteration in the memorandum and articles set out in the resolution shall take effect accordingly.
- (10) The certificate shall be prima facie evidence that -
- (a) the requirements of this section in respect of re-registration and of matters precedent and incidental to it have been complied with; and
 - (b) the company is a private company.

CHAPTER 3 - FOREIGN COMPANIES.

Foreign companies intending to carry on business in Nigeria.

54. (1) Subject to sections 56 to 59 of this Decree, every foreign company which before or after the commencement of this Decree was incorporated outside Nigeria, and having the intention of carrying on business in Nigeria shall take all steps necessary to obtain incorporation as a separate entity in Nigeria for that purpose, but until so incorporated, the foreign company shall not carry on business in Nigeria or exercise any of the powers of a registered company and shall not have a place of business or an address for service of documents or processes in Nigeria for any purpose other than the receipt of notices and other documents, as matters preliminary to incorporation under this Decree.
- (2) Any act of the company in contravention of subsection (1) of this section shall be void.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall affect the status of -
- (a) any foreign company which before the commencement of this Decree was granted exemption from compliance with Part X of the Companies Act 1968;
 - (b) any foreign companies exempted under any treaty to which Nigeria is a party.

- Penalties. 55. If any foreign company fails to comply with the requirements of section 54 of this Decree in so far as they may apply to the company, the company shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of not less than =N=2,500; and every officer or agent of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits the default or failure to comply shall, whether or not the company is also convicted of any offence, be liable on conviction to a fine of not less than =N=250 and where the offence is a continuing one to a further fine of =N=25 for every day during which the default continues.
- Power to exempt foreign companies. 56. (1) A foreign company may apply to the National Council of Ministers for exemption from the provisions of section 54 of this Decree if that foreign company belongs to one of the following categories, that is :-
- (a) foreign companies (other than those specified in paragraph (d) of this subsection) invited to Nigeria by or with the approval of the Federal Government to execute any specified individual project;
 - (b) foreign companies which are in Nigeria for the execution of specific individual loan project on behalf of a donor country or international organisation;
 - (c) foreign government-owned companies engaged solely in export promotion activities;
 - (d) engineering consultants and technical experts engaged on any individual specialist project under contract with any of the governments in the Federation or any of their agencies or with any other body or person, where such contract has been approved by the Federal Government.
- (2) An application for exemption under this section shall be in writing addressed to the Secretary to the Government of the Federation and shall set out:-
- (a) the name and place of business of the foreign company outside Nigeria;
 - (b) the name and place of business or the proposed name and place of business of the foreign company in Nigeria;
 - (c) the name and address of each director, partner or other principal officer of the foreign company;
 - (d) a certified copy of the charter, statutes, or memorandum and articles of association of the company, or other instrument constituting or defining the constitution of the company and if the instrument is not written in the English language, a certified translation thereof;
 - (e) the names and addresses of some one or more persons resident in Nigeria authorised to accept on behalf of the foreign company services of process and any notice required to be served on the company;
 - (f) the business or proposed business in Nigeria or the foreign company and duration of such business;
 - (g) particulars of any project previously carried out by the company as an exempted foreign company; and
 - (h) such other particulars as may be required by the Secretary to the Federal Military Government.

- (3) Where the National Council of Ministers upon the receipt of an application for exemption is of the opinion, that the circumstances are such as to render it expedient that such an exemption should be granted, the National Council of Ministers may, subject to such conditions as it may prescribe, exempt the foreign company from the obligations imposed by or under this Decree.
- (4) Every exemption granted in pursuance of this section shall specify the period or, as the case may be, the project or series of projects, for which it is granted and shall lapse at the end of such period or upon the completion of such project or series of projects.
- (5) The National Council of Ministers may at any time revoke any exemption granted to any company, if it is of the opinion that the company has contravened any provision of this Decree or has failed to fulfil any condition contained in the exemption order or for any other good or sufficient reason.
- (6) The National Council of Ministers shall cause to be published, in the Gazette the name of any company:-
- (a) to which an exemption has been granted and the period or, as the case may be, the project or series of projects for which the exemption is granted.
- (b) whose exemption has been revoked and the effective date of such revocation.

- | | | |
| Annual Report. | 57. | (1) Every exempted foreign company shall deliver to the Commission, every calendar year report in the form prescribed by the Commission. |
| Exempted foreign company to have status of un-registered company. | 58. | Subject to this Decree and save as may be stated in the instrument of exemption, a foreign company exempted pursuant to this Decree shall have the status of an unregistered company and accordingly, the provisions of this Decree applicable to an unregistered company shall apply in relation to such an exempted company as they apply in relation to an unregistered company under this Decree. |
| Penalties for false information. | 59. | (1) Any person who for the purpose of obtaining exemption or of complying with any of the provisions of section 56 of this Decree, makes any statement or presents any instrument which is false in a material particular shall be guilty of an offence unless he proves that he has taken all reasonable steps to ascertain the truth of the statement made or contained in the instrument so presented. (2) Any person who is guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on conviction to a fine of =N=5,000 or imprisonment for a term of three years. |

- Application of certain sections to foreign companies. 60. For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that -
- (a) save as provided in sections 55, 56, 57 and 58 of this Decree, nothing in this Decree shall be construed as authorising the disregard by any exempted foreign company of any enactment or rule of law; and
 - (b) nothing in this chapter shall be construed as affecting the rights or liability of a foreign company to sue or be sued in its name or in the name of its agent.

CHAPTER 4 - PROMOTERS

- Persons promoting a company. 61. Any person who undertakes to take part in forming a company with reference to a given project and to set it going and who takes the necessary steps to accomplish that purpose, or who, with regard to a proposed, or newly formed company, undertakes a part in raising capital for it, shall prima facie be deemed a promoter of the company:

Provided that a person acting in a professional capacity for persons engaged in procuring the formation of the company shall not thereby be deemed to be a promoter.

- Duties and liabilities of a promoter. 62. (1) A promoter stands in a fiduciary relationship to the company and shall observe the utmost good faith towards the company in any transaction with it or on its behalf and shall compensate the company for any loss suffered by reason of his failure so to do.
- (2) A promoter who acquired any property or information in circumstances in which it was his duty as a fiduciary to acquire it on behalf of the company shall account to the company for such property and for any profit which he may have made from the use of such property or information.
- (3) Any transaction between a promoter and the company may be rescinded by the company unless, after full disclosure of all material facts known to the promoter, such transaction shall have been entered into or ratified on behalf of the company -
- (a) by the company's board of directors independent of the promoter; or
 - (b) by all the members of the company; or
 - (c) by the company at a general meeting at which neither the promoter nor the holders of any shares in which he is beneficially interested shall vote on the resolution to enter into or ratify that transaction.
- (4) No period of limitation shall apply to any proceedings brought by the company to enforce any of its rights under this section but in any such proceedings the court may relieve a promoter in whole or in part and on such terms as it thinks fit from liability hereunder if in all the circumstances, including lapse of time, the court thinks it equitable to do so.

PART III - ACTS BY OR ON BEHALF OF THE COMPANY.

Exercise of Company's Powers.

- Division of powers between general meeting and board of directors. 63. (1) A company shall act through its members in general meeting or its board of directors or through officers or agents, appointed by, or under authority derived from, the members in general meeting or the board of directors.

- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Decree, the respective powers of the members in general meeting and the board of directors shall be determined by the company's articles.
- (3) Except as otherwise provided in the company's articles, the business of the company shall be managed by the board of directors who may exercise all such powers of the company as are not by this Decree or the articles required to be exercised by the members in general meeting.
- (4) Unless the articles shall otherwise provide, the board of directors, when acting within the powers conferred upon them by this Decree or the articles, shall not be bound to obey the directions or instructions of the members in general meeting:

Provided that the directors acted in good faith and with due diligence.

- (5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, the members in general meeting may -
- (a) act in any matter if the members of the board of directors are disqualified or are unable to act because of a deadlock on the board or otherwise;
 - (b) institute legal proceedings in the name and on behalf of the company, if the board of directors refuse or neglect to do so;
 - (c) ratify or confirm any action taken by the board of directors; or
 - (d) make recommendations to the board of directors regarding action to be taken by the board.
- (6) No alteration of the articles shall invalidate any prior act of the board of directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made.

Delegation to committees
directors. 64.

Unless otherwise provided in this Decree or in the articles, the board of directors may -

- (a) exercise their powers through committees consisting of such members of the body as they think fit; or
- (b) from time to time, appoint one or more of their body to the office of managing director and may delegate all or any of their powers to such managing director.

Liability for acts of the Company.

Acts of general meeting,
board of directors,
or of managing
directors. 65.

Any act of the members in general meeting, the board of directors, or of a managing director while carrying on in the usual way the business of the company shall be treated as the act of the company itself and the company shall be criminally and civilly liable therefore to the same extent as if it were a natural person:

Provided that -

- (a) the company shall not incur civil liability to any person if that person had actual knowledge at the time of the transaction in question that the general meeting, board of directors, or managing director, as the case may be, had no power to act in the matter or had acted in an irregular manner or if, having regard to his position with or relationship to the company, he ought to have known of the absence of such power or of the irregularity;

- (b) if in fact a business is being carried on by the company, the company shall not escape liability for acts undertaken in connection with that business merely because the business in question was not among the business authorised by the company's memorandum.
- Acts of officers or agents. 66. (1) Except as provided in section 65 of this Decree, the acts of any officer or agent of a company shall not be deemed to be acts of the company unless -
- (a) the company, acting through its members in general meeting, board of directors, or managing director, shall have expressly or implied authorised such officer or agent to act in the matter; or
- (b) the company, acting as mentioned in paragraph (a) of this subsection, shall have represented the officer or agent as having its authority to act in the matter, in which event the company shall be civilly liable to any person who has entered into the transaction in reliance on such representation unless such person had actual knowledge that the officer or agent had no authority or unless having regard to his position with or relationship to the company, he ought to have known of such absence of authority.
- (2) The authority of an officer or agent of the company may be conferred prior to any action by him or by subsequent ratification, and knowledge of such action by the officer or agent and acquiescence therein by all the members of the company or by the directors for the time being or by the managing director for the time being shall be equivalent to ratification by the members in general meeting, board of directors, or managing director, as the case may be.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall derogate from the vicarious liability of the company for the acts of its servant while acting within the scope of their employment.
- When provision exempting, etc officer from liability to the company is void. 67. (1) Any provision, whether contained in the articles of the company or in any contract with a company or otherwise, for exempting any officer of the company or any person (whether an officer of the company or not) employed by the company as auditor from, or indemnifying him against, any liability which by virtue of any rule of law, would otherwise attach to him in respect of any negligence, default, or breach of trust of which he may be guilty in relation to the company, shall be void.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section -
- (a) a person shall not be deprived of any exemption or right to be indemnified in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by him while any such provision as mentioned in that subsection was in force; and
- (b) a company may, in pursuance of any such provision as mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, indemnify any such officer or auditor against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under section 641 of this Decree in which relief is granted to him by the court.
- Constructive Notice of Registered Documents.*
- Abolition of constructive notice of registered documents. 68. Except as mentioned in section 197 of this Decree, regarding particulars in the register of particulars of charges, a person shall not be deemed to have knowledge of the contents of the memorandum and articles of a company or of any other particulars, documents, or the contents of documents merely because such particulars or documents are registered by the Commission or referred to in any particulars or documents so registered or are available for inspection at an office of the company.

Presumptions of regularity	69	Any person having dealings with a company or with someone deriving title under the company shall be entitled to make the following assumptions and the company and those deriving title under it shall be stopped from denying their truth that - (a) the company's memorandum and articles have been duly complied with; (b) every person described in the particulars filed with the Commission pursuant to sections 35 and 292 of this Decree as a director, managing director or secretary of the company, or represented by the company, acting through its members in general meeting, board of directors or managing director, as an officer or agent of the company, has been duly appointed and has authority to exercise the powers and perform the duties customarily exercised or performed by a director, managing director, or secretary of a company carrying on business of the type carried on by the company or customarily exercised or performed by an officer or agent of the type concerned; (c) the secretary of the company, and every other officer or agent of the company having authority to issue documents or certified copies of documents on behalf of the company has authority to warrant the genuineness of the documents or the accuracy of the copies so issued; (d) a document has been duly sealed by the company if it bears what purports to be the seal of the company attested by what purports to be the signatures of two persons who, in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, can be assumed to be a director and the secretary of the company: Provided that - (i) a person shall not be entitled to make such assumptions as aforesaid, if he had actual knowledge to the contrary or if, having regard to his position with or relationship to the company, he ought to have known the contrary; (ii) a person shall not be entitled to assume that any one or more of the directors of the company have been appointed to act as a committee of the board of directors or that an officer or agent of the company has the company's authority merely because the company's articles provided that authority to act in the matter may be delegated to a committee or to an officer or agent.
Liability of company not affected by fraud or forgery of officer	70	Where, in accordance with sections 65 to 69 of this Decree, a company would be liable to a third party for the acts of any officer or agent, the company shall, except where there is collusion between the officer or agent and the third party, be liable notwithstanding that the officer or agent has acted fraudulently or forged a document purporting to be sealed by or signed on behalf of the company.

Company's Contracts

Form of contract	71.	(1) Contracts on behalf of a company may be made, varied or discharged as follows - (a) any contract which if made between individuals would be by law required to be in writing under seal, or which could be varied, or discharged only by writing under seal, may be made, varied or discharged, as the case may be, in writing under the common seal of the company; (b) any contract which if made between individuals would be by law required to be in writing, signed by the parties to be charged therewith, or which could be varied or discharged only by writing or written evidence signed by the parties to be charged, may be made, varied or discharged as the case may be, in writing signed in the name or on behalf of the company; and
------------------	-----	---

- (c) any contract which if made between individuals would be valid although made by parol only and not reduced into writing or which could be varied or discharged by parol, may be made, varied or discharged, as the case may be, by parol on behalf of the company.
- (2) A contract made according to this section shall be effectual in law, and shall bind the company and its successors and all other parties thereto, their heirs, executors, or administrators, as the case may be, and may be varied or discharged in the same manner in which it is authorised by this section to be made.
- Pre-incorporation contracts 72 (1) Any contract or other transaction purporting to be entered into by the company or by any person on behalf of the company prior to its formation may be ratified by the company after its formation and thereupon the company shall become bound by and entitled to the benefit thereof as if it has been in existence at the date of such contract or other transaction and had been a party thereto.
- (2) Prior to ratification by the company, the person who purported to act in the name of or on behalf of the company shall, in the absence of express agreement to the contrary, be personally bound by the contract or other transaction and entitled to the benefit thereof.
- Bills of exchange and promissory note 73 (1) A bill of exchange or promissory note shall be deemed to have been made, accepted, or endorsed on behalf of a company if made, or expressed to be made, accepted, or endorsed in the name of the company, or if expressed to be made, accepted or endorsed on behalf or on account of the company by a person acting under its authority.
- (2) The company and its successors shall be bound thereby if the company is in accordance with sections 65 to 67 of this Decree, liable for the acts of those who made, accepted or endorsed it in its name or on its behalf or account, and a signature by a director or the secretary on behalf of the company shall not be deemed to be a signature by procuration for the purposes of section 25 of the Bill Cap.21 of Exchange Act.
- Common seal of the company 74 A company shall have a common seal the use of which shall be regulated by the articles.
- Official seal for use abroad 75 (1) A company whose objects require or comprise the transaction of business in foreign countries may, if authorised by its articles, have for use in any territory, district, or place outside Nigeria, an official seal, which shall be a facsimile of the common seal of the company, with the addition on its face of the name of every territory, district, or place where it is to be used.
- (2) A company having such an official seal may, by writing under its common seal, authorise any person appointed for the purpose in any territory, district, or place outside Nigeria, to affix the same to any deed or other document to which the company is party in that territory, district, or place.
- (3) The authority of any such agent shall, as between the company and any person dealing with the agent, continue during the period, if any, mentioned in the instrument conferring the authority, or if no period is there mentioned, then until notice of the revocation or determination of the agent's authority has been given to the person dealing with him.
- (4) The person affixing any such official seal shall, by writing under his hand, on the deed or other document to which the seal is affixed, certify the date on which and place at which it is affixed.

- (5) A deed or other document to which an official seal is duly affixed shall bind the company as if it had been sealed with the common seal of the company.
- Powers of attorney. 76. (1) A company may, by writing under seal, empower any person, either generally or in respect of any specified matter, as its attorney, to execute deeds on its behalf in any place within or outside Nigeria.
- (2) A deed signed by a person empowered as provided in subsection (1) of this section shall bind the company and have the same effect as it would have if it were under the company's common seal.
- Authentication and Service of Documents.*
- Authentication of documents. 77. A document or proceeding requiring authentication by a company may be signed by a director, secretary, or other authorised officer of the company, and need not be under its common seal unless otherwise so required in this Part of this Decree.
- Service of documents on companies. 78. A court process shall be served on a company in the manner provided by the Rules of Court and any other document may be served on a company by leaving it at, or sending it by post, to the registered office or head office of the company.

PART IV - MEMBERSHIP OF THE COMPANY.

- Definitions of member. 79. (1) The subscribers of the memorandum of a company shall be deemed to have agreed to become members of the company, and on its registration shall be entered as members in its register of members.
- (2) Every other person who agrees in writing to become a member of a company, and whose name is entered in its register of members, shall be a member of the company.
- (3) In the case of a company having a share capital, each member shall be a shareholder of the company and shall hold at least one share.
- Capacity to be a member. 80. (1) As from the commencement of this Decree, an individual shall not be capable of becoming a member of a company if -
- (a) he is of unsound mind and has been so found by a court in Nigeria or elsewhere; or
- (b) he is an undischarged bankrupt.
- (2) A person under the age of 18 years shall not be counted for the purpose of determining the legal minimum number of members of a company.
- (3) A corporate body in liquidation shall not be capable of becoming a member of a company.
- (4) Where at the commencement of this Decree, any person falling within the provisions of subsection (1) of this section is a member of a company by reason of being a shareholder of the company, his share shall vest in his committee or trustee, as the case may be.
- (5) Where after the commencement of this Decree, any shareholder purports to transfer any shares to a person falling within the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the purported transfer shall not vest the title in the shares in that person but the title shall remain in the purported transferor or his personal representative who shall hold the shares in trust for that person during the period of his incapacity.

- Rights of member to attend meetings and vote. 81. Every member shall, notwithstanding any provision in the articles, have a right to attend any general meeting of the company and to speak and vote on any resolution before the meeting:
- Provided that the articles may provide that a member shall not be entitled to attend and vote unless all calls or other sums payable by him in respect of shares in the company have been paid.
- Personation of members. 82. If any person falsely and deceitfully personates any member of a company and thereby obtains or endeavours to obtain any benefit due to any such member, he shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term of not more than 7 years or a fine of not more than =N=2,500.
- Register of Members.*
- Register of members. 83. (1) Every company shall keep a register of its members and enter in it the following particulars -
- (a) the names and addresses of the members, and in the case of a company having a share capital a statement of the shares and class of shares, if any, held by each member, distinguishing each share by its number so long as the share has a number, and of the amount paid or agreed to be considered as paid on the shares of each member;
 - (b) the date on which each person was registered as a member; and
 - (c) the date on which any person ceased to be a member:
- Provided that, where the company has converted any of its shares into stock and given notice of the conversion to the Commission, the register shall show the amount of stock held by each member instead of the amount of shares and the particulars relating to share specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection.
- (2) The entry required under paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) of this section, shall be made within 28 days of the conclusion of the agreement with the company to become a member or, in the case of a subscriber of the memorandum, within 28 days of the registration of the company.
 - (3) The entry required under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section shall be made within 28 days of the date on which the person concerned ceased to be a member, or, if he ceased to be a member otherwise than as a result of action by the company, within 28 days of production to the company of evidence satisfactory to the company of the occurrence of the event whereby he ceased to be a member.
 - (4) Where a company makes default in complying with the provisions of this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine of =N=25 and a daily default fine of =N=5.00.
 - (5) Liability incurred by a company from the making or deletion of an entry in its register of members, or from a failure to make or delete any such entry, shall not be enforceable after the expiration of 20 years from the date on which the entry was made or deleted or, in the case of any such failure, from the date on which the failure first occurred.
- Location of register. 84. (1) The register of members shall be kept at the registered office of the company, except that if -

- (a) the work of making it up is done at another office of the company, it may be kept at that other office; and
- (b) the company arranges with some other person for the making up of the register to be undertaken on behalf of the company by that person, it may be kept at the office of that other person at which the work is done; but the register shall not be kept in the case of a company registered in Nigeria, at a place outside Nigeria.
- (2) Every company shall send notice to the Commission of the place where the register is kept and of any change of that place.
- (3) A company shall not be bound to send notice under this subsection where the register has, at all times since it came into existence or, in the case of a register in existence at the commencement of this Decree, at all times since then, been kept at the registered office of the company.
- (4) If a company makes default for 28 days in complying with subsection (2) of this section, the company and every one of its officers who is in default shall be liable to a fine of =N=10 and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine of =N=5.
- Index of members to be kept. 85. (1) Every company having more than 50 members shall, unless the register of members is in such a form as to constitute in itself an index, keep an index, of the name of the members of the company and shall, within 14 days after the date on which any alteration is made in the register of members, make any necessary alteration in the index.
- (2) The index shall in respect of each member contain a sufficient indication to enable the account of that member in the register to be readily found.
- (3) The index shall, at all times, be kept at the same place as the register of members.
- (4) If default is made in complying with the provisions of this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine of =N=50.
- Entry of trusts prohibited. 86. No notice of any trust, express, implied or constructive shall be entered on the register of members or be receiveable by the Commission.
- Inspection of register and index. 87. (1) Except when the register of members is closed under the provisions of this Decree, the register and the index of members' names shall be open during business hours (subject to such reasonable restrictions as the company in general meeting may impose, so however, that not less than 2 hours in each day shall be allowed for inspection) to the inspection of any member of the company without charge, and with the permission of the company to any other person on payment of =N=1 or any less sums as the company may prescribe for each inspection.
- (2) Any member or, with the permission of the company, any other person may require a copy of the register, or of any part thereof, on payment of 50 kobo, or such less sum as the company may prescribe, for every 100 words or fractional part thereof required to be copied; and the company shall cause any copy so required by any person to be sent to that person within a period of 10 days commencing on the day next after the day on which the requirement is received by the company.

- (3) In the case of a member, if any inspection required under this section is refused or if any copy required under this section is not sent within the prescribed period, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable in respect of each offence to a fine of =N=10.
- (4) In the case of any such refusal or default in the case of a member, the court may by order compel an immediate inspection of the register, and index or direct that the copies required shall be sent to the persons requiring them.
- Consequences of failure by agents' default to keep register. 88. Where by virtue of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 84 of this Decree, the register of members is kept at the office of some person other than the company, and by reason of any default of his, the company fails to comply with subsection (1) or (2) of section 84 of this Decree, or with any requirements of this Decree as to the production of the register, that other person shall be liable to the same penalties as if he were an officer of the company who was in default, and the power of the court under subsection (4) of section 87 of this Decree shall extend to the making of orders against that other person and his officers and servants.
- Power to close register. 89. A company may, on giving notice by advertisement in a daily newspaper circulating in the district in which the registered office of the company is situated, close the register of members or any part of it for any time or times not exceeding on the whole 30 days in each year.
- Power of court rectify register. 90. (1) If -
- (a) the name of any person is, without sufficient cause, entered in or omitted from the register of members of a company; or
- (b) default is made or unnecessary delay takes place in entering on the register the fact of any person having ceased to be a member, the person aggrieved, or any member of the company, or the company, may apply to the court for rectification of the register.
- (2) The court may refuse the application, or order rectification of the register and payment by the company of any damages sustained by the party aggrieved.
- (3) On an application under this section, the court may decide any question relating to the title of any person who is a party to the application to have his name entered in or omitted from the register, whether the question arises between members or alleged members, or between members and alleged members on the one hand and the company on the other hand, and generally may decide any question necessary or expedient to be decided for rectification of the register.
- (4) In the case of a company required by this Decree to send a list of its members to the Commission, the court, when making an order for rectification of the register shall, by its order, direct notice of the rectification to be given to the Commission.
- Register to be evidence. 91. The register of members shall be prima facie evidence of matters which are by this Decree directed or authorised to be inserted in it.

Liability of Members

- Liability of members. 92. (1) Prior to the winding up of a company, a member of the company with shares shall be liable to contribute the balance, if any, of the amount payable in respect of the shares held by him in accordance with the terms of the agreement under which the shares were issued or in accordance with a call validly made by the company pursuant to its articles.

- (2) Where any contribution has become due and payable by reason of a call validly made by the company pursuant to the articles or where, under the terms of any agreement with the company, a member has undertaken personal liability to make future payments in respect of shares issued to him, the liability, of the member shall continue notwithstanding that the shares held by him are subsequently transferred or forfeited under a provision to that effect in the articles, but his liability shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.
- (3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, no member or past member shall be liable to contribute to the assets of the company, except in the event of its being wound up.
- (4) In the event of a company being wound up every present or past member shall be liable to contribute to the assets of the company to an amount sufficient for payment of its debts and liabilities and for the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up and for the adjustment of the rights of the members and past members among themselves but subject to the following qualifications -
 - (a) a past member shall not be liable to contribute if he has ceased to be a member for a period of one year or upwards before the commencement of the winding up;
 - (b) a past member shall not be liable to contribute unless it appears to the court that the existing members are unable to satisfy the contributions required to be made by them in pursuance of this section;
 - (c) in the case of a company limited by shares, no contributions shall be required from any member or past member exceeding the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares in respect of which he is liable as a present or past member;
 - (d) in the case of a company limited by guarantee, no contribution shall be required from any member or past member exceeding the amount undertaken to be contributed by him to the assets of the company in the event of its being wound up; and
 - (e) any sum due from the company to a member or past member, in his capacity as member, by way of dividends or otherwise shall not be set-off against the amount for which he is liable to contribute in accordance with this section but any such sum shall be taken into account for the purposes of final adjustment of the rights of the members and past members amongst themselves.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, the expression "past member" includes the estate of a deceased member and where any person dies after becoming liable as a member or past member such liability shall be enforceable against his estate.
- (6) Except as contained in this section, a member or past member shall not be liable as a member or past member for any of the debts and liabilities of the company.

Liability for company debts where membership is below

93.

If a company carries on business without having at least two members and does so for more than 6 months, every director or officer of the company during the time that it so carries on business after those 6 months who knows that it is carrying on business with only one or no member shall be liable and jointly and severally with the company for the debts of the company contracted during that period.

Disclosure of Beneficial Interest in Shares.

- Power of company to require disclosure. 94. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 95 of this Decree, a public company may by notice in writing require any member of the company, within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice -
- (a) to indicate in writing the capacity in which he holds any shares in the company; and
 - (b) if he holds them otherwise than as beneficial owner, to indicate in writing the particulars of the identity of persons interested in the shares in question and whether persons interested in the same shares are parties to any agreement or arrangement relating to the exercise of any rights conferred by the holding of the shares.
- (2) Where a company is informed in pursuance of a notice given to any person under subsection (1) of this section, or under this subsection that any other person has an interest in any shares in the company, the company may, by notice in writing, require that other person within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice -
- (a) to indicate in writing the capacity in which he holds that interest; and
 - (b) if he holds it otherwise than as beneficial owner, to indicate in writing, so far as it lies within his knowledge, the persons who have any interests in them (either by name and address or by other particulars sufficient to enable them to be identified) and the nature of their interests.
- (3) Whenever a company receives information from a person in pursuance of a requirement imposed on him under this section with respect to shares held by a member of the company, it shall be under an obligation to inscribe against the name of the member in the register of members -
- (a) the fact that the requirement was imposed; and
 - (b) the information received in pursuance of the requirement.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) of this section, any person who -
- (a) fails to comply with a notice under this section; or
 - (b) in purported compliance with such a notice, makes any statement which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly makes any statement which is false in a material particular, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for 6 months or to a fine of ₦25 for every day during which the default continues.
- (5) A person shall not be guilty of an offence under subsection (4) (a) of this section, if he proves that the information in question was already in the possession of the company or that the requirement to give it was for any other reason frivolous or vexatious.
- Obligation of disclosure by substantial shareholder in public company. 95. (1) A person who is a substantial shareholder in a public company shall give notice in writing to the company stating his name and address and giving full particulars of the shares held by him or his nominee (naming the nominee) by virtue of which he is a substantial shareholder.

- (2) A person is a substantial shareholder in a public company if he holds himself or by his nominee, shares in the company which entitle him to exercise at least 10 percent of the unrestricted voting rights at any general meeting of the company.
- (3) A person required to give a notice under subsection (1) of this section, shall do so within 14 days after that person becomes aware that he is a substantial shareholder.
- (4) The notice shall be so given notwithstanding that the person has ceased to be a substantial shareholder before the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (3) of this section.
- (5) A person who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine of =N=50 for every day during which the default continues.
- Person ceasing to be a substantial shareholder to notify company. 96. (1) A person who ceases to be a substantial shareholder in a public company shall give notice in writing to the company stating his name and the date on which he ceases to be a substantial shareholder and giving full particulars of the circumstances by reason of which he ceased to be a substantial shareholder.
- (2) A person required to give notice under subsection (1) of this section, shall do so within 14 days after he becomes aware that he has ceased to be a substantial shareholder.
- Register of interest in shares. 97. (1) A public company shall keep a register in which it shall enter -
- (a) in alphabetical order, the names of persons from whom it has received a notice under section 95 of this Decree; and

- (2) The register shall be kept at the place where the register of members required to be kept under section 84 of this Decree is kept and subject to the same right of inspection as the register of members.
- (3) The Commission may, at any time in writing, require the company to furnish it with a copy of the register or any part of the register and the company shall furnish the copy within 14 days after the day on which the requirement is received by the company.
- (4) If the company ceases to be a public company, it shall continue to keep the register until the end of the period of 6 years beginning with the day next following that on which it ceases to be such a company.
- (5) A company shall not, by reason of anything done for the purposes of this section, be affected with notice of, or put on enquiry as to, a right of a person to or in relation to a share in the company.
- (6) If default is made in complying with this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine of =N=25 and a daily default fine of =N=5.
- Registration of interest to be disclosed. 98. The matter relating to beneficial interest in shares required by section 94 of this Decree shall be entered in a different part of the register of interest which shall be so made up that the entries inscribed in it appear in chronological order.

PART V - SHARE CAPITAL.

Minimum Share Capital.

99. (1) Where after the commencement of this Decree, a memorandum delivered to the Commission under section 35 of this Decree states that the association to be registered is to be registered with shares, the amount of the share capital stated in the memorandum to be registered shall not be less than the authorised minimum share capital and not less than 25 percent of that capital shall be taken by the subscribers of the memorandum.
- (2) No company having a share capital shall, after the commencement of the Decree, be registered with an authorised share capital less than the authorised minimum share capital.
- (3) Where at the commencement of this Decree, the authorised share capital of an existing company is less than the authorised minimum share capital, the company shall, not later than 30 days after the appointed date increase the share capital to an amount not less than the authorised minimum share capital of which not less than 25 percent shall be issued.
- (4) Subject to subsection (3) of this section and to section 103 of this Decree, where a company is registered with shares, its issued capital shall not at any time be less than 25 percent of the authorised share capital.
- (5) Where a company to which subsection (3) or (4) of this section applies fails to comply with the applicable subsection, it shall be liable to a fine of =N=2,500 and every officer who is in default shall be liable to a fine of =N=50 for every day during which the default continues.

Alteration of Share Capital.

100. (1) A company having a share capital may in general meeting and not otherwise alter the conditions of its memorandum to the following extent, that is to say, it may -
- (a) consolidate and divide all or any part of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
- (b) convert all or any of its paid-up shares into stock, and re-convert the stock into paid-up shares of any denomination;
- (c) subdivide its shares or any of them, into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum, so however, that in the subdivision the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived;
- (d) cancel shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution in that behalf, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.
- (2) Cancellation of shares made in pursuance of this section shall not be deemed to be a reduction of share capital within the meaning of this Decree.

- Power for unlimited company to provide reserve share capital on re-registration. 104. If an unlimited company resolves to be registered as a limited company under this Decree, it may -
- (a) increase the nominal amount of its share capital by increasing the nominal amount of each of its shares, but subject to the condition that no part of the increased capital shall be capable of being called up except in the event and for the purposes of the company being wound up; or
 - (b) provide that a specified portion of its uncalled share capital shall not be capable of being called up except in the event and for the purposes of the company being wound up.

Reduction of Share Capital.

- Restriction on reduction of issued share capital. 105. (1) Except as authorised by this Decree, a company having a share capital shall not reduce its issued share capital.
- (2) For the purposes of this and other sections relating to reduction of share capital, any issue of share capital shall include the share premium account and any capital redemption reserve account of a company, and "issued share capital" shall be construed accordingly.

- Special resolution for reduction of share capital. 106. (1) Subject to confirmation by the court, a company having share capital may, if so authorised by its articles, by special resolution reduce its share capital in any way -
- (2) In particular, and without prejudice to subsection (1) of this section, the company may -
- (a) extinguish or reduce the liability on any of its shares in respect of share capital not paid up; or
 - (b) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, cancel any paid-up share capital which is lost or unrepresented by available assets; or
 - (c) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, pay off any paid-up share capital which is in excess of the company's wants, and the company may, if and so far as is necessary, alter its memorandum by reducing the amount of its share capital and of its shares accordingly.

- (3) A special resolution under this section shall in this Decree be referred to as "a resolution for reducing share capital".

- Application to court for order of confirmation. 107. (1) Where a company has passed a resolution for reducing share capital, it may apply to the court for an order confirming the reduction.
- (2) If the proposed reduction of share capital involves either -
- (a) diminution of liability in respect of unpaid share capital; or
 - (b) subject to subsection (6) of this section, the payment to a shareholder of any paid up share capital, and in any other case if the court so directs, subsections (3), (4) and (5) of this section shall have effect.

- (3) Every creditor of the company who at the date fixed by the court is entitled to any debt or claim which, if that date were the commencement of the winding up of the company, would be admissible in proof against the company shall be entitled to object to the reduction of capital.
- (4) The court shall settle a list of creditors entitled to object, and for that purpose -
- (a) shall ascertain, as far as possible without requiring an application from any creditor, the names of those creditors and the nature and amount of their debts or claims;
 - (b) may publish notices fixing a day or days within which creditors not entered on the list are to claim to be so entered or are to be excluded from the right of objecting to the reduction of capital.
- (5) If a creditor entered on the list whose debt or claim is not discharged or has not been determined does not consent to the reduction, the court may, if it thinks fit, dispense with the consent of that creditor, on the company securing payment of his debt or claim by appropriating (as the court may direct) the following amount if -
- (a) the company admits the full amount of the debt or claim or, though not admitting it, is willing to provide for it, then the full amount of the debt or claim;
 - (b) the company does not admit, and is not willing to provide for, the full amount of the debt or claim, or if the amount is contingent or not ascertained, then an amount fixed by the court after the like enquiry and adjudication as if the company were being wound up by the court.
- (6) If a proposed reduction of share capital involves either the diminution of any liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid up share capital, the court may, if having regard to any special circumstances of the case it thinks proper to do so, direct that subsections (3) to (5) of this section shall not apply as regards any class or any classes of creditors.
- Court order confirming reduction 108
- (1) The court, if satisfied -
- (a) with respect to every creditor of the company who under section 107 of this Decree is entitled to object to the reduction of capital that either -
 - (i) his consent to the reduction has been obtained; or
 - (ii) his debt or claim has been discharged or has determined, or has been secured; and
 - (b) that the share capital does not by this reduction fall below the authorised minimum share capital, may make an order confirming the reduction on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.
- (2) Where the court so orders, it may also -
- (a) if for any special reason it thinks proper to do so, make an order directing that the company shall, during such period (commencing on or at any time after the date of the order) as is specified in the order, add to its name as its last words "and reduced";

- (b) make an order requiring the company to publish (as the court directs) the reasons for reduction of capital or such other information in regard to it as the court thinks expedient with a view to giving proper information to the public and (if the court thinks fit) the causes which led to the reduction.
- (3) Where the company is ordered to add to its name the words "and reduced", those words shall until the expiration of the period specified in the order, deemed to be part of the company's name.
- Registration of order and minutes of reduction 109
- (1) The Commission on production to it of the order of the court confirming the reduction of a company's share capital, and the delivery to it of a copy of the order and of minutes of the meeting of the company (approved by the court) showing, with respect to the company's share capital as altered by the order -
- (a) the amount of the share capital;
- (b) the number of shares into which it is to be divided, and the amount of each share; and
- (c) the amount (if any) at the date of the registration deemed to be paid up on each share shall register the order and minutes.
- (2) On the registration of the order and minutes, and not before, the resolution for reducing share capital as confirmed by the order so registered shall take effect.
- (3) A notice of the registration shall be published in such manner as the court may direct.
- (4) The Commission shall certify the registration of the order and minutes; and the certificate -
- (a) may be either signed by the Registrar-General or authenticated by its official seal.
- (b) shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of this Decree with respect to the reduction of share capital have been complied with, and that the company's share capital is as stated in the minutes.
- (5) The minutes when registered shall be deemed to be substituted for the corresponding part of the company's memorandum, and valid and alterable as if it had been originally contained in it.
- (6) The substitution of such minutes for part of the company's memorandum shall be deemed an alteration of the memorandum.
- Liability of members on reduced shares 110
- (1) Where a company's share capital is reduced, a member of the company (past or present) shall not be liable in respect of any share to any call or contribution exceeding in amount the difference (if any) between the amount of the share as fixed by the minute and the amount paid on the share or the reduced amount (if any), which is deemed to have been paid on it, as the case may be.
- (2) Subsections (3) and (4) of this section shall apply if -
- (a) a creditor, entitled in respect of a debt or claim to object to the reduction of share capital, by reason of his ignorance of the proceedings for reduction of share capital, or of their nature and effect with respect to his claim, is not entered on the list of creditors; and

(b) after the reduction of capital, the company is unable (within the meaning of section 409 of this Decree) to pay the amount of his debt or claim.

(3) Every person who was a member of the company at the date of registration of the order for reduction and minutes shall be liable to contribute for the payment of the debt or claim in question an amount not exceeding that which he would have been liable to contribute if the company had commenced to be wound up on the day before that date.

(4) If the company is wound up, the court, on application of the creditor in question and proof of ignorance referred to in subsection (2) (a), of this section, may (if it thinks fit), settle accordingly a list of persons so liable to contribute and make and enforce calls and orders on the contributories settled on the list, as if they were ordinary contributories in a winding up.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of the contributories among themselves.

Penalty for concealing name of creditor etc.

111

If an officer of the company -

(a) wilfully conceals the name of a creditor entitled to object to the reduction of capital; or

(b) wilfully misrepresents the nature or amount of the debt or claim of any creditor; or

(c) aids, abets or is privy to any such concealment or misrepresentation as is mentioned above, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of =N=500.

Miscellaneous Matters Relating to Capital.

directors on serious loss

(1) Where the net assets of a public company are half or less of its called up share capital, the directors shall, not later than 30 days from the earliest day on which that fact is known to a director of the company, duly convene an extraordinary general meeting of the company for a date not later than 60 days from that day for the purpose of considering whether any, and if so, what steps should be taken to deal with the situation.

(2) If there is a failure to convene an extraordinary general meeting as required by subsection (1) of this section, each of the directors of the company who -

(a) knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits the failure; or

(b) after the expiry of the period during which that meeting should have been convened, knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits the failure to continue, shall be liable to a fine of =N=500.

(3) Nothing in this section shall authorise the consideration, at a meeting convened in pursuance of subsection (1) of this section, of any matter which could not have been considered at that meeting apart from this section.

- Power to pay interest out of capital in certain cases. 113. Where any shares of a company are issued for the purposes of raising money to defray the expenses of the construction of any works or buildings or the provision of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a long period, the company may pay interest on so much of that share capital as is for the time being paid up for the period and subject to the conditions and restrictions mentioned in this section, and may charge the same to capital as part of the cost of construction of the work, or building or the provision of plant.
- Provided that -
- (a) no such payment shall be made unless it is authorised by the articles or by special resolution;
 - (b) no such payment, whether authorised by the articles or by special resolution, shall be made without the previous sanction of the Commission;
 - (c) before sanctioning any such payment the Commission may, at the expense of the company, appoint a person to inquire and report to it as to the circumstances of the case, and may, before making the appointment, require the company to give security for the payment of the costs of the inquiry;
 - (d) the payment shall be made only for such period as may be determined by the Commission which shall in no case extend beyond the close of six months after the half year during which the works or buildings have been actually completed or the plant provided;
 - (e) the rate of interest shall not exceed the current bank rate;
 - (f) the payment of the interest shall not operate as a reduction of the amount paid up on the shares in respect of which it is paid.

PART VI - SHARES

Nature of Shares.

- Rights and liabilities attached to shares. 114. Subject to the provisions of this Decree, the rights and liabilities attaching to the shares of a company shall -

Provided that proceedings to recover any such loss, damages, or costs shall not be commenced after the expiration of two years from the date of the allotment.

- Return as to allotments. 129. (1) Whenever a company limited by shares makes any allotment of its shares, the company shall within one month thereafter deliver to the Commission for registration -
- (a) a return of the allotments stating the number and nominal amount of the shares comprised in the allotment, the names, addresses and description of the allottees, and the amount, if any, paid or due and payable on each share; and
 - (b) in the case of shares allotted as fully or partly paid up otherwise than in cash -
 - (i) a contract in writing constituting the title of the allottee to the allotment together with any contract of sale, or for services or other consideration in respect of which that allotment was made, such contracts being duly stamped;
 - (ii) a return stating the number and nominal amount of shares so allotted, the extent to which they are to be treated as paid up, and the consideration for which they have been allotted; and
 - (iii) particulars of the valuation of the consideration in accordance with section 137 of this Decree, if any.
- (2) If default is made in complying with this section, every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine of =N=50 for every day during which the default continues:

Provided that, in case of default in delivering to the Commission within one month after the allotment any document required to be delivered by this section, the company or any officer liable for the default, may apply to the court for relief, and the court, if satisfied that the omission to deliver the document was accidental or due to inadvertence or that it is just and equitable to grant relief, may make an order extending the time for the delivery of the document for such period as the court may think proper.

Commissions and Discounts.

- Prohibition of payment of commissions, discounts out of shares and capital. 130. (1) Except as provided in section 131 of this Decree, no company shall apply any of its shares or capital money either directly or indirectly in payment of any commission, discount or allowance to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the company, whether the shares or capital money are so applied by being added to the purchase money of any property acquired by the company or to the contract price of any work to be executed for the company, or any such money is paid out of the nominal purchase money or contract price, or otherwise.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall affect the payment of any brokerage as is usual for a company to pay.
- (3) A vendor to, promoter of, or other person who receives payment in money or shares from, a company shall have and shall be deemed always to have had power to apply any part of the money or shares so received in payment of any commission, the payment of which, if made directly by the company, would have been legal under this section.

- Power to pay commission in certain cases. 131. (1) It shall be lawful for a company to pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the company or procuring or agreeing to procure subscription, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the company if -
- (a) the payment of the commission is authorised by the articles; and
 - (b) the commission paid or agreed to be paid does not exceed ten percent of the price at which the shares are issued or the amount or rate authorised by the articles, whichever is the lesser; and
 - (c) the amount or rate percent of the commission paid or agreed to be paid is
 - (i) in the case of shares offered to the public for subscription, disclosed in the prospectus; or
 - (ii) in the case of shares not offered to the public for subscription, disclosed in the statement in lieu of prospectus, or in a statement in the prescribed form signed in like manner as a statement in lieu of prospectus, and delivered before the payment of the commission to the Commission for registration, and where a circular or notice, not being a prospectus inviting subscription for the shares is issued, also disclosed in that circular or notice; and
 - (d) the number of shares which persons have agreed for a commission to subscribe absolutely is disclosed in the manner specified in this section.
- (2) If default is made in delivering to the Commission any document required to be delivered to the Commission under this section, the company and every officer in default shall be liable to a fine =N=250.
- Statement in balance sheet as to commission. 132. (1) Where a company has paid any sum by way of commission in respect of any shares in the company, the amount so paid or so much of it as has not been written off, shall be stated in every balance sheet of the company until the whole amount has been written off.
- (2) If default is made in complying with this section, the company and every officer of the company in default is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=50 for every day during which the default continues.

Call on and Payment for Shares.

- Call on shares. 133. (1) Subject to the terms of the issue of the shares and of the articles the directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any money unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment of the shares made payable at fixed times:

Provided that no call shall exceed one fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call, and each member shall (subject to receiving at least 14 days notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares, so however that a call may be revoked or postponed as the directors may determine.

- (2) A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorising the call was passed, and may be required to be paid by instalments.
- (3) The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of the share.
- (4) If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding the current bank rate per annum, as the directors may determine, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
- (5) Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium shall, for the purposes of these provisions, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of this Decree as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
- (6) The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding (unless the company in general meeting shall otherwise direct) the current bank rate per annum as may be agreed upon between the directors and the member paying such sum in advance.

Reserve liability of company having share capital

A company limited by shares may by special resolution determine that any portion of its share capital which has not been already called up shall not be capable of being called up, and thereupon that portion of its share capital shall not be capable of being called up, except in the event and for the purposes specified in this section.

Payment for shares

Subject to the provisions of sections 136 and 137 of this Decree, the shares of a company and any premium on them shall be paid up in cash, or where the articles so permit, by a valuable consideration other than cash or partly in cash and partly by a valuable consideration other than cash.

Meaning of payment in cash.

Shares shall not be deemed to have been paid for in cash except to the extent that the company shall actually have received cash for them at the time of, or subsequently to the agreement to issue the shares, and where shares are issued to a person who has sold or agreed to sell property or rendered or agreed to render services to the company or to persons nominated by him, the amount of any payment made for the property or services shall be deducted from the amount of any cash payment made for the shares and only the balance (if any) shall be treated as having been paid in cash for such shares notwithstanding any exchange of cheques or other securities for money.

Where a company agrees to accept payment for its shares otherwise than wholly in cash, it shall appoint an independent valuer who shall determine the true value of the consideration other than cash, and prepare and submit to the company a report on the value of the consideration.

- (2) The valuer shall be entitled to require from the officers of the company such information and explanation as he thinks necessary to enable him carry out the valuation or make the report under subsection (3) of this section.
- (3) The company shall, not more than three days after the receipt by it of the valuers report, send a copy of it to the proposed purchaser of shares, and indicate to the proposed purchaser whether or not it intends to accept the consideration as payment or part-payment for its shares.
- (4) A company shall not accept as payment or part-payment for its share consideration other than cash unless the cash value of the consideration as determined by the valuer is worth at least as much as may be credited as paid up in respect of the shares allowed to the proposed purchaser.
- (5) A valuer who, in his report or otherwise, knowingly or recklessly makes a statement which is misleading, false or deceptive in a material particular shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for 12 months or to a fine of =N=1,000 or both such imprisonment and fine.
- (6) For the purposes of this section "valuer" means an auditor, a valuer, a surveyor, an engineer, or an accountant not being a person in the employment of the company nor an agent or associate of the company or any of its directors or officers.

Power to pay different amounts on

To the extent to which it is so authorised by its articles, a company may -

- (a) make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the shareholders in the amounts and times of payment of call on their shares;
- (b) accept from any member the whole or part of the amount remaining unpaid on any shares held by him, although no part of that amount has been called up;
- (c) pay dividend in proportion to the amount paid up on each share where a larger amount is paid up on some shares than on others.

Lien and Forfeiture of Shares.

shares.

- (1) A company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share, (not being a fully paid share for all moneys (whether currently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares (other than fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person for all moneys presently payable by him or his estate to the company; but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this subsection.
- (2) A company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable on it.
- (3) A company may sell, in such manner as the directors think fit any share on which the company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is currently payable, nor until the expiration of 14 days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is currently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the shares, or the person entitled to them by reason of his death or bankruptcy.

- (4) For the purpose of giving effect to any such sale the directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser of the shares, and the purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
- Forfeiture of shares. 140. (1) If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment, the directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
- (2) The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of 14 days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and it shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made shall be liable to be forfeited.
- (3) If the requirements of any such notice as is mentioned in sub-sections (1) and (2) of this section are not complied with, any share in respect of which notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect.
- (4) A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner, as the directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit.
- (5) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company receives payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.
- (6) A statutory declaration that the declarant is a director or the secretary of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares.
- (7) The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition of it and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of, and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
- (8) The provisions of this section as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Classes of Shares.

| Power to vary rights | 141 | (1) If at any time the share capital of a company is divided into different classes of shares under section 118 of this Decree, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the company is being wound up, be varied with the consent, in writing, of the holders of three-quarters of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class. (2) To every such separate general meeting as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, the provisions of this Decree relating to general meetings shall apply, so however that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll. (3) The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu with them. |
| Application for cancellation of variation | 142 | (1) Where in pursuance of section 141 of this Decree, the rights attached to any class of shares are at any time varied, the holders of not less in the aggregate than 15 percent of the issued shares of that class, being persons who did not consent to or vote in favour of the resolution for the variation, may apply to the court to have the variation cancelled, and, where any such application is made, the variation shall not have effect, unless and until it is confirmed by the court. (2) An application to the court under this section shall, in a proper case, be made within 21 days after the date on which the consent was given or the resolution was passed, as the case may be, and may be made on behalf of the shareholders entitled to make the application or by such one or more of their number as they may appoint in writing for the purpose. (3) If on any such application the court, after hearing the applicant and any other persons applying to it to be heard and appearing to be interested in the application, is satisfied that the variation would unfairly prejudice the shareholders of the class represented by the applicant, the court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may disallow the variation and shall if not satisfied, confirm the variation. (4) The decision of the court on any such application shall be final. (5) The company shall, within 15 days after the making of an order by the court on an application to it under this section, forward a copy of the order to the Commission and if default is made in complying with the provisions of this subsection, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine of =N=50 for every day during which the default continues. (6) In this section, "variation" includes abrogation and cognate expressions shall be constructed accordingly. |
| Right of a preference share to more than one vote | 143 | (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 116 of this Decree, the articles may provide that preference shares issued after the commencement of this Decree shall carry the rights to attend general meetings and on a poll at the meetings to more than one vote per share in the following circumstances, but not otherwise, that is to say - |

- (a) upon any resolution during such period as the preferential dividend or any part of it remains in arrears and unpaid, such period starting from a date not more than 12 months or such lesser period as the articles may provide, after the due date of the dividend; or
 - (b) upon any resolution which varies the rights attached to such shares; or
 - (c) upon any resolution to remove an auditor of the company or to appoint another person in place of such auditor; or
 - (d) upon any resolution for the winding up of the company or during the winding up of the company.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 116 of this Decree, any special resolution of a company increasing the number of shares of any class may validly resolve that any existing class of preference shares shall carry the right to such votes additional to one vote per share as shall be necessary in order to preserve the existing ratio which the votes exercisable by the holders of such preference shares at a general meeting of the company bear to the total votes exercisable at the meeting.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) of this section, a dividend shall be deemed to be due on the date appointed in the articles for the payment of the dividend for any year or other period, or if no such date is appointed, upon the day immediately following the expiration of the year or other period, and whether or not such dividend shall have been earned or declared.

Construction of class

144.

In construing the provisions of a company's articles in respect of the rights attached to shares, the following rules of construction shall be observed:-

- (a) unless the contrary intention appears, no dividend shall be payable on any shares unless the company shall resolve to declare such dividend;
- (b) unless the contrary intention appears, a fixed preferential dividend payable on any class of shares is cumulative, that is to say, no dividend shall be payable on any shares ranking subsequent to them until all the arrears of the fixed dividend have been paid;
- (c) unless the contrary intention appears, in a winding up arrears of any cumulative preferential dividend, whether earned or declared or are not payable up to the date of actual payment in the winding up;
- (d) if any class of shares is expressed to have a right to a preferential dividend, then, unless the contrary intention appears, such class has no further right to participate in dividends;
- (e) if any class of shares is expressed to have preferential rights to payment out of the assets of the company in the event of winding up, then unless the contrary intention appears, such class has no further right to participate in the distribution of assets in the winding up;
- (f) in determining the rights of the various classes to share in the distribution of the company's property on a winding up, no regard shall be paid, unless the contrary intention appears, to whether or not such property represents accumulated profits or surplus which would have been available for dividend while the company remained a going concern;

- (g) subject to this section, all shares rank equally in all respects, unless the contrary intention appears in the company's articles.

Numbering of Shares.

Shares to be numbered. 145.

Each share in a company having a share capital shall be distinguished by its appropriate number:

Provided that, if at any time all the issued shares in a company, or all of its issued shares of a particular class, are fully paid up and rank pari passu for all purposes, none of those shares need thereafter have a distinguishing number so long as it remains fully paid up and ranks pari passu for all purposes with all shares of the same class for the time being issued and fully paid up.

Share Certificates.

(1) Every company shall, within two months after the allotment of any of its shares and within 3 months after the date on which a transfer of any such shares is lodged with the company, complete and have ready for delivery the certificates of all shares allotted or transferred, unless the conditions of issue of the shares otherwise provide.

(2) Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall be entitled without payment to receive within 3 months of allotment or lodgement of transfer or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide one certificate for all his shares or several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon payment of a fee as the directors shall, from time to time, determine.

(3) Every certificate issued by a company shall be under the company's seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up on them:

Provided that in respect of shares held jointly by several persons, the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for shares to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

(4) If a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be replaced on such terms (if any), as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out of pocket expenses of the company of investigating evidence as the directors think fit.

(5) If any company on which a notice has been served requiring it to make good any default in complying with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section fails to make good the default within 10 days after the service of the notice, the court may, on the application of the person entitled to have the certificate delivered to him, make an order directing the company and any officer of the company to make good the default within such time as may be specified in the order, and any such order may provide that all costs of and incidental to the application shall be borne by the company or by any officer of the company responsible for the default.

(6) If default is made in complying with this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine of ₦50 for every day during which the default continues.

(7) In this section, "transfer" means a transfer duly stamped and otherwise valid, but does not include a transfer which under this Decree, a company is for any reason entitled to refuse to and does not, register.

- Effect of share certificate. 147. (1) A certificate, under the common seal of the company, specifying any shares held by any member, shall be prima facie evidence of the title of the member to the shares.
- (2) If any person changes his position to his detriment in good faith on the continued accuracy of the statements made in a certificate, the company shall be estopped from denying the continued accuracy of such statements and shall compensate the person for any loss suffered by him in reliance on them and which he would not have suffered had the statements been or continued to be accurate.
- (3) Nothing contained in subsection (2) of this section shall derogate from any right the company may have to be indemnified by any other person.
- Probate, etc. evidence of grants. 148. The production to a company of any document which is by law sufficient evidence as of probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, or confirmation executor, of a deceased person having been granted to some person, shall be accepted by the company as sufficient evidence of the grant, notwithstanding anything in its articles to the contrary.
- Abolition of share warrants. 149. (1) As from the date of commencement of this Decree, no company shall have the power to issue share warrants.
- (2) Every company shall within a period of 30 days from the date of commencement of this Decree, cancel any share warrants previously issued by it which are still valid on that date and enter in its register of members the names and relevant particulars of the bearers of the share warrants.
- (3) A person whose name is entered in a company's register of members by virtue of subsection (2) of this section, shall be deemed to be a member of the company with effect from the date on which the share warrant thereby cancelled, was issued.

Conversion of Shares into Stock.

- Conversion of shares into stock. 150. (1) The provisions of this section shall apply with respect to the conversion of all or any of the shares of a company into stock and the reconversion of such stock into shares under the provisions of section 100 of this Decree.
- (2) The conversion of any paid-up shares into stock and the reconversion of any stock into paid-up shares shall be by ordinary resolution of the company at a general meeting.
- (3) The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part of it in the same manner, and subject to the same conditions, as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previous to the conversion have been transferred, or as near to it as circumstances admit; and the directors may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so however that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
- (4) The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meeting of the company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profit of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

- (5) Such of the articles of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "shares" and "shareholder" in those articles shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

Creation of Debenture and Debenture Stock.
Power to borrow money, to charge property and to issue debentures	166		A company may borrow money for the purpose of its business or objects and may mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital, or any part thereof, and issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the company or of any third party.
Documents of title to debentures or certificate of debenture stock	167.	(1)	Every company shall, within 60 days after the allotment of any of its debentures or after the registration of the transfer of any debentures, deliver to the registered holder thereof, the debenture or a certificate of the debenture stock under the common seal of the company.

- (2) If a debenture or debenture stock certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed, the company at the request of the registered holder of the debenture, shall issue a certified copy of the debenture or renew the debenture stock certificate on payment of a fee not exceeding =N=5 and on such terms as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of the company's out-of-pocket expenses of investigating evidence as the company may reasonably require.
- (3) If default is made in complying with this section, the company and any officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine not exceeding =N=25; and on application by any person entitled to have the debentures or debenture stock certificate delivered to him, the court may order the company to deliver the debenture or debenture stock certificate and may require the company and any such officer to bear all the costs of and incidental to the application.

Statements to be included in debentures. 168.

Every debenture shall include a statement on the following matters, that is -

- (a) the principal amount borrowed;
- (b) the maximum discount which may be allowed on the issue or re-issue of the debentures, and the maximum premium at which the debentures may be made redeemable;
- (c) the rate of and the dates on which interest on the debentures issued shall be paid and the manner in which payment shall be made;
- (d) the date on which the principal amount shall be repaid or the manner in which redemption shall be effected, whether by the payment of instalments of principal or otherwise;
- (e) in the case of convertible debentures, the date and terms on which the debentures may be converted into shares and the amounts which may be credited as paid up on those shares, and the dates and terms on which the holders may exercise any right to subscribe for shares in right of the debentures held by them;
- (f) the charges securing the debenture and the conditions subject to which the debenture shall take effect.

Effect of statement in debentures.

- (1) Statements made in debenture or debenture stock certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the title to the debentures of the person named therein as the registered holder and of the amounts secured thereby.
- (2) If any person shall change his position to his detriment in reliance in good faith on the continued accuracy of any statements made in the debenture or debenture stock certificate, the company shall be estopped in favour of such person from denying the continued accuracy of such statements and shall compensate such person for any loss suffered by him in reliance thereon and which he would not have suffered had the statements been or continued to be accurate.
- Provided that nothing in this subsection shall derogate from any right the company may have to be indemnified by any other person.

Enforcement of contracts relating to debentures.

A contract with a company to take up and pay for any debentures of the company may be enforced by an order for specific performance.

Types of Debentures.

|---|------|-----|--|
| Perpetual debentures. | 171. | | A company may issue perpetual debentures, and a condition contained in any debentures, or in any deed for securing any debentures, shall not be invalid by reason only that the debentures are made irredeemable or redeemable only on the happening of a contingency, however remote, or on the expiration of a period, however long, any rule of equity to the contrary notwithstanding. |
| Convertible debentures. | 172. | | Debentures may be issued upon the terms that in lieu of redemption or repayment they may, at the option of the holder or the company, be converted into shares in the company upon such terms as may be stated in the debentures. |
| Secured or naked debentures. | 173. | (1) | Debentures may either be secured by a charge over the company's property or may be unsecured by any charge. |
| | | (2) | Debentures may be secured by a fixed charge on certain of the company's property or a floating charge over the whole or a specified part of the company's undertaking and assets, or by both a fixed charge on certain property and a floating charge. |
| | | (3) | A charge securing debentures shall become enforceable on the occurrence of the events specified in the debentures or the deed securing the same. |
| | | (4) | Where any legal proceedings are brought by a debenture holder to enforce the security of a series of debentures of which he holds part, the debenture holder shall sue in a representative capacity on behalf of himself and all other debenture holders of that series. |
| | | (5) | Where debentures are secured by a charge, the provisions of section 197 of this Decree relating to registration of particulars of charges shall apply. |
| Redeemable debentures. | 174. | | A company limited by shares may issue debentures which are, or at the option of the company are to be liable to be redeemed. |
| Power to re-issue redeemed debentures in certain cases. | 175. | (1) | Where either before or after the commencement of this Decree, a company has redeemed any debentures previously issued, then unless - |
| | | (a) | any provision, express or implied, to the contrary is contained in the articles or in any contract entered into by the company; or |
| | | (b) | the company has, by passing a resolution to that effect or by some other act, manifested its intention that the debentures shall be cancelled, the company shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had, power to re-issue the debentures, either by re-issuing the same debentures or by issuing other debentures in their place. |
| | | (2) | On a re-issue of redeemed debentures, the person entitled to the debentures, shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had, the same priorities as if the debentures had never been redeemed. |
| | | (3) | Where a company has either before or after the commencement of this Decree, deposited any of its debentures to secure advances, from time to time, on current account or otherwise, the debenture shall not be deemed to have been redeemed by reason only of the account of the company having ceased to be in debit, whilst the debentures remained so deposited. |
| | | (4) | The re-issue of a debenture or the issue of another debenture in its place under the power given by this section to or deemed to have been possessed by a company, whether the re-issue or issue was made before or after the commencement of this |

Decree, shall be treated as the issue of a new debenture for the purposes of a stamp duty, but it shall not be so treated for the purposes of any provision limiting the amount or number of debentures to be issued:

Provided that any person lending money on the security of a debenture re-issued under this section which appears to be duly stamped, may give the debenture in evidence in any proceedings for enforcing his security without payment of the stamp duty or any penalty in respect thereof, unless he had notice or, but for his negligence, might have discovered, that the debenture was not duly stamped, but in any such case the company shall be liable to pay the proper stamp duty and penalty,

(5) Nothing in this section shall prejudice any power to issue debentures in place of any debentures paid off or otherwise satisfied or extinguished which, by its debentures or the securities for the same, is reserved to a company.

Rights of

176.

(1) The trustees of a debenture trust deed shall hold all contracts, stipulations and undertakings given to him and all mortgages, charges and securities vested in him in connection with the debentures covered by the deed or some of these debentures, exclusively for the benefit of the debenture holders concerned (except in so far as the deed otherwise provides) and the trustee shall exercise due diligence in respect of the enforcement of those contracts, stipulations, undertakings, mortgages, charges and securities and the fulfillment of his functions generally.

(2) A debenture holder may sue:-

(a) the company which issued the debentures he holds for payment of any amount payable to him in respect of the debentures; or

(b) the trustee of the debenture trust deed covering the debentures he holds for compensation for any breach of the duties which the trustee owes him, and in any such action, it shall not be necessary for any other debenture holders of the same class, or if the action is brought against the company, the trustee of the covering trust deed, to be joined as a party.

(3) This section shall apply notwithstanding anything contained in a debenture, debenture trust deed or other instrument but a provision in a debenture or trust deed shall be valid and binding on all the debenture holders of the class concerned in so far as it enables a meeting of the debenture holders by a resolution supported by the votes of the holders of at least three-quarters in value of debentures of that class in respect of which votes are cast on the resolution to:-

(a) release any trustee from liability for any breach of his duties to the debenture holders which he has already committed, or generally from liability for all such breaches (without necessarily specifying them) upon his ceasing to be a trustee;

(b) consent to the alteration or abrogation of any rights, powers or remedies of the debenture holders and the trustee of the debenture trust deed covering their debentures (except the powers and remedies under section 209 of this Decree); or

(c) consent to the substitution for the debentures of a different class issued by the company or any other company or corporation, or the cancellation of the debentures in consideration of the issue to the debenture holders of shares credited as fully paid in the company or any other company.

Meetings of

(1) The terms of any debentures or trust deed may provide for the convening of general meetings of the debenture holders and for the passing, at such meetings, of a resolution binding on all the holders of the debentures of the same class.

- (2) Whether or not the debentures or trust deed contain such provisions as are referred to in subsection (1) of this section, the Commission may at any time direct a meeting of the debenture holders of any class to be held and conducted in such manner as the Commission thinks fit to consider ancillary or consequential direction as it shall think fit.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in a debenture trust deed, or in any debenture or contract or instrument the trustee of the debenture deed shall, on the requisition of persons holding, at the date of the deposit of the requisition debentures covered by the trust deed which carry not less than one tenth of the total voting rights attached to all the issued and outstanding debentures of that class, forthwith, proceed duly to convene a meeting of that class of debentures holders.

| Meaning of 'floating' and 'fixed' charges. | 178. | (1) "A floating charge" means an equitable charge over the whole or a specified part of the company's undertakings and "assets", including cash and uncalled capital of the company both present and future, but so that the charge shall not preclude the company from dealing with such assets until - (a) the security becomes enforceable and the holder thereof, pursuant to a power in that behalf in the debenture or the deed securing the same, appoints a receiver or manager or enters into possession of such assets; or (b) the court appoints a receiver or manager of such assets on the application of the holder; or (c) the company goes into liquidation. (2) On the happening of any of the events mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, the charge shall be deemed to crystallise and to become a fixed equitable charge on such of the company's assets as are subject to the charge, and if a receiver or manager is withdrawn with the consent of the chargee, or the chargee withdraws from possession, before the charge has been fully discharged, the charge shall thereupon be deemed to cease to be a fixed charge and again to become a floating charge. |
| Priority of fixed over floating charge | 179 | A fixed charge on any property shall have priority over a floating charge affecting that property, unless the terms on which the floating charge was granted prohibited the company from granting any later charge having priority over the floating charge and the person in whose favour such later charge was granted had actual notice of that prohibition at the time when the charge was granted to him. |
| Powers of the court. | 180 | (1) Whenever a fixed or floating charge has become enforceable, the court shall have power to appoint a receiver and in the case of a floating charge, a receiver and manager of the assets subject to the charge. (2) In the case of a floating charge, the court may, notwithstanding that the charge has not become enforceable, appoint a receiver or manager if satisfied that the security of the debenture holder is in jeopardy; and the security of the debenture holder shall be deemed to be in jeopardy if the court is satisfied that events have occurred or are about to occur which render it unreasonable in the interest of the debenture holder that the company should retain power to dispose of its assets. (3) A receiver or manager shall not be appointed as a means of enforcing debentures not secured by any charge. |
| Advertisement of appointment of receiver and manager. | 181. | Where a receiver or a receiver and manager is appointed by the court, advertisement to this effect shall be made by the receiver or the receiver and manager in the Gazette and in two daily newspapers. |

- Preferential payment to debenture holders in certain cases.
182. (1) Where a receiver is appointed on behalf of the holders of any debentures of a registered company secured by a floating charge, or possession is taken by, or on behalf of those debenture holders of any property comprising or subject to the charge, then if the company is not at the time in course of being wound up, the debts which in every winding up are under the provisions relating to preferential payments in Part XV of this Decree to be paid in priority to all other debts, shall be paid out of any assets coming to the hands of the receiver or other person taking possession as aforesaid in priority to any claim for principal or interest in respect of the debentures.
- (2) In the application of the provisions relating to preferential payments -
- (a) section 494 of this Decree shall be construed as if, the provision for payment of accrued holiday remuneration becoming payable on the termination of employment before or by the effect of the winding-up order or resolution, were a provision for payment of such remuneration becoming payable on the termination of employment before or by the effect of appointment of the receiver or possession being taken as aforesaid; and
- (b) the periods of time mentioned therein shall be reckoned from the date of the appointment of the receiver or of possession being taken as aforesaid, as the case may be, and if such date occurred before the commencement of this Decree, the provisions relating to preferential payments which would have applied but for this Decree, shall be deemed to remain in full force.
- (3) Any payments made under this section, shall be recouped as far as may be out of the assets of the company available for payment of general creditors.

Debenture Trust Deed.

- Execution of debenture trust deed.
183. (1) Every company which offers debentures to the public for subscription or purchase shall, before issuing any of the debentures, execute debenture trust deed in respect of them and procure the execution of the deed by the trustee for the debenture holders appointed by the deed.
- (2) No debenture trust deed shall cover more than one class of debentures, whether or not the trust deed is required by this section to be executed.
- (3) Where a trust deed is required to be executed by this section but has not been executed, the court, on the application of a debenture holder concerned, may -
- (a) order the company to execute a trust deed;
- (b) direct that a person nominated by the court shall be appointed to be trustee; and
- (c) give such consequential directions as it thinks fit, as to the contents of the trust deed and its execution by the trustee thereof.
- (4) For the purposes of this Decree, debentures shall belong to different classes if different rights attach to them in respect of -
- (a) the rate of, or dates for payment of interest;

- (b) the dates when, or the instalments by which, the principal of the debenture shall be repaid, unless the difference is solely that the class of debentures shall be repaid during a stated period of time and particular debentures may be repaid during a stated period of time and according to selections made by the company or by drawings, ballot or otherwise;
- (c) any right to subscribed for or convert the debentures into shares in, or other debentures of, the company or any other company; or
- (d) the powers of the debenture holders to realise any security.
- (5) Debentures further belong to different classes, if they do not rank equally for payment when any security invested in the debenture holders under any trust deed is realised or when the company is wound up, that is to say, if, in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (4) of this subsection the subject matter of any such security or the proceeds thereof, or any assets available to satisfy the debentures, is or are not to be applied in satisfying the debentures strictly in proportion to the amount of principal, premiums and arrears of interest to which the holders of them are respectively entitled.
- (6) a debenture is covered by a trust deed if -
- (a) the holder of the debenture is entitled to participate in any money payable by the company under the deed; or
- (b) is entitled to the benefit of any mortgage, charge or security created by the deed, whether alone or together with other persons.
- (7) If a company issues debentures in circumstances in which this section requires a debenture trust deed to be executed without such a deed, having been executed in compliance with this section, or if the company issues debentures under a trust deed which covers two or more classes of debentures, the directors of the company who are in default are guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of =N=5,000 jointly or severally.

- (a) the maximum sum which the company may raise by issuing debentures of the same class;
- (b) the maximum discount which may be allowed on the issue or re-issue of the debentures, and the maximum premium at which the debentures may be made redeemable;
- (c) the nature of any assets over which a mortgage, charge or security is created by the trust deed in favour of the trustee for the benefit of the debenture holders equally, and except where such a charge is a floating charge or a general floating charge, the identity of the assets subject to it;
- (d) the nature of any assets over which a mortgage, charge or security has been or will be created in favour of any person other than the trustee for the benefit of the debenture holders equally, and except where such a charge is a floating charge or a general floating charge, the identity of the assets subject to it;

- (e) whether the company has created or will create any mortgage charge or security for the benefit of some, but not all, of the holders of debentures issued under the trust deed;
 - (f) any prohibition or restriction on the power of the company to issue debentures or to create mortgages, charges or any security on any of its assets ranking in priority to, or equally with the debentures issued under the trust deed;
 - (g) whether the company shall have power to acquire debentures issued under the trust deed before the date of their redemption and to re-issue the debentures;
 - (h) the rate of and the dates on which interest on the debentures issued under the trust deed shall be paid and the manner in which payment may be made;
 - (i) the date or dates on which the principal or the debentures issued under the trust deed shall be repaid, and unless the whole principal is to be repaid to all the debenture holders at the same time, the manner in which redemption shall be effected, whether by the payment of equal instalments of principal in respect of each debenture, or by the selection of the debentures for redemption by the company, or by drawing, ballot, or otherwise;
 - (j) in the case of convertible debentures, the dates and terms on which the debentures may be converted into shares and the amounts which may be credited as paid up on those shares in right of the debentures held by them;
 - (k) the circumstances in which the debenture holders shall be entitled to realise any mortgage, charge or security invested in the trustee or any other person for their benefit (other than the circumstances in which they are entitled to do so by this Decree);
 - (l) the powers of the company and the trustee to call meetings of the debenture holders and the rights of the debenture holders to require the company or the trustee to call such meetings;
 - (m) whether the rights of debenture holders may be altered or abrogated and if so, the conditions which must be fulfilled, and the procedure which must be followed, to effect such an alteration or abrogation, and
 - (n) the amount or rate of remuneration to be paid to the trustee and the period for which it shall be paid, and whether it shall be paid in priority to the principal, interest and costs in respect of debentures issued under the trust deed.
- (2) If debentures are issued without a covering debenture trust deed being executed, the statements required by subsection (1) of this section shall be included in each debenture or in a note forming part of the same document or endorsed thereon, and in applying that subsection references therein to "the debenture trust deed" shall be construed as references to all or any of the debentures of the same class.
- (3) Subsection (2) of this section shall not apply if the debenture is the only debenture of the class to which it belongs which has been or may be issued, and the rights of the debenture holder may not be altered or abrogated without his consent.

- (4) Any director who issues debenture in violation of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence.
- Contents of debenture covered by trust deed. 185. (1) Every debenture covered by a debenture trust deed shall state, either in the body thereof or in a note forming part of the same document or endorsed thereon -

201. (1) Where, at the date of commencement of this Decree, a company has property on which there is a charge particulars of which would require registration if it had been created by the company after the date of such commencement then, unless the charge has been discharged or the property has ceased to be held by the company prior to the expiration of 6 months from the date of such commencement, the company shall, within that time, cause particulars of the charge as prescribed by section 197 of this Decree to be delivered to the Commission for registration together with the document, if any, by which the charge was created or a copy thereof, certified as required by that section.
- (2) Every existing company shall, prior to the expiration of the 6 months from the commencement of this Decree, deliver to the Commission for registration a statutory declaration made by a director and the secretary of the company stating whether or not there are any charges on the company's property of which particulars require to be registered under this section and confirming that particulars of any such charges have been duly delivered to the Commission for registration.
- (3) In the event of default in complying with subsection (2) of this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding =N=50 for every day during which the default continues.
- (4) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not affect the validity of the charge.

Charges to secure fluctuating amounts.

202. Where a charge, particulars of which require registration under section 197 of this Decree, is expressed to secure all sums due or to become due or some other uncertain or fluctuating amount, the particulars required under paragraph (a) of subsection (9) of section 197 of this Decree shall state the maximum sum deemed to be secured by such charge (being the maximum sum covered by the stamp duty paid thereon) and such charge shall be void, so far as any security on the company's property is thereby conferred, as respect to any excess over the stated maximum:

Provided that, if -

- (a) additional stamp duty is subsequently paid on such charge; and
- (b) at any time thereafter prior to the commencement of the winding up of the company, amended particulars of the said charge stating the increased maximum sum deemed to be secured thereby (together with the original instrument by which the charge was created or evidenced) are delivered to the Commission for registration, then, as from the date of such delivery the charge, if otherwise valid, shall be effective to the extent of such increased maximum sum except as regards any person who, prior to the date of such delivery, has acquired any proprietary rights in, or a fixed or floating charge on, the property subject to the charge.

- Endorsement of certificate of registration on debentures. 203. (1) The company shall cause a copy of every certificate of registration given under section 198 of this Decree to be endorsed on every debenture or certificate of debenture stock which is issued by the company and the payment of which is secured by the charge so registered:
- Provided that nothing in this subsection shall be construed as requiring a company to cause a certificate of registration of any charge so given to be enforced on any debenture or certificate of debenture stock issued by the company before the charge was created.
- (2) If any person knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits the delivery of any debenture or certificate of debenture stock which under the provisions of this section is required to have endorsed on it a copy of a certificate of registration without the copy being so endorsed upon it, he shall, without prejudice to any other liability, be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding =N=500.
- Entries of satisfaction of charges. 204. If the Commission is satisfied with respect to any registered charge that -
- (a) that debt for which the charge was given has been paid or satisfied in whole or in part; or
- (b) part of the property or undertaking charged has been released from the charge or has ceased to form part of the company's property or undertaking, it may enter on the register a memorandum of satisfaction to the extent necessary to give effect thereto and, where it enters a memorandum of satisfaction it shall, if required, furnish the company with a copy of the entry, and any such entry shall have effect subject to the requirement of any other enactment as to registration.
- Rectification of register. 205. The court, on being satisfied that the omission to register a charge within the time required by this Decree or that the omission or mis-statement of any particular with respect to any such charge or in a memorandum of satisfaction was accidental, or due to inadvertence or to some other sufficient cause, or is not of a nature to prejudice the position of creditors or shareholders of the company, or that on other grounds it is just and equitable to grant relief, may, on the application of the company or any person interested and on such terms and conditions as seems to the Court just and expedient, order that the time for registration shall be extended or, as the case may be, that the omission or mis-statement shall be rectified.
- Registration of appointment order, etc. 206. (1) If any person obtains an order for the appointment of a receiver or manager of the property of a company, or appoints such a receiver or manager under any powers contained in any instrument, he shall, within 7 days from the date of the order or the appointment under the said powers, give notice of the fact to the Commission and the Commission shall, on payment of such fee as may be specified by regulations made under this Decree, enter the fact in the register of charges.
- (2) Where any person appointed receiver or manager of the property of a company under the powers contained in any instrument, ceases to act as such receiver or manager, he shall, on so ceasing, give the Commission notice to that effect, and the Commission shall enter, the notice in the register of charges.
- (3) If any person makes default in complying with the requirements of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding =N=50 for every day during which the default continues.

- Inspection of register and copies of instruments.
207. (1) The copies of instruments creating any charge requiring registration under this part of this Decree with the Commission and the register of charges kept in pursuance of section 198 of this Decree, shall be open during business hours (but subject to such reasonable restrictions as the company in general meeting may impose, so that not less than two hours in each day shall be allowed for inspection) to inspection by any creditor or member of the company without fee, and the register of charges shall also be open to inspection by any other person on payment of such fee, not exceeding ₦1 for each inspection, as the company may prescribe.
- (2) If inspection of copies of instruments creating charges or of the register is refused, every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding ₦5 for every day during which the refusal continues.
- (3) If any such refusal occurs in relation to a company registered in Nigeria or, in so far as a foreign company has an established place of business within Nigeria and an instrument creates a charge over any of its property in Nigeria and the refusal relates to that charge, the court may by order compel an immediate inspection of the copies or register.

Realisation of Security.

- Realisation of debenture holder's security.
208. (1) A debenture holder shall be entitled to realise any security vested in him or in any other person for his benefit if -
- (a) the company fails to pay any instalment of interest, or the whole or part of the principal or any premium, owing under the debenture or the debenture trust deed covering the debenture within one month after it becomes due;
 - (b) the company fails to fulfil any of the obligations imposed on it by the debentures or the debenture trust deed;
 - (c) any circumstances occur which by the terms of the debentures or debenture trust deed entitled the holder of the debentures to realise his security; or
 - (d) the company is wound up.
- (2) A debenture holder whose debenture is secured by a general floating charge vested in him or the trustee of the covering debenture trust deed or any other person shall additionally be entitled to realise his security if -
- (a) any creditor of the company issues a process of execution against any of its assets or commences proceedings for winding up of the company by order of any court of competent jurisdiction; or
 - (b) the company ceases to pay its debts as they fall due; or
 - (c) the company ceases to carry on business; or
 - (d) the company suffers, after the issue of debenture of the class concerned, losses or diminutions in the value of its assets which in the aggregate amount to more than one-half of the total amount owing in respect of debentures of the class held by the debenture holder who seeks to enforce his security and debentures whose holder ranks before him for payment of principal or interest; or

- (e) any circumstances occur which entitles a debenture holder who ranks for payment of principal or interest in priority to the debentures secured by the general floating charges to realise his security.
- Remedies available to debenture holders 209. (1) At any time after a debenture holder or a class of debenture holders becomes entitled to realise his or their security, a receiver of any assets subject to a mortgage, charge or security in favour of the class of debenture holders or the trustee of the covering trust deed or any other person may be appointed by -
- (a) that trustee;
 - (b) the holders of debentures of the same class containing power to appoint; or
 - (c) debenture holders having more than one half- of the total amount owing in respect of all the debentures of the same class; or
 - (d) the court on the application of the trustee.
- (2) Subject to any conditions imposed in the debenture or debenture trust deed, a debenture holder or a trustee in the case of a trust deed may -
- (a) bring an action in a representative capacity against the company for payment and enforcement of the security; or
 - (b) realise his security by -
 - (i) bringing a foreclosure action; or
 - (ii) commencing a winding up proceeding.
- (3) A receiver appointed under this section shall have subject to any order made by the court, power to take possession of the assets subject to the mortgage, charge or security and to sell those assets and, if the mortgage, charge or security extends to such property, to collect debts owed to the property, to enforce claims vested in the company, to compromise, settle and enter into arrangements in respect of claims by or against the company, on the company's business with a view to selling it on the most favourable terms, to grant or accept leases of land and licences in respect of patents, designs, copyright or trademarks, and to recover any instalment unpaid on the company's issued shares.
- (4) Where a representative action is being brought under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section, the approval of the court shall be obtained where the company is being wound up.
- (5) The remedies given by this section shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other powers and remedies conferred on the trustee of the debenture trust deed or on the debenture holders by the debentures or debenture trust deed, and any power or remedy which is expressed in any instrument to be exercisable if the debenture holders become entitled to realise their security is exercisable on the occurrence of any of the events specified in subsection (1) of section 208 of this Decree or in the case of a general charge in subsections (1) and (2) of section 208 of this Decree; but a manager of the business or of any of the assets of a company may not be appointed for the benefit of debenture holders unless a receiver has also been appointed and has not ceased to act.

- (6) The provisions of section 387 to 400 of this Decree shall apply to receivers and managers under this Part of this Decree.
- (7) No provision in any instrument which purports to exclude or restrict the remedies given by this section shall be valid.

Application of certain sections.

210.

Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Decree and unless the context otherwise admits, the provisions of sections 146, 147, 151, 153, 156 and 157 of this Decree relating to share certificates and transfer of shares shall apply in respect of shares as if "debentures" were substituted for "shares" and "debentures holders" for "shareholders".

PART VIII - MEETINGS AND PROCEEDINGS OF COMPANIES

Statutory Meeting.

Statutory meetings.

211.

- (1) Every public company shall, within a period of 6 months from the date of its incorporation, hold a general meeting of the members of the company (in this Decree referred to as "the statutory meeting").
- (2) The directors shall, at least 21 days before the day on which the statutory meeting is held, forward to every member of the company statutory report.
- (3) The statutory report shall be certified by not less than 2 directors or by a director and the secretary of the company and shall state -
- (a) the total number of shares allotted, distinguishing shares allotted as fully or partly paid up otherwise than in cash, and stating in the case of shares partly paid up the extent to which they are so paid up, and in either case the consideration for which they have been allotted;
 - (b) the total amount of cash received by the company in respect of all the shares allotted, distinguished as aforesaid;
 - (c) the names, addresses and descriptions of the directors, auditors, managers, if any, and secretary of the company;
 - (d) the particulars of any pre-incorporation contract together with the particulars of any modification or proposed modification thereon;
 - (e) any underwriting contract that has not been carried out and the reasons therefore;
 - (f) the arrears if any, due on calls from every director;
 - (g) the particulars of any commission or brokerage paid or to be paid in connection with the issue of sale of shares or debentures to any director or to the manager.
- (4) The report shall also contain an abstract of the receipts of the company and of the payments made from them up to a date within 7 days of the date of the report, exhibiting under distinctive headings the receipt of the company from shares and debentures and other sources, the payments made from such receipts and particulars concerning the balance remaining in hand, and an account or estimate of the preliminary expenses of the company.

- (5) The statutory report shall, so far as it relates to the shares allotted by the company, and to the cash received in respect of such shares, and to the receipts and payments of the company on capital account, be certified as correct by the auditors of the company.
- (6) The directors shall cause a copy of the statutory report, certified as required by this section, to be delivered to the Commission for registration forthwith after the sending of copies to the members of the company.
- (7) The directors shall cause a list showing the names, descriptions and addresses of the members of the company, and the number of shares held by them respectively, to be produced at the commencement of the meeting and to remain open and accessible to any member of the company during the continuance of the statutory meeting.
- (8) The members of the company present at the statutory meeting shall be at liberty to discuss any matter relating to the formation of the company and its commencement of business or arising out of the statutory report.
- (9) Any member who wishes a resolution to be passed on any matter arising out of the statutory report shall give further 21 days notice from the date on which the statutory report was received to the company of his intention to propose such a resolution.
- (10) The statutory meeting may adjourn from time to time and at any adjourned meeting any resolution of which notice has been given in accordance with the articles, either before or subsequently to the former meeting, may be passed, and the adjourned meeting shall have the same powers as an original meeting.

Non-compliance 212.

Without prejudice to the provisions of section 408 of this Decree, if a company fails to comply with the requirements of section 211 of this Decree, the company and any officer in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of ₦50 for every day during which the default continues.

General Meeting.

Annual General 213.
Meeting.

- (1) Every company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of a company and that of the next.

Provided that -

- (a) so long as a company holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months of its incorporation it needs not hold it in that year or in the following year;
 - (b) except for the first annual general meeting, the Commission shall have the power to extend the time within which any annual general meeting shall be held, by a period not exceeding 3 months;
- (2) If default is made in holding a meeting of a company in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, the Commission may, on the application of any member of the company, call or direct the calling of, a general meeting of the company and give such ancillary or consequential directions as the Commission thinks expedient, including directions modifying or supplementing, in relation to the calling, holding and conducting of the meeting the operation of the company's articles; and it is hereby declared that the directions that may be given under this subsection shall include a direction that one member of the company present in person or by proxy may apply to the court for an order to take a decision which shall bind all the members.

- (3) A general meeting held in pursuance of subsection (2) of this section shall, subject to any directions of the Commission, be deemed to be an annual general meeting of the company, but, where a meeting so held is not held in the year in which the default in holding the company's annual general meeting occurred, the meeting so held shall not be treated as the annual general meeting for the year in which it is held unless at that meeting the company resolves that it shall be so treated.
- (4) Where a company resolves that a meeting shall be treated as its annual general meeting, a copy of the resolution shall, within 15 days after the passing thereof, be filed with the Commission.
- (5) If default is made in holding a meeting of the company in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, or in complying with any directions of the Commission under subsection (2) thereof, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and be liable to a fine of ₦500 and if default is made in complying with subsection (4) of this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine of ₦25.

Businesses Transacted at Annual General Meeting. 214.

All businesses transacted at annual general meeting, shall be deemed special businesses except declaring a dividend, the presentation of the financial statement and the reports of the directors and auditors, the election of the directors in the place of those retiring, the appointment, and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors, the appointment of the members of the audit committee and the choice of venue of the next Annual General Meeting which shall be ordinary business.

Extraordinary General Meeting.

Extraordinary General Meetings. 215.

- (1) The Board of directors may convene an extraordinary general meeting whenever they deem fit, and if at any time there are not within Nigeria sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any director may convene an extraordinary general meeting.
- (2) An extraordinary general meeting of a company may be requisitioned by any member or members of the company holding at the date of the requisition not less than one-tenth of the paid up capital of the company as at the date of the deposit carrying the right of voting, or in the case of a company not having a share capital, members of the company representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having at the said date a right to vote at general meetings of the company, and the directors shall on receipt of the requisition forthwith proceed duly to convene an extraordinary general meeting of the company, notwithstanding anything in its articles.

- (3) The requisition shall state the objects of the meeting, and be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the registered office of the company, and the requisition may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more requisitionists.
- (4) If the directors do not within 21 days from the date of the deposit of the requisition proceed duly to convene a meeting, the requisitionists, or any one or more of them representing more than one-half of the total voting rights of all of them, may themselves convene a meeting:
- Provided that any meeting so convened shall not be held after the expiration of 3 months from that date.
- (5) A meeting convened under this section by a requisitionist or requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are to be convened by directors.
- (6) Any reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionist or requisitionists by reason of the failure of the directors duly to convene a meeting shall be repaid to the requisitionists by the company, and any sum so repaid shall be retained by the company out of any sums due or to become due from the company by way of fees or other remuneration in respect of their services to such of the directors as were in default.
- (7) For the purpose of this section the directors shall, in the case of a meeting at which a resolution is to be proposed as a special resolution, be deemed not to have duly convened the meeting if they do not give such notice as is required by section 217 of this Decree.
- (8) All businesses transacted at an extraordinary general meeting shall be deemed special.

Place of meeting

All statutory and annual general meetings shall be held in Nigeria.

Notice of Meetings.

notice for calling

217

- (1) The notice required for all types of general meetings from the commencement of this Decree shall be 21 days from the date on which the notice was sent out.
- (2) A general meeting of a company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by a shorter notice than that specified in subsection (1) of this section, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed in the case of -
- (a) a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote there at; and
- (b) any other general meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 percent in nominal value of the shares giving a right to attend and vote at the meeting or, in the case of a company not having a share capital, together representing not less than 95 percent of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the members.

- Contents of notice. 218. (1) The notice of a meeting shall specify the place, date and time of the meeting, and the general nature of the business to be transacted thereat in sufficient detail to enable those to whom it is given to decide whether to attend or not, and where the meeting is to consider a special resolution shall set out the terms of the resolution.
- (2) In the case of notice of an annual general meeting a statement that the purpose is to transact the ordinary business of an annual general meeting shall be deemed to be a sufficient specification that the business is for the declaration of dividends, presentation of the financial statements, reports of the directors and auditors, the election of directors in the place of those retiring, the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors and, if the requirements of sections 362 and 363 of this Decree are duly complied with, the removal and election of auditors and directors.
- (3) No business may be transacted at any general meeting unless notice of it has been duly given.
- (4) In every case in which a member is entitled, pursuant to section 230 of this Decree, to appoint a proxy to attend and vote instead of him, the notice shall contain with reasonable prominence, a statement that the member has the right to appoint a proxy to attend and vote instead of him and that the proxy need not be a member of the company, and if default is made in complying with this subsection as respects any meeting, every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding =N=500.
- (5) An error or omission in a notice with respect to the place, date, time or general nature of the business of a meeting shall not invalidate the meeting, unless the officer of the company responsible for the error or omission acted in bad faith or failed to exercise due care and diligence:
- Provided that in the case of accidental error or omission, the officer responsible shall effect the necessary correction either before or during the meeting
- Persons entitled to notice. 219. (1) The following persons shall be entitled to receive notice of a general meeting -
- (a) every member;
 - (b) every person upon whom the ownership of a share devolves by reason of his being a legal representative, receiver or a trustee in bankruptcy of a member;
 - (c) every director of the company;
 - (d) every auditor for the time being of the company; and
 - (e) the secretary.
- (2) No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings.
- Service of notice. 220. (1) A notice may be given by the company to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him or to his registered address, or (if he has no registered address within Nigeria) to the address, if any supplied by him to the company for the giving of notice to him.

(2) Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying, and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected in the case of a place of a meeting at the expiration of 7 days after the letter containing the same is posted, and in any other case at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

(3) A notice may be given by the company to the joint holders of a share by giving the notice to the joint holder first named in the register of members in respect of the share.

(4) A notice may be given by the company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt, or by any like description, at the address, if any within Nigeria supplied for the purpose by the person claiming to be so entitled, or (until such an address has been so supplied) by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.

(5) "Registered address" means, in the case of a member, any address supplied by him to the company for the giving of notice to him.

Failure to give notice.

221. (1) Failure to give notice of any meeting to a person entitled to receive it shall invalidate the meeting unless such failure is an accidental omission on the part of the person or persons giving the notice.

(2) Failure to give notice to a person entitled to it due to a misrepresentation or misinterpretation of the provisions of this Decree, or of the articles shall not amount to an accidental omission for the purposes of the foregoing subsection.

Additional notice.

222. In addition to the notice required to be given to those entitled to receive it in accordance with the provisions of this Decree, every public company shall, at least 21 days before any general meeting, advertise a notice of such meeting in at least two daily newspapers.

order meetings.

223. (1) If for any reason it is impracticable to call a meeting of a company or of the board of directors in any manner in which meetings of that company or board may be called, or to conduct the meeting of the company or board in the manner prescribed by the articles or this Decree, the court may, either of its own motion or on the application of any director of the company or of any member of the company who would be entitled to vote at the meeting, in the case of the meeting of the company, and of any director of the company, in case of the meeting of the board, order a meeting of the company or board, as the case may be, to be called, held and conducted in such manner as the court thinks fit, and where any such order is made may give such ancillary or consequential directions as it thinks expedient.

(2) It is hereby declared that the directions that may be given under subsection (1) of this section shall include a direction that one member of the company present in person or by proxy in the case of a meeting of the company and one director in the case of the Board may apply to the court for an order to take a decision which shall bind all the members.

(3) Any meeting called, held and conducted in accordance with an order under subsection (1) of this section, shall for all purposes be deemed to be a meeting of the company or of the board of directors duly called, held and conducted.

Voting.

- (3) In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- (4) A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith, and on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.
- Rights of attendance at general meeting. 227. (1) Subject to section 228 of this Decree, every member shall have a right to attend any general meeting of the company in accordance with the provisions of section 81 of this Decree.
- (2) In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.
- (3) A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, receiver, curator bonis, or other person in the nature of a committee, receiver or curator bonis appointed by that court, and any such committee, receiver, curator bonis or other person may vote by proxy.
- Attendance at meetings. 228. Every person who is entitled to receive notice of a general meeting of the company as provided by section 219 of this Decree shall be entitled to attend such a meeting.
- Objections as to qualification to vote. 229. No objections shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes and any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
- Proxies. 230. (1) Any member of a company entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the company shall be entitled to appoint another person (whether a member or not) as his proxy to attend and vote instead of him, and a proxy appointment to attend and vote instead of a member shall also have the same right as the member to speak at the meeting.
- Provided that, unless the articles otherwise provide, this section shall not apply in the case of a company not having a share capital.
- (2) In every notice calling a meeting of a company having a share capital, there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy or, where that is allowed, two or more proxies, to attend and vote instead of him, and that a proxy need not be a member and if default is made in complying with this subsection as respects any meeting, every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=250.
- (3) Any provision contained in a company's articles shall be void in so far as it would have the effect of requiring the instrument appointing a proxy or any other document necessary to show the validity of or otherwise relating to the appointment of a proxy, to be received by the company or any other person more than 48 hours before a meeting or adjourned meeting in order that the appointment may be effective at the meeting.

- (4) If for the purpose of any meeting of a company, invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the company's expense to some only of the members entitled to be sent notice of the meeting and to vote by proxy at the meeting, every officer of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits their issue as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of ₦500:

Provided that an officer shall not be liable under this subsection by reason only of the issue to a member at his request in writing of a form of appointment naming the proxy or of a list of persons willing to act as proxy if the form or list is available on request in writing to every member entitled to vote at the meeting by proxy.

- (5) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given:

Provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer as aforesaid has been received by the company before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

- (6) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointer is a corporation, either under seal, or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised.
- (7) The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the registered office or head office of the company or at such other place within Nigeria as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; and in default, the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
- (8) This section shall apply to meetings of any class of members of a company as it applies to general meetings of the company.

- (a) a company;
- (b) the holders of any class of shares in a company; or
- (c) the directors of a company;

The resolution shall for all purposes be treated as having been passed on the date on which it was in fact passed, and shall not be deemed to have been passed on any earlier date.

Miscellaneous Matters Relating to Meetings and Proceedings.

Adjournment.

- (1) The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- (2) When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting; but otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- (3) If within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if convened upon the requisition of members shall be dissolved, but in any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the chairman and in his absence, the directors may direct.
- (4) If a meeting stands adjourned under subsection (3) of this section, any two or more members present at the place and time to which it so stands adjourned shall form a quorum and their decision shall bind all shareholders, and where only one member is present, he may seek the direction of the court to take a decision.

Powers and duties of the Chairman of the general meeting.

- (1) The chairman, if any, of the board of directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- (2) If at any meeting no director is willing to act as chairman or if no director is present within one hour after the time appointed for holding of the meeting the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- (3) The duties and powers of the chairman shall include a duty to -
 - (a) preserve order and power to take such measures as are reasonably necessary to do so;
 - (b) see that proceedings are conducted in a regular manner;
 - (c) ensure that the true intention of the meeting is carried out in resolving any issue that arises before it;

- (d) ensure that all questions that arise are promptly decided; and
- (e) act bona fide in the interest of the company.

- (4) The chairman shall cast his vote bona fide in the interest of the company as a whole, provided that if he is also a shareholder, he may cast it in his own interest.
- (5) The chairman shall have power to adjourn a meeting in accordance with section 239 (1) of this Decree.

Minutes of proceedings and effect.

- (1) Every company shall -
 - (a) cause minutes of all proceedings of general meetings;
 - (b) all proceedings at meetings of its directors; and
 - (c) where there are managers, all proceedings at meetings of its managers, to be entered in books kept for that purpose.
- (2) Any such minute if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be prima facie evidence of the proceedings.
- (3) Where minutes have been made, in accordance with the provisions of this section, of the proceedings at any general meeting of the company or meeting of directors or managers, then, until the contrary is proved, the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly held and convened, and all proceedings had at the meeting to have been duly had, and all appointments of directors, managers or liquidators shall be deemed to be valid.
- (4) If a company fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of ₦500.

Inspection of minute books and copies.

- (1) The books containing the minutes of proceedings of any general meeting of a company held on or after the commencement of this Decree, shall be kept at the registered office of the company, and shall during business hours (subject to such reasonable restrictions as the company may by its articles or in general meeting impose, but so that no less than 6 hours in each day be allowed for inspection) be open to inspection by members without charge.
- (2) Any member shall be entitled to be furnished within 7 days after receipt of his request in that behalf to the company, with a copy of any such minutes certified by the Secretary at a charge not exceeding 10 kobo for every hundred words.
- (3) If any inspection required under this section is refused or if any copy required under this section is not sent within the proper time, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable in respect of each offence to a fine of ₦25.
- (4) In the case of any such refusal or default, the court may by order compel an immediate inspection of the books in respect of all proceedings of general meetings, or direct that the copies required shall be sent to the persons requiring them.

- Class meetings. 243. The provisions of the foregoing sections shall apply to any class meetings except where expressly excluded by this Decree.

PART IX - DIRECTORS AND SECRETARIES OF THE COMPANY

Meaning of Directors.

- Meaning of Directors. 244. (1) Directors of a company registered under this Decree are persons duly appointed by the company to direct and manage the business of the company.
- (2) In favour of any person dealing with the company there shall be a rebuttable presumption that all persons who are described by the company as directors, whether as executive or otherwise, have been duly appointed.
- (3) Where a person not duly appointed acts or holds himself out as a director, he shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction shall be liable to imprisonment for 2 years or to a fine of =N=100 for each day he so acts or holds out himself as a director, or to both such imprisonment or fine and shall be restrained by the company.
- (4) If it is the company that holds him out as a director, it shall be liable to a fine of =N=1,000 each day it holds him out, and he and the company may be restrained by any member from so acting unless or until he is duly appointed.

- Shadow director. 245. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of sections 244 and 250, and for the purposes of sections 253, 275 and 281 of this Decree, "director" shall include any person on whose instructions and directions the directors are accustomed to act.
- (2) Subject to sections 275, 280 and 281 of this Decree, nothing contained in section 250 of this Decree shall be deemed to derogate from the duties or liabilities of the duly appointed directors.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, the fact that a person in his professional capacity gives advice and a director acts on it shall not be construed to make such a person under this Decree person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the director of a company is accustomed to act.

Appointment of Directors.

- Number of directors. 246. (1) Every company registered on or after the commencement of this Decree shall have at least two directors and every company registered before that date shall before the expiration of 6 months from the commencement of this Decree have at least two directors.
- (2) Any company whose number of directors falls below two, shall within one month of its so falling appoint new directors and shall not carry on business after the expiration of one month, unless such new directors are appointed.
- (3) A director or member of a company who knows that a company carries on business after the number of directors has fallen below two for more than 60 days shall be liable for all liabilities and debts incurred by the company during that period when the company so carried on business.

Appointment of first directors.	247.		Subject to section 246 of this Decree, the number of directors and the names of the first directors shall be determined in writing by the subscribers of the memorandum of association or a majority of them or the directors may be named in the articles.
Subsequent appointments of directors.	248.	(1)	The members at the annual general meeting shall have power to re-elect or reject directors and appoint new ones.
		(2)	In the event of all the directors and shareholders dying, any of the personal representatives shall be able to apply to the Court for an order to convene a meeting of all personal representatives of the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting to appoint new directors to manage the company, and if they fail to convene a meeting, the creditors, if any, shall be able to do so.
Casual vacancy.	249.	(1)	The board of directors shall have power to appoint new directors to fill any casual vacancy arising out of death, resignation, retirement or removal.
		(2)	Where a casual vacancy is filled by the directors, the person may be approved by the general meeting at the next annual general meeting, and if not so approved, he shall forthwith cease to be a director.
		(3)	The directors may increase the number of directors so long as it does not exceed the maximum allowed by the articles, but the general meeting shall have power to increase or reduce the number of directors generally and may determine in what rotation the directors shall retire.
			Provided that such reduction shall not invalidate any prior act of the removed director.
Liability of a person where not duly appointed.	250.		Where a person not duly appointed as a director acts as such on behalf of the company, his act shall not bind the company and he shall be personally liable for such action:
			Provided that where it is the company which holds him out as director, the company shall be bound by his acts.
Share qualification of directors.	251.	(1)	The shareholding qualification for directors may be fixed by the articles of association of the company and unless and until so fixed no shareholding qualification shall be required.
		(2)	It shall be the duty of every director who is by the articles of the company required to hold specified share qualification, and who is not already so qualified to obtain his qualification within 2 months after his appointment.
		(3)	The office of director of a company shall be vacated if the director does not within 2 months from the date of his appointment, obtain his qualification or after the expiration of the said period, he ceases at any time to hold his shareholding qualification.
		(4)	A person vacating office under this section shall be incapable of being re-appointed director of the company until he has obtained his shareholding qualification.
		(5)	If after the expiration of the said period, any unqualified person acts as a director of the company, he shall be liable to a fine of ₦50 for every day between the expiration of the said period or the day on which he ceased to be qualified, as the case may be, and the last day on which it is proved that he acted as a director.

Mode of voting on appointment of directors. 261.

- (1) At a general meeting of a company other than a private company, a motion for the appointment of two or more persons as directors of the company by a single resolution shall not be made, unless resolution that it shall be so made has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.
- (2) A resolution moved in contravention of this section shall be void, whether or not its being so moved was objected to at the time:

Provided that -

- (a) this subsection shall not be taken as excluding the operation of section 260 of this Decree; and
- (b) where a resolution so moved is passed, no provision for automatic re-appointment of retiring directors in default of another appointment shall apply.
- (3) For the purposes of this section a motion for approving a person's appointment or for nominating a person for appointment shall be treated as motion for his appointment.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall apply to a resolution altering the company's articles.

Removal of Directors.

- Removal of directors. 262.
- (1) A company may by ordinary resolution remove a director before the expiration of his period of office, notwithstanding anything in its articles or in any agreement between it and him.
 - (2) A special notice shall be required of any resolution to remove a director under this section, or to appoint some other person instead of a director so removed, at the meeting at which he is removed, and on receipt of notice of an intended resolution to remove a director under this section, the company shall forthwith send a copy of it to the director concerned, and the director (whether or not he is a member of the company) shall be entitled to be heard on the resolution at the meeting.
 - (3) Where notice is given of an intended resolution to remove a director under this section and the director concerned makes with respect to it representations in writing to the company (not exceeding a reasonable length) and requests their notification to members of the company, the company shall, unless the representations are received by it too late for it to do so -
 - (a) in any notice of the resolution given to members of the company state the fact of the representations having been made; and
 - (b) send a copy of the representations to every member of the company to whom notice of the meeting is sent (whether before or after receipt of the representations by the company); and if a copy of the representations is not sent as required in this section because it is received too late or because of the company's default, the director may (without prejudice to his right to be heard orally) require that the representations shall be read out at the meeting.

Provided that copies of the representations need not be sent out and the representations need not be read out at the meeting if, on the application either of the company or any other person who claims to be aggrieved, the court is satisfied that the rights conferred by this section are being abused to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter and the court may order the company's costs on an application under this section to be paid in whole or in part by the director, notwithstanding that he is not a party to the application.
 - (4) A vacancy created by the removal of a director under this section, if not filled at the meeting at which he is removed, may be filled as a casual vacancy.
 - (5) A person appointed director in place of a person removed under this section shall be treated, for the purpose of determining the time at which he or any other director is to retire, as if he had become director on the day on which the person in whose place he is appointed was last appointed a director.
 - (6) Nothing in this section shall be taken as depriving a person removed under it of compensation or damages payable to him in respect of the termination of his appointment as a director or of any appointment terminating with that as director, or as derogating from any power to remove a director which may exist apart from this section.

- Notice of meeting. 266. (1) Every director shall be entitled to receive notice of directors' meetings, unless he is disqualified by any reason under the Decree from continuing with the office of director.
- (2) There shall be given 14 days notice in writing to all directors entitled to receive notice unless otherwise provided in the articles.
- (3) Failure to give notice in accordance with subsection (2) of this section shall invalidate the meeting.
- (4) Unless the articles otherwise provide, it shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of directors to any director for the time being absent from Nigeria, provided that if he has given an address in Nigeria, the notice shall be sent to such an address.

Remuneration and other payments.

- Remunerations of directors. 267. (1) The remuneration of the directors shall from time to time be determined by the company in general meeting and such remuneration shall be deemed to accrue from day to day.
- (2) The directors may also be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from meetings of the directors or any committee of the directors or general meetings of the company or in connection with the business of the company.
- (3) Where remuneration has been fixed by the articles, it shall be alterable only by a special resolution.
- (4) A company shall not be bound to pay remuneration to directors, but where the company agrees to pay, the directors shall be paid such remuneration out of the fund of the company.
- (5) The amount of remuneration shall be a debt from the company so that if directors take office on the basis of the articles, they shall be able to sue the company on account of the debt or prove it in the liquidation.
- (6) A director who receives more money than he is entitled to, shall be guilty of misfeasance and shall be accountable to the company for such money.
- (7) The remunerations of directors shall be apportionable.
- Remuneration of a managing director. 268. (1) A managing director shall receive such remuneration (whether by way of salary, commission or participation in profits, or partly in one way and partly in another) as the directors may determine.
- (2) Where a managing director is removed for any reason whatsoever under section 262 of this Decree, he shall have a claim for breach of contract if there is any or where a contract could be inferred from the terms of the articles.
- (3) Where he performs some services without a contract, he shall be entitled to payment on a quantum meruit.

- Prohibition of tax-free payments to directors. 269.
- (1) It shall not be lawful for a company to pay a director remuneration (whether as director or otherwise) free of income tax, or otherwise calculated by reference to or varying with the amount of his income tax, or at or with the rate or standard rate of income tax, except under a contract which was in force at the commencement of this Decree, and provides expressly, and not by reference to the articles, for payment or remuneration as aforesaid.
 - (2) Any provision contained in a company's articles or in any contract other than such a contract as mentioned in subsection (1) of this section or in any resolution of a company or the resolution of a company's directors for payment to a director of remuneration as mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, shall have effect as if it provided for payment, as a gross sum subject to income tax, of the net sum for which it actually provides.
 - (3) This section shall not apply to remuneration due before this Decree comes into force or in respect of a period before it comes into force.
- Prohibition of loan to directors in certain circumstances. 270.
- (1) It shall not be lawful for a company to make a loan to any person who is its director or a director of its holding company, or to enter into any guarantee or provide any security in connection with a loan made to such a person as earlier mentioned by any other person:
 Provided that nothing in this section shall apply -
 - (a) subject to subsection (2) of this section to anything done to provide any such person as mentioned in this subsection with funds to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him for the purposes of the company or for the purpose of enabling him properly to perform his duties as an officer of the company, or
 - (b) in the case of a company whose ordinary business includes the lending of money or the giving of guarantees in connection with loans made by other persons, to anything done by the company in the ordinary course of that business.
 - (2) Proviso (a) to subsection (1) of this section shall not authorise the making of any loan, or the entering into any guarantee, or the provision of any security except -
 - (a) with the prior approval of the company given at a general meeting at which the purposes of the expenditure and the amount of the loan or the extent of the guarantee or security, as the case may be, are disclosed; or
 - (b) on condition that, if the approval of the company is not given as in subsection (1) of this section at or before the next following annual general meeting, the loan shall be repaid or the liability under the guarantee or security shall be discharged as the case may be, within 6 months from the conclusion of that meeting.
 - (3) Where the approval of the company is not given as required by any such condition, the directors authorising the making of the loan, or the entering into the guarantee, or the provision of the security, shall be jointly and severally liable to indemnify the company against any loss arising therefrom.

Payment by company for loss of office, etc. to be approved.	271		It shall not be lawful for a company to make to any director of the company, any payment by way of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office, unless particulars with respect to the proposed payment and the amount, have been disclosed to members of the company and the proposal is approved by the company.
Payment to directors for loss of office, etc. or transfer of property illegal.	272	(1)	If in connection with the transfer of the whole or any part of the undertaking or property of a company, it is proposed to make any payment to a director of the company by way of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office, the payment shall be unlawful unless particulars with respect to the proposal and the amount, have been disclosed to members of the company and the proposal is approved by the company.
		(2)	Where a payment declared by this section to be illegal is made to a director of a company, the amount received shall be deemed to have been received by him in trust for the company.
Directors to disclose payment for loss of office, etc. in certain cases.	273	(1)	Where, in connection with the transfer to any persons of all or any of the shares in a company, being a transfer resulting from - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) an offer made to the general body of shareholders; (b) an offer made by or on behalf of some other body corporate with a view to the company becoming its subsidiary or a subsidiary of its holding company; (c) an offer made by or on behalf of an individual with a view to his obtaining the right to exercise or control the exercise of not less than one third of the voting power at any general meeting of the company; or (d) any other offer which is conditional on acceptance to a given extent payment is to be made to a director of the company by way of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office, it shall be the duty of that director to do all things reasonably necessary to secure that particulars with respect to the proposed payment and the amount, are included in or sent with any notice of the offer made for their shares which is given to any shareholders.
		(2)	If - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) any such director fails to do all things reasonably necessary as mentioned in this section; or (b) any person who has been properly required by any such director to include the said particulars in or send them with any such notice as aforesaid fails so to do; he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=20.
		(3)	If - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the requirements of subsection (1) of this section are not complied with in relation to any such payments as are mentioned there; or (b) the making of the proposed payment is not, before the transfer of any shares in pursuance of the offer, approved by a meeting summoned for the purpose of the holders of the shares to which the offer relates and of other holders of shares of the same class as any of the said shares; any sum received by the director on account of the payment shall be deemed to have been received by him in trust for any person who has sold his shares as a result of the offer made, and the expenses incurred by him in distributing that sum amongst those persons shall be borne by him and not retained out of that sum.

(4) Where the shareholders referred to in subsection (3)(b) of this section are not all the members of the company and no provision is made by the articles for summoning or regulating such a meeting as is mentioned in that paragraph, the provisions of this Decree and of the company's articles relating to general meetings of the company shall, for that purpose, apply to the meeting either without modification or with such modifications as the Commission on the application of any person concerned may direct for the purpose of adapting them to the circumstances of the meeting.

(5) If at a meeting summoned for the purpose of approving any payment as required by paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section, a quorum is not present and, after the meeting has been adjourned to a later date, a quorum is again not present, the payment shall, for the purposes of that subsection be deemed to have been approved

Provisions supplementary to sections
271 to 273.

274. (1) Where in proceedings for the recovery of any payment which has been received by any person in trust by virtue of subsections (1) and (2) of section 272 or subsections (1) and (3) of section 273 of this Decree, it is shown that -

(a) the payment was made in pursuance of any arrangement entered into as part of the agreement for the transfer in question, or within one year but before 2 years after that agreement or the offer leading thereto; and

(b) the company or any person to whom the transfer was made was privy to that arrangement; the payment shall be deemed, except in so far as the contrary is shown, to be one to which the subsections apply.

(2) If in connection with any such transfer as is mentioned in sections 272 and 273 of this Decree -

(a) the price to be paid to a director of the company whose office is to be abolished or who is to retire from office for any shares in the company held by him is in excess of the price obtainable at the time by other holders of the like shares; or

(b) any valuable consideration is given to any such director; the excess or the money value of the consideration, as the case may be, shall for the purposes of that section, be deemed to have been a payment made to him by way of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office.

(3) It is hereby declared that references in sections 271 to 273 of this Decree to payments made to any director of a company by way of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office shall not include any bona fide payment by way of damages for breach of contract or by way of pension in respect of past services, and for the purposes of this subsection, "pension" includes any superannuation allowance, superannuation gratuity or similar payment.

- (4) Nothing in section 272 or 273 of this Decree shall be taken to prejudice the operation of any rule of law requiring disclosure to be made with respect to any such payments as are mentioned there, or with respect to any other like payments made, or to be made, to the directors of a company.

Disclosure of Directors Interests.

Register of directors share-
holding etc.

275. (1) Every company shall keep a register showing as respects each director of the company (not being its holding company) the number, description and amount of any shares in or debentures of the company or any other body corporate, being the company's subsidiary or holding company, or a subsidiary of the company's holding company, which are held by or in trust for him or of which he has any right to become the holder (whether on payment or not):

Provided that the register need not include shares in any body corporate which is the wholly-owned subsidiary of another body corporate, and for this purpose, a body corporate shall be deemed to be the wholly-owned subsidiary of another if it has no members but that other and that other's wholly-owned subsidiaries and its or their nominees.

- (2) Where any shares or debentures fall to be or cease to be recorded in the said register in relation to any director by reason of a transaction entered into after the commencement of this Decree and while he is a director, the register shall also show the date of, and price or other consideration for the transaction:

Provided that where there is an interval between the agreement for any such transaction and the completion thereof, the date shall be that of the agreement.

- (3) The nature and extent of a director's interest or right in or over any shares or debentures recorded in relation to him in the said register shall, if he so requires, be indicated in the register.
- (4) The company shall not by virtue of anything done for the purposes of this section, be affected with notice of, or put upon inquiry as to the rights of any person in relation to any shares or debentures.
- (5) The said register shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be kept at the company's registered or head office and shall be open to inspection during business hours (subject to such reasonable restrictions as the company may by its articles or in general meeting impose, so that not less than two hours in each day be allowed for inspection) as follows-
- (a) during the period beginning 14 days before the date of the company's annual general meeting and ending 3 days after the date of its conclusion, it shall be open to the inspection of any member or holder of debentures of the company; and
- (b) during that or any other period, it shall be open to the inspection of any person acting on behalf of the Commission.
- (6) In computing the 14 days and the 3 days mentioned in subsection (5) of this section, any day which is Saturday or Sunday or a public holiday shall be disregarded.

- (7) Without prejudice to the rights conferred by subsection (5) of this section, the Commission may at any time, request for the production to it of a copy of the register, or any part thereof.
- (8) The register shall also be produced at the commencement of the company's annual general meeting and remain open and accessible during the continuance of the meeting to any person attending the meeting.
- (9) If default is made in complying with subsection (1) or (2) of this section, or if any inspection required under this section is refused, or any copy required thereunder is not sent within a reasonable time, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=500, and if default is made in complying with subsection (8) of this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine of =N=50.
- (10) If any inspection required under this section is refused, the court may, by order, compel an immediate inspection of the register.
- (11) For the purposes of this section -
- (a) any person in accordance with whose directions or instructions, the directors of a company are accustomed to act shall be deemed to be a director of the company; and
 - (b) a director of a company shall be deemed to hold or to have any interest or right in or over, any shares or debentures if a permanent representative of the body corporate other than the company holds them or has that interest or right in or over them, and either -
 - (i) that permanent representative is accustomed to act in accordance with his directions or instructions; or
 - (ii) he is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of one-third or more of the voting power at any general meeting of that body corporate.
- General duty to give notice, etc. 276.
- (1) It shall be the duty of any director of a company to give notice to the company of such matters relating to himself as may be necessary for the purposes of sections 275 and 277 of this Decree except so far as it relates to loans made by the company or by any other person under a guarantee from or on a security provided by the company, to an officer thereof.
- (2) Any such notice given for the purposes of section 275 of this Decree, shall be in writing and if it is not given at a meeting of the directors, the director giving it shall do all things reasonably necessary to secure that it is brought up and read at the next meeting of directors after it is given.
- (3) Subsection (1) of this section shall, to the extent to which it applies in relation to directors, apply to the like extent for -
- (a) the purposes of section 277 of this Decree in relation to officers other than directors;
 - (b) the purposes of sections 276 and 277 of this Decree in relation to persons who are or have at any time during the preceding five years been officers of the company.

- (4) Any person who makes default in complying with the foregoing provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=50.
- Disclosure by directors of interest in contracts. 277. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, it shall be the duty of a director of a company who is in any way whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or proposed contract with the company to declare the nature of his interest at a meeting of the directors of the company.
- (2) In the case of a proposed contract, the declaration required by this section to be made by a director shall be made at the meeting of the directors at which the question of entering into the contract is first taken into consideration or if the director was not at the date of that meeting interested in the proposed contract, at the next meeting of the directors held after he became so interested, and in a case where the director becomes interested in a contract after it is made, the said declaration shall be made at the first meeting of the directors held after he becomes so interested.
- (3) For the purpose of this section, a general notice given to the directors of a company by a director to the effect that he is a member of a specified company or firm and is to be regarded as interested in any contract which may, after the date of the notice, be made with that company or firm, shall be deemed to be a sufficient declaration of interest in relation to any contract so made:
- Provided that any such notice shall not have effect, unless it is given at a meeting of the directors or the director does all things reasonably necessary to secure that it is brought up and read at the next meeting of the directors after it is given.
- (4) Any director who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=100.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall be taken to prejudice the operation any rule of law restricting directors of a company from having any interest in contracts with the company.
- Particulars with respect to directors in trade catalogues, etc. 278. (1) Every company to which this section applies shall, in all trade catalogues, trade circulars, showcards and business letters on or in which the company's name appears and which are issued or sent by the company to any person in Nigeria state in legible characters with respect to every director the following particulars -
- (a) his present forename, or the initials thereof, and present surname;
- (b) any former forenames and surnames;
- (c) his nationality, if not a Nigerian:
- Provided that, if special circumstances exist which the Commission is of opinion render it expedient that such an exemption should be granted, the Commission may, subject to such conditions as it may prescribe by notice published in the Gazette, exempt a company from the obligations imposed by this subsection.
- (2) This section shall apply to every company incorporated under this Decree, or any enactment repealed by it.
- (3) If a company makes default in complying with this section every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction for each offence to a fine of =N=50.

Provided that no proceedings shall be instituted under this section except by, or with the consent of the Attorney-General of the Federation.

- (4) For the purposes of this section -
- (a) "initials" includes a recognised abbreviation of a forename;
 - (b) reference to a former forename or surname in the case of a married woman do not include the name or surname by which she was known previous to the marriage; and
 - (c) "showcards" means cards containing or exhibiting articles dealt with, or samples or representations thereof.

Duties of Directors.

- Duties of directors. 279.
- (1) A director of a company stands in a fiduciary relationship towards the company and shall observe the utmost good faith towards the company in any transaction with it or on its behalf.
 - (2) A director shall also owe fiduciary relationship with the company in the following circumstances -
 - (a) where a director is acting as agent of a particular shareholder;
 - (b) where even though he is not an agent of any shareholder, such a shareholder or other person is dealing with the company's securities.
 - (3) A director shall act at all times in what he believes to be the best interest of the company as a whole so as to preserve its assets, further its business, and promote the purposes for which it was formed, and in such manner as a faithful, diligent, careful and ordinarily skilful director would act in the circumstances.
 - (4) The matters to which the director of a company is to have regard in the performance of his functions include the interests of the company's employees in general, as well as the interests of its members.
 - (5) A director shall exercise his powers for the purpose for which he is specified and shall not do so for a collateral purpose, and the power, if exercised for the right purpose does not constitute a breach of duty, if it, incidentally, affects a member adversely.
 - (6) A director shall not fetter his discretion to vote in a particular way.
 - (7) Where a director is allowed to delegate his powers under any provision of this Decree such a director shall not delegate the power in such a way and manner as may amount to an abdication of duty.
 - (8) No provision, whether contained in the articles or resolutions of a company, or in any contract shall relieve any director from the duty to act in accordance with this section or relieve him from any liability incurred as a result of any breach of the duties conferred upon him under this section.

(9) Any duty imposed on a director under this section shall be enforceable against the director by the company.

Conflicts of duties and interests.

280.

(1) The personal interest of a director shall not conflict with any of his duties as a director under this Decree.

(2) A director shall not -

(a) in the course of management of affairs of the company, or

(b) in the utilisation of the company's property, make any secret profit or achieve other unnecessary benefits.

(3) A director shall be accountable to the company for any secret profit made by him or any unnecessary benefit derived by him contrary to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The inability or unwillingness of the company to perform any functions or duties under its articles and memorandum shall not constitute a defence to any breach of duty of a director under this Decree.

(5) The duty not to misuse corporate information shall not cease by a director or an officer having resigned from the company, and he shall still be accountable and can be restrained by an injunction from misusing the information received by virtue of his previous position.

(6) Where a director discloses his interest before the transaction and before the secret profits are made before the general meeting, which may or may not authorise any resulting profits, he may escape liability, but he shall not escape liability if he discloses only after he had made the secret profits, and in this case, he shall account for profits.

The fact that a person holds more than one directorship shall not derogate from his fiduciary duties to each company including a duty not to use the property, opportunity or information obtained in the course of the management of one company for the benefit of the other company, or to his own or other person's advantage.

Duty of care and skill.

(1) Every director of a company shall exercise the powers and discharge the duties of his office honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the company, and shall exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill which a reasonably prudent director would exercise in comparable circumstances.

(2) Failure to take reasonable care in accordance with the provisions of section 282 of this Decree shall ground an action for negligence and breach of duty.

(3) Each director shall be individually responsible for the actions of the board in which he participated, and the absence from the board's deliberations, unless justified, shall not relieve a director of such responsibility.

- (4) The same standard of care in relation to the director's duties to the company shall be required for both executive and non-executive directors:

Provided that additional liability and benefit may arise under the master and servant law in the case of an executive director if there is an express or implied contract to that effect.

- Legal position of directors. 283. (1) Directors are trustees of the company's moneys, properties and their powers and as such must account for all the moneys over which they exercise control and shall refund any moneys improperly paid away, and shall exercise their powers honestly in the interest of the company and all shareholders, and not in their own or sectional interests.
- (2) A director may when acting within his authority and powers of the company be regarded as agents of the company under Part III of this Decree.

Property Transaction by Directors.

- Substantial property transactions involving directors, etc. 284. (1) Subject to the exceptions provided by section 285, of this Decree, a company shall not enter into an arrangement -
- (a) whereby a director of the company or its holding company, or a person connected with such a director, acquires or is to acquire one or more non-cash assets of the requisite value from the company; or
- (b) whereby the company acquires or is to acquire one or more non-cash assets of the requisite value from such a director or a person so connected: unless the arrangement is first approved by a resolution of the company in general meeting and if the director or connected person is a director of its holding company or a person connected with such a director, by a resolution in general meeting of the holding company.
- (2) For the purpose of subsection (1) of this section, a non-cash asset is of the requisite value if, at the time the arrangement in question is entered into, its value is not less than =N=2,000 but (subject to that) exceeds =N=100,000 or 20 percent of the company's asset value, that is -
- (a) except in a case falling within paragraph (b) of this subsection the value of the company's net assets determined by reference to the accounts prepared and laid under Par XI in respect of the last preceding year in respect of which such accounts were so laid; and
- (b) where no accounts have been so prepared and laid before that time, the amount of the company's called-up share capital.
- (3) For purposes of this section and sections 285 and 286 of this Decree a shadow director shall be treated as a director.

- Exceptions from section 284. 285. (1) No approval shall be required to be given under section 284 of this Decree by any body corporate unless it is a company within the meaning of this Decree, or if it is a wholly-owned subsidiary of any body corporate.
- (2) Section 283 of this Decree shall not apply to an arrangement for the acquisition of a non-cash asset if -

- (a) the asset is to be acquired by a holding company from any of its wholly-owned subsidiaries or from a holding company by any of its wholly-owned subsidiary of a holding company from another wholly-owned subsidiary of that same holding company; or
- (b) the arrangement is entered into by a company which is being wound up, unless the winding up is a member's voluntary winding up.
- (3) Subsection (1) (a) of section 284 of this Decree shall not apply to an arrangement whereby a person is to acquire an asset from a company of which he is a member, if the arrangement is made with that person in his character as a member.
- Liabilities arising from contravention of section 284 286. (1) An arrangement entered into by a company in contravention of section 284 of this Decree and any transaction entered into in pursuance of the arrangement (whether by the company or any other person), shall be voidable at the instance of the company unless one or more of the conditions specified in subsection (2) of this section is satisfied.
- (2) The conditions are that -
- (a) restitution of any money or other asset which is the subject-matter of the arrangement or transaction is no longer possible or the company has been indemnified in pursuance of this section by any other person for the loss or damage suffered by it; or
- (b) any rights acquired bona fide for value and without actual notice of the contravention by any person who is a party to the arrangement or transaction would be affected by its avoidance; or
- (c) the arrangement is, within a reasonable period, affirmed by the company in general meeting and, if it is an arrangement for the transfer of an asset to or by a director of its holding company or a person who is connected with such a director, is so affirmed with the approval of the holding company given by a resolution in general meeting.
- (3) If an arrangement is entered into with a company by a director of the company or its holding company or a person connected with him in contravention of section 284 of this Decree, that director and the person so connected, and any other director of the company who authorises the arrangement or any transaction entered into in pursuance of such an arrangement, shall be guilty of an offence and liable -
- (a) to account to the company for any gain which he has made directly or indirectly by the arrangement or transaction; and
- (b) (jointly and severally with any other person liable under this subsection) to indemnify the company for any loss or damage resulting from the arrangement or transaction.
- (4) Subsection (3) of this section shall be without prejudice to any liability imposed otherwise than by that subsection, and is subject to the following two subsections; and the liability under subsection (3) of the section arises whether or not the arrangement or transaction entered into has been avoided in pursuance of subsection (1) of this section.
- (5) If an arrangement is entered into by a company and a person connected with a director of the company or its holding company in contravention of section 284 of this Decree, that director shall not be liable under subsection (3) of this section if he shows that he took all reasonable steps to secure the company's compliance with that section.

- (6) In any case, a person so connected and any such other director as is mentioned in subsection (3) of this Decree, shall not be so liable if he shows that at the time the arrangement was entered into, he did not know the relevant circumstances constituting the contravention.
- (7) This section shall have effect with respect to references in sections 284, 285 and 286 of this Decree to a person being "connected" with a director of a company, and to a director being "associated with" or "controlling" a body corporate.
- (8) A person is connected with a director of a company if he (not being himself a director of it) is -
 - (a) that director's spouse, child or step-child, including illegitimate child;
 - (b) except where the context otherwise requires, a body corporate with which the director is associated; or
 - (c) a person acting in his capacity as trustee of any trust the beneficiaries of which include -
 - (i) the director, his spouse, any children or step-children; or
 - (ii) a body corporate with which he is associated, or of a trust whose terms confer a power on the trustees that may be exercised for the benefit of the director, his spouse or any children or step-children of his, or any such body corporate; or
 - (d) a person acting in his capacity as partner of that director or of any person who, by virtue of paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this subsection, is connected with that director.

Prohibition of secret benefits. 287.

- (1) A director shall not accept a bribe, a gift, or commission either in cash or kind from any person or a share in the profit of that person in respect of any transaction involving his company in order to introduce his company to deal with such a person.
- (2) If a director contravenes the provisions of section 287 (1) of this Decree, he commits a breach of duty and the company shall recover from the director the actual gift and then sue him and the other person jointly and severally for damages sustained without any deduction in respect of what the director has returned.
- (3) Where the gift is made after the transaction has been completed in a form of unsolicited gift as a sign of gratitude, the director may be allowed to keep the gift, provided he declares it before the board and that fact shall also appear in the minutes book of the directors.
- (4) In all cases concerning secret benefits, the plea that the company benefitted or that the gift was accepted in good faith shall be no defence.

Miscellaneous Matters Relating to Directors.

- Directors with unlimited liability in respect of a limited company. 288. (1) In a limited company the liability of the directors or managers of or of the managing director, may, if so provided by the memorandum, be unlimited.
- (2) In a limited company in which the liability of a director or manager is unlimited, the directors and any managers of the company and the member who proposes a person for election or appointment to the office of director or manager, shall add to that proposal a statement that the liability of the person holding that office shall be unlimited, and before the person accepts the office or acts therein, notice in writing that his liability shall be unlimited shall be given to him by the following or one of the following persons, namely, the promoters of the company, the directors of the company, any managers of the company and the secretary of the company.
- (3) If any director, manager, or promoter makes default in adding such a statement, or if any promoter, director, manager or secretary makes default in giving such a notice, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=100 and shall also be liable for any damage which the person so elected or appointed may sustain from the default.
- Special resolution of limited company making liability of directors unlimited. 289. (1) A limited company, if so authorised by its articles, may, by special resolution, alter its memorandum so as to render unlimited the liability of its directors or managers, or of any managing director.
- (2) Upon the passing of any such special resolution the provisions of it shall be as valid as if they had been originally contained in the memorandum.
- Personal liability of directors and officers. 290. Where a company -
- (a) receives money by way of loan for specific purpose; or
- (b) receives money or other property by way of advance payment for the execution of a contract or project; and
- (c) with intent to defraud, fails to apply the money or other property for the purpose for which it was received, every director or other officer of the company who is in default shall be personally liable to the party from whom the money or property was received for a refund of the money or property so received and not applied for the purpose for which it was received:
- Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the liability of the company itself.
- Director's contract of employment for more than 5 years. 291. (1) The provisions of this section shall apply in respect of any term of an agreement whereby a director's employment with the company of which he is a director or, where he is the director of a holding company his employment within the group is to continue or may be continued, otherwise than at the instance of the company (whether under the original agreement entered into in pursuance of it or not), for a period of more than 5 years during which the employment -
- (a) cannot be terminated by the company by notice; or

- (b) can be so terminated only in specified circumstances.
- (2) In any such case where -
- (a) a person is or is to be employed with a company under an agreement which cannot be terminated by the company by notice or can be so terminated only in specified circumstances; and
- (b) more than 6 months before the expiration of the period for which he is or to be so employed, the company enters into a further agreement otherwise than in pursuance of a right conferred by or under the original agreement on the other party to it under which he is to be employed with the company or, where he is a director of a holding company, within the group; this section shall apply as if to the period for which he is to be employed under that further agreement there were added a further period equal to the unexpired period of the original agreement.
- (3) A company shall not incorporate in an agreement such a term as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section unless the term is first approved by a resolution of the company in general meeting and in the case of a director of a holding company, by a resolution of that company in general meeting.
- (4) No approval shall be required to be given under this section by any body corporate unless it is a company within the meaning of this Decree, or if it is a wholly-owned subsidiary of any body corporate.
- (5) A resolution of a company approving such a term as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, shall not be passed at a general meeting of the company unless a written memorandum setting out the proposed agreement incorporating the term is available for inspection by members of the company both -
- (a) at the company's registered office for not less than 15 days ending with the date of the meeting; and
- (b) at the meeting itself.
- (6) A term incorporated in an agreement in contravention of this section shall to the extent that it contravenes the section, be void; and that agreement and in a case where subsection (2) of this section applies, the original agreements shall be deemed each to contain a term entitling the company to terminate it at any time by the giving of reasonable notice.
- (7) In this section -
- (a) "employment" includes employment under a contract for services; and
- (b) "group" in relation to a director of a holding company, means the group which consists of that company and its subsidiaries and for purposes of this section, a shadow director shall be treated as a director.

- (b) any person to whom shares have been transferred or transmitted by operation of law.
- Inspectors' powers during investigation 316 (1) If an inspector appointed under section 314 or 315 of this Decree to investigate the affairs of a company thinks it necessary for the purposes of his investigation to investigate also the affairs of another body corporate which is or at any relevant time has been the company's holding company or a subsidiary, he shall report on the affairs of the other body corporate so far as he thinks that the results of his investigation of its affairs are relevant to the investigation of the affairs of the company first mentioned above.
- (2) An inspector appointed under either section 314 or 315 of this Decree may at anytime in the course of his investigation, without the necessity of making an interim report, inform the Commission of matters coming to his knowledge as a result of the investigation tending to show that an offence has been committed.
- Production of documents and evidence to inspectors. 317 (1) When an inspector is appointed under section 314 or 315 of this Decree, it shall be the duty of all officers and agents of the company, and of all officers and agents of any other body corporate whose affairs are investigated under section 316 of this Decree -
- (a) to produce to the inspector all books and documents of or relating to the company or, as the case may be, the other body corporate which are in their custody or power;
- (b) to attend before the inspector when required to do so; and
- (c) otherwise to give the inspector all assistance in connection with the investigation which he is reasonably able to give.

- (2) If the inspector considers that a person other than an officer or agent of the company or other body corporate is or may be in possession of information concerning its affairs, he may require that person to produce to him any books or documents in his custody or power relating to the company or other body corporate, to attend before him and otherwise to give him all assistance in connection with the investigation which he is reasonably able to give, and it is that person's duty to comply with the requirement.
- (3) An inspector may examine on oath the officers and agents of the company or other body corporate, and any such person as is mentioned in subsection (2) of this section in relation to the affairs of the company or other body, and administer an oath accordingly.
- (4) In this section, a reference to officers or to agents includes past, as well as present, officers or agents (as the case may be); and "agents" in relation to a company or other body corporate, includes its bankers and solicitors and persons employed by it as auditors, whether these persons are or are not officers of the company or other body corporate.
- (5) An answer given by a person to a question put to him in exercise of powers conferred by this section (whether as it has effect in relation to an investigation under any of sections 314 to 316 of this Decree as applied by any other section in this Decree) may be used in evidence against him.
- Power of inspector to call for directors' bank accounts. 318. (1) If an inspector has reasonable grounds for believing that a director, or past director, of the company or other body corporate whose affairs he is investigating maintains or has maintained a bank account of any description (whether alone or jointly with another person and whether in Nigeria or elsewhere), into or out of which there has been paid -
- (a) the emoluments or part of the emoluments of his office as such director particulars of which have not been disclosed in the financial statements of the company or other body corporate for any financial year, contrary to the provisions of Part V of Schedule 4 to this Decree (in relation to particulars in accounts of directors.);
- (b) any money which has resulted from or been used in the financing of an undisclosed transaction, arrangement or agreement; or
- (c) any money which has been in any way connected with an act or omission or series of acts or omissions, which on the part of that director constituted misconduct (whether fraudulent or not) towards the company or body corporate or its members, the inspector may require the director to produce to him all documents in the director's possession, or under his control, relating to that bank account.
- (2) For purposes of subsection (1) (b) of this section, an "undisclosed" transaction, arrangement or agreement is one the particulars of which have not been disclosed in the financial statement of any company or in a statement annexed thereto for any financial year, including the disclosure of contracts between companies and their directors.

- Obstruction of inspectors to be treated as contempt of court.
319. (1) When an inspector is appointed under section 314 or 315 of this Decree to investigate the affairs of a company, the following applies in the case of -
- (a) any officer or agent of the company;
 - (b) any officer or agent of another body corporate whose affairs are investigated under section 316 of this Decree; and
 - (c) any such person as is mentioned in section 317 (2) of this Decree.
- (2) Subsection (4) of section 317 of this Decree, shall apply with regards to references in subsection (1) of this section to an officer or agent.
- (3) If that person -
- (a) refuses to produce any book or document which it is his duty under section 317 or 318 of this Decree to produce or
 - (b) refuses to attend before the inspector when required to do so; or
 - (c) refuses to answer any question put to him by the inspector with respect to the affairs of the company or other body corporate (as the case may be); the inspector may certify the refusal in writing to the Court.
- (4) The Court may thereupon enquire into the case; and after hearing any witnesses who may be produced against or on behalf of the alleged offender and after hearing any statement which may be offered in defence, the court may punish the offender in like manner as if he had been guilty of contempt of the court.
- Inspector's report.
320. (1) The inspector may, and if so directed by the Commission shall, make interim report to the Commission, and on the conclusion of his investigation shall make a final report to it and any such report shall be written or printed, as the Commission may direct.
- (2) The Commission may direct that a copy of the inspector's report be forwarded to the company at its registered or head office.
- (3) Where an inspector is appointed under section 314 of this Decree in pursuance of an order of the court, the Commission shall furnish a copy of any of its reports to the court.
- (4) In any other case, the Commission may, if it thinks fit -
- (a) furnish a copy on request and on payment of the prescribed fee to -
 - (i) any member of the company or other body corporate which is the subject of the report;
 - (ii) any person whose conduct is referred to in the report;
 - (iii) the auditors of that company or body corporate;
 - (iv) the applicants for the investigation;
 - (v) any other person whose financial interests appear to the Commission to be affected by the matters dealt with in the report, whether as creditors of the company or body corporate, or otherwise; and

(b) cause any such report to be printed and published.

Power to bring civil proceedings on company's behalf.

321. (1) If, from any report made under section 320 of this Decree, it appears to the Commission, that any civil proceedings ought in the public interest to be brought by the company or any body corporate, the Commission may itself bring such proceedings in the name and on behalf of the company or the body corporate.
- (2) The Commission shall indemnify the body corporate against any costs or expenses incurred by it in or in connection with proceedings brought under this section; and any costs or expenses so incurred shall be, if not otherwise recoverable be defrayed out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Criminal proceedings and other proceedings by the Attorney-General of the Federation.

322. (1) If, from any report made under section 320 of this Decree it appears that any person has, in relation to the company or any body corporate whose affairs have been investigated by virtue of section 316 of this Decree, been guilty of any offence for which he is criminally liable, the report shall be referred to the Attorney-General of the Federation.
- (2) If the Attorney-General of the Federation considers that the case referred to him is one in which a prosecution ought to be instituted, he shall direct action accordingly, and it shall be the duty of all officers and agents of the company or other body corporate, as the case may be (other than the defendant in the proceedings), to give all assistance in connection with the prosecution which they are reasonably able to give.
- (3) If from any report made under section 320 of this Decree, it appears to the Commission that proceedings ought in the public interest to be brought by any body corporate dealt with by the report for the recovery of damages in respect of any fraud, misfeasance or other misconduct in connection with the promotion or formation of that body corporate or the management of its affairs, or for the recovery of any property of the body corporate which has been misapplied or wrongfully retained, it may refer the case to the Attorney-General of the Federation for his opinion as to the bringing of proceedings for that purpose in the name of the body corporate and if proceedings are brought, it shall be the duty of all officers and agents of the company or other body corporate as the case may be (other than the defendant in the proceedings), to give him all assistance in connection with the proceedings which they are reasonably able to give.
- (4) Costs and expenses incurred by a body corporate in or in connection with any proceedings brought by it under subsection (3) of this section shall, if not otherwise recoverable, be defrayed out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Power of the Commission to present winding up petition.

323. If, in the case of any body corporate liable to be wound up under this Decree it appears to the Commission from a report made, by an inspector under section 320 of this Decree that it is expedient in the public interest that the body should be wound up, the Commission may (unless the body is already wound up by the court) present a petition for it to be so wound up if the court thinks it just and equitable to do so.

Expenses of investigation	324.	(1)	The expenses of an incidental to an investigation by an inspector appointed by the Commission under the foregoing provisions of this Decree, shall be defrayed in the first instance out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, but the following persons shall, to the extent mentioned, be liable to make repayment, that is to say -
		(a)	any person who is convicted on a prosecution instituted, as a result of the investigation by the Attorney-General of the Federation, or who is ordered to pay damages or restore any property in proceedings brought by virtue of subsection (3) of section 322 of this Decree, may in the same proceedings be ordered to pay the said expenses to such extent as are specified in the order;
		(b)	any body corporate in whose name proceedings are brought as aforesaid shall be liable to the extent of the amount or value of any sums or property recovered by it as a result of those proceedings;
		(c)	unless as the result of the investigation a prosecution is instituted by the Attorney-General of the Federation, the applicants for the investigation, where the inspector was appointed under section 314 of this Decree shall be liable to such extent (if any) as the Commission may direct; and any amount for which a body corporate is liable by virtue of paragraph (b) of this subsection, shall be a first charge on the sums or property mentioned in that paragraph.
		(2)	For the purposes of this section, any costs or expenses incurred by the Commission in or in connection with proceedings brought by virtue of subsection (2) of section 321 of this Decree, shall be treated as expenses of the investigation giving rise to the proceedings.
		(3)	Expenses to be defrayed by the Commission under this section shall, so far as not recovered thereunder be paid out of the appropriate Consolidated Revenue Fund.
Inspectors report to be used as evidence in legal proceedings	325	(1)	A copy of any report of inspector's appointed under sections 314 and 315 of this Decree, certified by the Commission to be a true copy, shall be admissible in any legal proceedings as evidence of the opinion of the inspector in relation to any matter contained in the report.
		(2)	A document purporting to be such a certificate as is mentioned above shall be received in evidence and be deemed to be such a certificate, unless the contrary is proved.
Appointment, etc of inspectors to investigate ownership of a company	326	(1)	Where it appears to the Commission, that there is good reason so to do, it may appoint one or more competent inspectors to investigate and report on the membership of any company and otherwise with respect to the company for the purpose of determining the true persons who are or have been financially interested in the success or failure (real or apparent) of the company or able to control or materially to influence the policy of the company.
		(2)	The appointment of an inspector under this section may define the scope of his investigation, whether as respect the matter or the period to which it is to extend or otherwise and in particular may limit investigation to matters connected with particular shares or debenture
		(a)	the Commission shall appoint an inspector to conduct the investigation unless it is satisfied that the application is vexatious; and

- (b) the inspector's appointment shall not exclude from the scope of his investigation any matter which the application seeks to include except in so far as the Commission is satisfied that it is reasonable for the matter to be investigated,
- (4) Subject to the terms of an inspector's appointment, his powers shall extend to the investigation of any circumstances suggesting the existence of an arrangement or understanding which, though not legally binding, is or was observed or likely to be observed in practice and which is relevant to the purposes of his investigation.
- Provisions applicable to investigation. 327. (1) For the purposes of any investigation under section 326 of this Decree, the provisions of sections 316 to 320 inclusive of this Decree shall apply with the necessary modifications to references to the affairs of the company or to those of any body corporate, so however, that -
- (a) the said sections shall apply in relation to all persons who are or have been, or whom the inspector has reasonable cause to believe to be or have been, financially interested in the success or failure or the apparent success or failure of the company or any other body corporate whose membership is investigated with that of the company, or able to control or materially to influence the policy thereof, including persons concerned only on behalf of others, as they apply in relation to officers and agents of the company or of the other body corporate, as the case may be; and
- (b) the Commission shall not be bound to furnish the company or any other person with a copy of any report by an inspector appointed under this section or with a complete copy thereof if he is of opinion that there is good reason for not divulging the contents of the reports or of part thereof, but shall keep a copy of any such report, or, as the case may be, the parts of any report, as regards which he is not of that opinion.
- (2) The expenses of any investigation under section 326 of this Decree shall be defrayed out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.
- Power to require information as to persons interested in shares, etc. 328. (1) Where it is made to appear to the Commission, that there is good reason to investigate the ownership of any shares in or debentures of a company and that it is unnecessary to appoint an inspector for the purpose, the Commission may require any person who it has reasonable cause to believe -
- (a) to be or to have been interested in those shares or debentures; or
- (b) to act or to have acted in relation to those shares or debentures as a legal practitioner or an agent of some one interested therein, to give to the Commission any information which the person has or might reasonably be expected to obtain as to the present and past interest in those shares or debentures and the names and addresses of the persons interested, and of any persons who act or have acted on their behalf in relation to the shares or debentures.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to have an interest in a share or debenture if he has any right to acquire or dispose of the share or debenture or any interest therein or to vote in respect thereof, or if his consent is necessary for the exercise of any of the rights of other persons interested therein, or if other persons interested therein can be required or are accustomed to exercise their rights in accordance with his instructions.

- (3) Any person, who fails to give any information required of him under this section, or who in giving any such information makes any statement which he knows to be false in a material particular, or recklessly makes any statement which is false in a material particular shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=500 or to imprisonment for a term of 6 months or to both.
- Power to impose restrictions on shares, etc. 329. (1) Where in connection with an investigation under section 326 or 328 of this Decree, it appears to the commission that there is difficulty in finding out the relevant facts about any share whether issued or to be issued), and that the difficulty is due wholly or mainly to the unwillingness of the persons concerned or any of them to assist the investigation as required by this Decree, the Commission may in writing direct that the shares shall until further notice be subject to the restrictions imposed by this section.
- (2) So long as any shares are directed to be subject to the restrictions imposed by this section -
- (a) any transfer of those shares, or in case of unissued shares any transfer of the right to be issued therewith and any issue thereof, shall be void;
 - (b) no voting rights shall be exercisable in respect of those shares;
 - (c) no further shares shall be issued in right of those shares or in pursuance of any offer made to the holder thereof;
 - (d) except in a liquidation, no payment shall be made of any sums due from the company on those shares, whether in respect of capital or otherwise.
- (3) Where the Commission directs shares to be subject to restrictions under this section, or refuses to direct that shares shall cease to be subject thereto, any person aggrieved thereby may appeal to the court, and the court may, if it sees fit, direct that the shares shall cease to be subject to the said restrictions.
- (4) Any direction or order of the court that shares shall cease to be subject to restrictions under this section, expressed to be made with a view to permitting a transfer of those shares may continue the restrictions mentioned in paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (2) of this section, either in whole or in part, so far as they relate to any right acquired or offer made before the transfer.
- (5) Any person who -
- (a) exercises or purports to exercise any right to dispose of any shares which, to his knowledge, are for the time being subject to restrictions under this section; or
 - (b) votes in respect of any such shares, whether as holder or proxy, or appoints a proxy to vote in respect thereof; or
 - (c) being the holder of any such shares, fails to notify that they are subject to the said restrictions, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=500 or imprisonment for a term of 6 months, or to both.
- (6) Where shares in any company are issued in contravention of the said restrictions, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=500.

- (7) A prosecution shall not be instituted under this section except by or with the consent of the Attorney-General of the Federation.
- (8) This section shall apply in relation to debentures as it applies in relation to shares.
- Savings for legal practitioners and bankers. 330. Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Decree shall require disclosure to the Commission or to an inspector appointed by it by -
- (a) a legal practitioner of any privileged communication made to him in that capacity, except as regards the name and address of his client; or
- (b) a company's bankers as such, of any information as to the affairs of any of their customers other than the company.

Form and Content of Company (Individual and Group) Financial Statements.

Form and content of individual financial statements.
Schedule 2.

335. (1) The financial statements of a company prepared under section 334 of this Decree, shall comply with the requirements of Schedule 2 to this Decree (so far as applicable) with respect to their form and content, and with the accounting standard, laid down in the Statements of Accounting Standards issued from time to time by the Nigerian Accounting Standards Board to be constituted by the Minister after due consultation with such accounting bodies as he may deem fit in circumstances for this purposes provided that such accounting standards do not conflict with the provisions of this Decree or Schedule 2 to this Decree.
- (2) The a balance sheet shall give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the year, and the profit and loss account shall give a true and fair view of the profit or loss of the company for the year.
- (3) The statement of the source and application of funds shall provide information on the generation and utilisation of funds by the company during the year.
- (4) The value added statement shall report the wealth created by the company during the year and its distribution among various interest groups such as the employees, the Government, creditors, proprietors and the company.
- (5) The five-year financial summary shall provide a report for a comparison over a period of five years or more of vital financial information.
- (6) Subsection (2) of this section shall override -
- (a) the requirements of Schedule 2 of this Decree; and
- (b) all other requirements of this Decree as to the matters to be included in the accounts of a company or in notes to those accounts; and accordingly the provisions of subsections (7) and (8) of this section shall have effect.
- (7) If the balance sheet or profit and loss account drawn up in accordance with those requirements would not provide sufficient information to comply with subsection (2) of this section, any necessary additional information shall be provided in that balance sheet or profit and loss account, or in a note to the accounts.
- (8) If, owing to special circumstances in the case of any company compliance with any such requirement in relation to the balance sheet or profit and loss account would prevent compliance with subsection (2) of this section, (even if additional information were provided in accordance with subsection (4) of this section, the directors shall depart from that requirement in preparing the balance sheet or profit and loss account (so far as necessary) in order to comply with subsection (2) of this section.
- (9) If the directors depart from any such requirement, particulars of the departure, the reasons for it and its effects shall be given in a note to the accounts.

- (10) Subsections (1) to (9) of this section, shall not apply to group accounts prepared under section 336 of this Decree and subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not apply to a company's profit and loss account (or require the notes otherwise required in relation to that account) if -
- (a) the company has subsidiaries; and
 - (b) the profit and loss account is framed as a consolidated account dealing with all or any of the subsidiaries of the company as well as the company;
 - (i) complies with the requirements of this Decree relating to consolidated profit and loss account; and
 - (ii) show how much of the consolidated profit and loss for the year is dealt with in the individual financial statements of the company.
- (11) If group financial statements are prepared and advantage is taken of subsection (7) of this section, that fact shall be disclosed in a note to the group financial statements.
- Group financial statements of holding company. 336.
- (1) If at the end of a year a company has subsidiaries, the directors shall, as well as preparing individual accounts for that year, also prepare group financial statements being accounts or statements which deal with the state of affairs and profit or loss of the company and the subsidiaries.
- (2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply if the company is wholly owned subsidiary of another body corporate incorporated in Nigeria.
- (3) A group financial statement may not deal with a subsidiary, if the directors of the company are of the opinion that -
- (a) it is impracticable, or would be of no real value to the members, in view of the insignificant amounts involved; or
 - (b) it would involve expense or delay out of proportion to its value to members of the company; or
 - (c) the result would be misleading, or harmful to the business of the company or any of its subsidiaries; or
 - (d) the business of the holding company and that of the subsidiary are so different that they cannot reasonably be treated as a single undertaking.
- (4) The group financial statements of a company shall consist of a consolidated of -
- (a) balance sheet dealing with the state of affairs of the company and all the subsidiaries of the company; and
 - (b) profit and loss account of the company and its subsidiaries.
- (5) If directors are of the opinion that it is better for the purpose of presenting the same or equivalent information about the state of affairs and profit or loss of the company and its subsidiaries, and that to so present it may be readily appreciated by the members of the company, the group financial statements may be prepared in a form not consistent with subsection (1) of this section and in particular the group financial statement may consist of -

- (a) more than one set of consolidated financial statements dealing respectively with the company and one group of subsidiaries and with other groups of subsidiaries; or
- (b) separate financial statements dealing with each of the subsidiaries; or
- (c) statements expanding the information about the subsidiaries in individual financial statements of the company, or in any other form.

(6) The group financial statements may be wholly or partly incorporated in the individual balance sheet and profit and loss account of the holding company.

Form and
content of group financial statements

337

- (1) The group financial statements of a holding company shall comply with the requirements of Schedule 2 to this Decree, so far as applicable to group financial statements in the form in which those accounts are prepared with respect to the form and content of those statements and any additional information to be provided by way of notes to those accounts.
- (2) Group financial statements together with any notes thereon shall give a true and fair view of the state of affairs and profit or loss of the company and the subsidiaries dealt with by those statements as a whole.
- (3) Subsection (2) of this section shall override -
 - (a) the requirements of Schedule 2 to this Decree; and
 - (b) all other requirements of this Decree as to the matters to be included in group financial statements or in notes to those statements, and accordingly subsections (4) and (5) of this section shall have effect.
- (4) If group financial statements are not in accordance with the requirements of this Decree by not providing sufficient information in compliance with subsection (2) of this section, any necessary additional information shall be provided in, or in a note to the group financial statements.
- (5) If, owing to special circumstance in the case of any company, compliance with any such requirements in relation to its group financial statements would prevent the statements from complying with subsection (2) of this section, (even if additional information were provided in accordance with subsection (4) the directors may depart from that requirement in preparing the group financial statements).

CHAPTER 2-AUDIT.

|--------------------------|------|--|
| Appointment of auditors. | 357. | (1) Every company shall at each annual general meeting appoint an auditor or auditors to audit the financial statements of the company, and to hold office from the conclusion of that, until the conclusion of the next, annual general meeting. |
|--------------------------|------|--|

- (2) At any annual general meeting a retiring auditor, however appointed shall be re-appointed without any resolution being passed unless -
- (a) he is not qualified for re-appointment; or
 - (b) a resolution has been passed at that meeting appointing some other person instead of him or providing expressly that he shall not be re-appointed; or
 - (c) he has given the company notice in writing of his unwillingness to be re-appointed:

Provided that where notice is given of an intended resolution to appoint some person or persons, in place of a retiring auditor, and by reason of the death, incapacity or disqualification of that person or of all those persons, as the case may be, the resolution cannot be proceeded with, the retiring auditor shall not be automatically re-appointed by virtue of this subsection.

- (3) Where at an annual general meeting, no auditors are appointed or re-appointed, the directors may appoint a person to fill the vacancy.
- (4) The company shall, within one week of the power of the directors under subsection (3) of this section becoming exercisable, give notice of that fact to the Commission; and if a company fails to give notice as required by this subsection, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of ₦100 for every day during which the default continues.
- (5) Subject as hereinafter provided, the first auditors of a company may be appointed by the directors at any time before the company is entitled to commence business and auditors so appointed shall hold office until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting:

Provided that -

- (a) the company may at a general meeting remove any such auditors and appoint in their place any other person who have been nominated for appointment by any member of the company and of whose nomination notice has been given to the members of the company not less than 14 days before the date of the meeting; and
 - (b) if the directors fail to exercise their powers under this subsection; the company may, in a general meeting convened for that purpose appoint the first auditors and thereupon the said powers of the directors shall cease.
- (6) The directors may fill any casual vacancy in the office of auditor but while any such vacancy continues, the surviving or continuing auditor or auditors, if any, may act.
358. (1) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as an auditor of a company for the purpose of this Decree, unless he is a member of a body of accountants in Nigeria established from time to time by an Act or Decree.
- (2) None of the following persons shall be qualified for appointment as auditor of a company -
- (a) an officer or servant of the company;

Qualification

- (c) a person or firm who or which offers to the company professional advice in a consultancy capacity in respect of secretarial, taxation or financial management;
- (d) a body corporate; and for this purpose an auditor of a company shall not be regarded as either an officer or a servant of it.
- (3) A person shall also not qualify for appointment as an auditor of a company if he is, under subsection (6) of this section, disqualified for appointment as auditor of any other body corporate which is that company's subsidiary or holding company or a subsidiary of that company's holding company, or would be so disqualified if the body corporate were a company.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsections (1), (2) and (3), of this section, a firm is qualified for appointment as auditor of a company if, but only if, all the partners are qualified for appointment as auditors of it.
- (5) No person shall act as auditor of a company at a time when he knows that he is disqualified for appointment to that office and if an auditor of a company to his knowledge becomes so disqualified during his term of office, he shall thereupon vacate his office and give notice in writing to the company that he has vacated it by reason of that disqualification.
- (6) A person who acts as auditor in contravention of subsection (5), of this section or fails without reasonable excuse to give notice of vacating his office as required by that subsection, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of ₦500 and, for continued contravention to a daily default fine of ₦50.
- Auditors' report 359
- (1) The auditors of a company shall make a report to its members on the accounts examined by them, and on every balance sheet and profit and loss account, and on all group financial statements copies of which are to be laid before the company in a general meeting during the auditors' tenure of office.
- (2) The auditors' report which shall be countersigned by a legal practitioner shall state the matters set out in Schedule 6 to this Decree.
- (3) In addition to the report made under subsection (1) of this section, the auditor shall in the case of a public company also make a report to an audit committee which shall be established by the public company.
- (4) The audit committee referred to in subsection (2) of this section, shall consist of an equal number of directors and representatives of the shareholders of the company (subject to a maximum number of six members) and shall examine the auditors report and make recommendations thereon to the annual general meeting as it may think fit.
- Provided, however, that such member of the audit committee shall not be entitled to remuneration and shall be subject to re-election annually.
- (5) Any member may nominate a shareholder as a member of the audit committee by giving notice in writing of such nomination to the secretary of the company at least 21 days before the annual general meeting.

- (6) Subject to such other additional functions and powers that the company's articles of association may stipulate, the objectives and functions of the audit committee shall be to -
- (a) ascertain whether the accounting and reporting policies of the company are in accordance with legal requirements and agreed ethical practices;
 - (b) review the scope and planning of audit requirements;
 - (c) review the findings on management matters in conjunction with the external auditor and departmental responses thereon;
 - (d) keep under review the effectiveness of the company's systems of accounting and internal control;
 - (e) make recommendations to the Board in regard to the appointment, removal and remuneration of the external auditors of the company; and
 - (f) authorise the internal auditor to carry out investigations into any activities of the company which may be of interest or concern to the committee.

Auditors' duties and powers.

360. (1) It shall be the duty of the company's auditors, in preparing their report to carry out such investigations as may enable them to form an opinion as to the following matters whether -
- (a) proper accounting records have been kept by the company and proper returns adequate for their audit have been received from branches not visited by them;
 - (b) the company's balance sheet and (if not consolidated) its profit and loss account are in agreement with the accounting records and returns.
- (2) If the auditors are of opinion that proper accounting records have not been received from branches not visited by them, or if the balance sheet and (if not consolidated) the profit and loss account are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, the auditors shall state that fact in their report.
- (3) Every auditor of a company shall have a right of access at all time to the company's books, accounts and vouchers, and entitled to require from the company's office such information and explanations as he thinks necessary for the performance of the auditor's duties.
- (4) If the requirements of Part V and VI of Schedule 3 and Parts I to III of Schedule 4 to this Decree are not complied with in the accounts, it shall be the auditors duty to include in their report, so far as they are reasonably able to do so, a statement giving the required particulars.
- (5) It shall be the auditors' duty to consider whether the information given in the directors' report for the year for which the accounts are prepared is consistent with those accounts; and if they are of opinion that it is not, they shall state that fact in their report.

- information where receiver or manager appointed.
- (a) the receiver shall forthwith send notice to the company of his appointment and the terms; and
 - (b) there shall, within 14 days after receipt of the notice; or such longer period as may be allowed by the court or by the receiver, be made out and submitted to the receiver in accordance with section 397 of this Decree, a statement in the prescribed form as to the affairs of the company; and
 - (c) the receiver shall within 2 months after receipt of the said statement send -
 - (i) to the Commission or to the court a copy of the statement and of any comments he sees fit to make thereon and in the case of the Commission also a summary of the statement and of his comments if any thereon;
 - (ii) to the company a copy of any such comments as aforesaid or if he does not see fit to make any comment, a notice to that effect; and
 - (iii) to any trustees for the debenture holders on whose behalf he has been appointed and, so far as he is aware of their addresses, to all such debenture holders a copy of the said summary.
- (2) The receiver shall within 2 months, or such longer period as the court may allow after the expiration of the period of 12 months from the date of his appointment and of every subsequent period of 12 months, and within 2 months or such longer period as the court may allow after he ceases to act as receiver or manager of the property of the company, send to the Commission, to any trustees for the debenture holders of the company on whose behalf he was appointed, to the company and (so far as he is aware of their addresses) to all such debenture holders an abstract in the prescribed form showing his receipts and payments during that period of 12 months, or, where he ceases to act as aforesaid, during the period from the end of the period to which the last preceding abstract relate up to the date of his so ceasing, and the aggregate amounts of his receipts and of his payments during all preceding periods since his appointments.
- (3) Where the receiver is appointed under the powers contained in any instrument, this section shall have effect -
- (a) with the omission of the references to the court in subsection (1) of this section; and
 - (b) with the substitution for the references to the court in subsection (2) of this section, of references to the Commission; and in any other case reference to the court shall be taken as referring to the court by which the receiver was appointed.
- (4) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply in relation to the appointment of a receiver or manager to act with an existing receiver or manager or in place of a receiver or manager dying or ceasing to act, except that, where that subsection applies to a receiver or manager who dies or ceases to act before it has been fully complied with, the references in paragraphs (b) and (c) thereof to the receiver shall subject to subsection (5) of this section, include references to his successor and to any continuing receiver or manager and nothing in this subsection shall be taken as limiting the meaning of the expression "the receiver" where used in, or in relation to, subsection (2) of this section.

- (5) This section and section 397 of this Decree, where the company is being wound up, shall apply notwithstanding that the receiver or manager and the liquidator are the same person.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (2) of this section shall be taken to prejudice the duty of the receiver to render proper accounts of his receipts and payments to the persons to whom, and at the times at which he may be required to do so apart from that subsection.
- (7) If the receiver makes default in complying with the requirements of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine to =N=25 for every day during which the default continues.

Special provisions as to statement submitted to receiver.

- 397.
- (1) The statements as to the affairs of a company required by section 396 of this Decree, to be submitted to the receiver (or his successor) shall show as at the date of the receiver's appointment, the particulars of the company's assets, debts and liabilities, the names, residences and occupations of its creditors, the securities held by them respectively, the dates when the securities were respectively given and such further or other information as may be prescribed.
 - (2) The statement shall be submitted by, and be verified by affidavit of one or more of the persons who are at the date of the receiver's appointment, the directors and by the person who is at that date the secretary of the company, or by such of the persons hereafter in this subsection mentioned as the receiver (or his successor), subject to the direction of the court, may require to submit and verify the statement, that is to say, persons -
 - (a) who are or have been officers of the company;
 - (b) who have taken part in the formation of the company at any time within one year before the date of the receiver's appointment;
 - (c) who are in the employment of the company, or have been in the employment of the company within the year, and are in the opinion of the receiver capable of giving the information required;
 - (d) who are or have been within the said year officers of or in the employment of a company which is, or within the said year was, an officer of the company to which the statement relates.
 - (3) Any person making the statement and affidavit shall be allowed, and shall be paid by the receiver (or his successor) out of his receipts, such costs and expenses incurred in and about the preparation and making of the statement and affidavit as the receiver (or his successor) may consider reasonable, subject to an appeal to the court.
 - (4) Where the receiver is appointed under the powers contained in any instrument, this section shall have effect with the substitution for references to the court of references to the Commission and references to an affidavit, of references to a statutory declaration, and in any other case references to the court shall be taken as referring to the court by which the receiver was appointed.

- (5) If any person without reasonable excuse makes default in complying with the requirements of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=50 for every day during which the default continues.
- (6) References in this section to the receiver's successor shall include a continuing receiver or manager.

Accounts by receiver or Manager.

- Delivery to Commission of accounts of receivers and managers. 398. (1) Except where section 395 (2) of this Decree applies, every receiver or manager of the property of a company who has been appointed under the powers contained in any instrument shall, within one month or such longer periods as the Commission may allow, after the expiration of the period of 6 months from the date of his appointment, and of every subsequent period of 6 months, and within one month after he ceases to act as receiver or manager, deliver to the Commission for registration an abstract in the prescribed form showing his receipts and his payments during that period of 6 months, or where he ceases to act as aforesaid, during the period from the end of the period to which the last preceding abstract relate up to the date of his ceasing, and the aggregate amount of his receipts and of his payments during all preceding periods since his appointment.
- (2) Every receiver or manager who makes default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=25 for every day during which the default continues.

Duty as to Returns.

- Enforcement of duty of receivers and managers to make returns, etc. 399. (1) If any receiver or manager of the property of a company having -
- (a) made default in filing, delivering or making any returns, account or other document, or in giving any notice, which a receiver or manager is by law required to file, delivers, makes or gives or fails to make good the default within 14 days after the service on him of a notice requiring him to do so; or
- (b) been appointed under the powers contained in any instrument has, after being required at any time by the liquidator of the company so to do, fails to render proper accounts of his receipts and payment and to vouch the same and to pay over to the liquidator the amount properly payable to him, the Court may, on an application made for the purpose, make an order directing the receiver or manager, as the case may be, to make good the default within such time as may be specified in the order.
- (2) In the case of any such default as is mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section, an application for the purposes of this section may be made by any member or by the Commission, and in the case of any such default as is mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection, the application shall be made by the liquidator, and in either case the order may provide that all costs shall be borne by the receiver or manager, as the case may be.

- (3) Nothing in this section shall be taken to prejudice the operation of any enactment imposing penalties on receivers in respect of any such default as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section.

Construction of References.

400.

It is hereby declared that, except where the context otherwise requires -

- (a) any reference in this Decree to a receiver or manager of the property of a company, or to a receiver thereof, includes a reference to a receiver or manager, or as the case may be to a receiver of part only of that property and to a receiver only of the income arising from that property or from part thereof; and
- (b) any reference in this Decree to the appointment of a receiver or manager under powers contained in any instrument, includes a reference to an appointment made under powers which, by virtue of any enactment, are implied in and have effect as if contained in an instrument.

PART XV - WINDING UP OF COMPANIES

CHAPTER 1 - PRELIMINARY

Modes of Winding Up.

Modes of winding up.

401.

- (1) The winding up of a company may be effected -
- (a) by the court; or
- (b) voluntarily; or
- (c) subject to the supervision of the court.
- (2) The provisions of this Decree with respect to winding up shall apply, unless the contrary appears, to the winding up of a company in any of those modes.

Contributories.

Liability as contributories of present and past members.

402.

In the event of a company being wound up, every present and past member shall be liable to contribute to the assets of the company as provided in section 92 of this Decree.

Definition of contributory.

The term "contributory" means every person liable to contribute to the assets of a company in the event of its being wound up and for the purposes of all proceedings for determining and all proceedings prior to the final determination of the persons who are to be deemed contributories, the expression shall include any person alleged to be a contributory.

- | | | | |
| Nature of liability of contributory. | 404. | | The liability of a contributory shall create a debt of the nature of a speciality accruing and due from him the time when his liability commenced, but payable at the times when calls are made for enforcing the liability. |
| Contributories in case of death of member. | 405. | (1) | If a contributory dies either before or after he has been placed on the list of contributories, his personal representatives and his heirs and devisees, shall be liable in due course of administration to contribute to the assets of the company in discharge of his liability and they shall be contributories accordingly. |
| | | (2) | Where the personal representatives are placed on the list of contributories, the heirs or devisees need not be added, but they may be added as and when the court thinks fit. |
| | | (3) | If the personal representatives make default in paying any money ordered to be paid by them, proceedings may be taken for administering the whole or any part of the estate of the deceased contributory, and for compelling payment out of it of the money due. |
| Contributories in case of bankruptcy of member. | 406. | (1) | If a contributory becomes bankrupt, either before or after he has been placed on the list of contributories, then - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) his trustee in bankruptcy shall represent him for all the purposes of the winding up, and shall be a contributory accordingly, and may be called on to admit to proof against the estate of the bankrupt, or otherwise to allow to be paid out of his assets in due course of law, any money due from the bankrupt in respect of his liability to contribute to the assets of the company, and (b) there may be proved against the estate of the bankrupt the estimated value of his liability to future calls as well as calls already made. |
| | | (2) | The provisions of this section shall extend and apply with all necessary changes to the case of an insolvent person. |

Jurisdiction.

- | | | | |
|--------------------------------|------|-----|--|
| Jurisdiction as to winding up. | 407. | (1) | The court having jurisdiction to wind up a company shall be the Federal High Court within whose area of jurisdiction the registered office or head office of the company is situate. |
| | | (2) | For the purpose of this section, "registered office or head office" means the place which has longest been the registered office or head office of the company during the 6 months immediately preceeding the presentation of the petition for winding up. |

Cases in which Company may be Wound up by Court.

|--|------|--|--|
| Circumstances in which companies may be wound up by court. | 408. | | A company may be wound up by the court if - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the company has by special resolution resolved that the company be wound up by the court; (b) default is made in delivering the statutory report to the Commission or in holding the statutory meeting; |
|--|------|--|--|

- (c) the number of members is reduced below two;
- (d) the company is unable to pay its debts;
- (e) the court is of the opinion that it is just and equitable that the company should be wound up.
- Definition of inability to pay debts. 409. A company shall be deemed to be unable to pay its debts if -
- (a) a creditor, by assignment or otherwise, to whom the company is indebted in a sum exceeding =N=2,000 then due has served on the company by leaving it at its registered office or head office, a demand under his hand requiring the company to pay the sum so due, and the company has for three weeks thereafter neglected to pay the sum or to secure or compound for it to the reasonable satisfaction of the creditor; or
- (b) execution or other process issued on a judgement, decree or order of any court in favour of a creditor of the company is returned unsatisfied in whole or in part; or
- (c) the court, after taking into account any contingent or prospective liability of the company is satisfied that the company is unable to pay its debts.
- Petitions for Winding up and Effects thereof.*
- Provisions as to application for winding up. 410. (1) An application to the court for the winding up of a company shall be by petition presented subject to the provisions of this section, either by -
- (a) the company;
- (b) a creditor, including a contingent or prospective creditor of the company;
- (c) the official receiver;
- (d) a contributory;
- (e) a trustee in bankruptcy to, or a personal representative of a creditor or contributory;
- (f) the Commission under section 323 of this Decree;
- (g) a receiver if authorised by the instrument under which he was appointed; or
- (h) by all or any of those parties, together or separately.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) of this section -
- (a) a contributory shall not be entitled to present a petition for winding up a company unless -
- (i) the number of members is reduced below two; or
- (ii) the shares in respect of which he is a contributory or some of them were originally allotted to him or have been held by him, and registered in his name for at least 6 months during the eighteen months before the commencement of the winding up, or have devolved on him through the death of a former holder,

- (b) a winding up petition shall not, if the ground of the petition is default in delivering the statutory report to the Commission or in holding the statutory meeting, be presented by any person except a shareholder, or before the expiration of 14 days after the last day on which the meeting should have been held;
- (c) the court shall not hear a winding up petition presented by a contingent or prospective creditor until sufficient security for costs has been given, and a prima facie case for winding up has been established to its satisfaction;
- (d) in any case falling within section 320 or 321 of this Decree (proceedings on inspectors reports) or paragraph (e) or section 408 of this Decree, a winding up petition may be presented by the Commission with the approval of the Attorney General of the Federation.

- (3) Where a company is being wound up voluntarily or subject to supervision, a winding up petition may be presented by the official receiver attached to the court, as well as by any other person authorised in that behalf under the other provisions of this section; but the court shall not make a winding up order on any such petition unless it is satisfied that the voluntary winding up or winding up subject to supervision cannot be continued with due regard to the interests of the creditors or contributories.
- (4) A contributory shall be entitled to present a winding up petition notwithstanding that there may not be assets available on the winding up for distribution to contributories.

- 411.
- (1) On hearing a winding up petition the court may dismiss it, or adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally, or make any interim order, or any other order that it thinks fit; but the court shall not refuse to make a winding up order on the ground only that the assets of the company have been mortgaged to an amount equal to or in excess of those assets, or that the company has no assets.
 - (2) Unless it appears to the court that some other remedy is available and that the petitioners are acting unreasonably in seeking a winding up order instead of pursuing that remedy, the court, on hearing a petition by contributory members of a company for relief by winding up on the ground that it would be just and equitable so to do, shall make the order as prayed if of opinion that the petitioners are entitled to the relief sought.
 - (3) Where a petition is presented on the ground of default in delivering the statutory report to the Commission or in holding the statutory meeting, the court instead of making a winding up order, may direct the delivery of the statutory report or the holding of a meeting as the case may require, and order the costs to be paid by the persons who, in the opinion of the court, are responsible for the default.

- 412.
- Where a winding up petition has been presented and an action or other proceeding against a company is instituted or pending in any court (in this section referred to as "the court concerned"), the company or any creditor or contributory may, before the making of the winding up order, apply to the court concerned for an order staying proceedings; and the court concerned may, with or without imposing terms, stay or restrain proceedings, or if it thinks fit, refer the case to the court hearing the winding up petition.

- Avoidance of dispositions of property, etc. after commencement of winding up. 413. In a winding up by the court, any disposition of the property of the company, including things in action and any transfer of shares, or alteration in the status of the members of the company, made after the commencement of the winding up shall, unless the court otherwise orders, be void.
- Avoidance of attachments, etc. 414. Where a company is being wound up by the court, any attachment, sequestration, distress or execution put in force against the estate or effects of the company after commencement of the winding up shall be void.

Commencement of Winding up.

- Commencement of a winding up by the court. 415. (1) Where, before the presentation of a petition for the winding up of a company by the court, a resolution has been passed by the company for voluntary winding up, the winding up of the company shall be deemed to have commenced at the time of the passing of the resolution, and unless the court, on proof of fraud or mistake, thinks fit otherwise to direct, all proceedings taken in the voluntary winding up shall be deemed to have been validly taken.
- (2) In any other case, the winding up of a company by the court shall be deemed to commence at the time of the presentation of the petition for the winding up.

Consequences of Winding up Order.

- Copy of order to be forwarded to Commission. 416. On the making of a winding up order, a copy of the order shall forthwith be forwarded by the company, or otherwise as may be prescribed, to the Commission which shall make a minute thereof in its books relating to the Company.
- Actions stayed on winding up order. 417. If a winding up order is made or a provisional liquidator is appointed, no action or proceeding shall be proceeded with or commenced against the company except by leave of the court given on such terms as the Court may impose.
- Effect of winding up order. 418. An order for winding up a company shall operate in favour of all the creditors and of all the contributories of the company as if made on the joint petition of a creditor and of a contributory.

Official Receiver.

- Definition of official receiver. 419. (1) For the purposes of this Decree and so far as it relates to the winding up of companies by the court, "official receiver" means the deputy Chief Registrar of the Federal High Court or an officer designated for the purpose by the Chief Judge of the Court.
- (2) Any such officer shall for the purpose of his duties under this Decree be styled "the official receiver".
- Statement of company's affairs to be submitted to official receiver. 420. (1) Where the court has made a winding up order or appointed a provisional liquidator there shall, unless the court thinks fit to order otherwise and so orders, be made out and submitted to the official receiver statement as to the affairs of the company in the prescribed form, verified by affidavit, and showing the particulars of its assets, debts and liabilities, the names, residences and occupations of its creditors the securities held by them respectively, the dates when the securities were respectively given the list of members and the list of charges and such further or other information as may be prescribed or as the official receiver may require.
- (2) The statement shall be submitted and verified by one or more of the persons who are at the relevant date the directors and the person who as at that date the secretary of the company, or by such of the persons mentioned in this subsection as the official receiver, subject to the direction of the court, may require to submit and verify the statement, that is to say persons who -

- (a) are or have been officers of the company;
 - (b) have taken part in the formation of the company at any time within one year before the relevant date;
 - (c) have been or are in the employment of the company within the said year, and are in the opinion of the official receiver capable of giving the information required;
 - (d) are or have been within the said year officers of or in the employment of a company which is, or within the said year was, an officer of the company to which the statement relates.
- (3) The statement shall be submitted within 14 days from the relevant date or within such extended time as the official receiver or the court may for special reasons appoint.
 - (4) Any person making or concurring in making the statement and affidavit required by this section shall be allowed, and shall be paid by the official receiver or provisional liquidator, as the case may be, out of the assets of the company such costs and expenses incurred in and about the preparation and making of the statement and affidavit as the official receiver may consider reasonable, subject to an appeal to the Court.
 - (5) If any person without reasonable excuse, makes default in complying with the requirements of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of =N=25 for every day during which the default continues.
 - (6) Any person stating himself in writing to be a creditor or contributory of the company shall be entitled by himself or by his agent at all reasonable times, on a payment of the prescribed fees to inspect the statement submitted in pursuance of this section, and to a copy of or extract from it.
 - (7) Any person untruthfully so stating himself to be a creditor or contributory shall be guilty of contempt of court and shall, on the application of the liquidator or of the official receiver, be punishable accordingly.
 - (8) In this section, the expression "the relevant date" means, in a case where a provisional liquidator is appointed, the date of his appointment and in a case where no such appointment is made, the date of the winding up order.
- | | | |
official
receiver. | 421. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) If a winding up order is made, the official receiver shall as soon as practicable after receipt of the statement to be submitted under section 420 of this Decree or where the court orders that no statement shall be submitted, as soon as practicable after the date of the order, submit a preliminary report to the court - <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (a) as to the amount of capital issued, subscribed and paid up, and the estimated amount of assets and liabilities; and (b) if the company has failed, as to the causes of the failure; and (c) whether, in his opinion, further inquiry is desirable as to any matter relating to the promotion, formation or failure of the company. |
|------------------------------------|------|--|

- (2) The official receiver may if he thinks fit, make further reports, stating the manner in which the company was formed and whether in his opinion fraud has been committed by any person in its promotion or formation, or by any officer of the company in relation to the company since its formation and the reports may include any other matters which, in his opinion, it is desirable to bring to the notice of the court.
- (3) If any further report under this section indicates the commission of fraud, the court shall have the further powers provided in section 450 of this Decree (which confers authority to order public examination of certain officials).

Liquidators.

Appointment, remuneration and title of liquidators.

422.

- (1) The court may appoint a liquidator or liquidators for the purpose of conducting the proceedings in winding up a company and performing such duties in reference thereto as the court may impose and where there is a vacancy, the official receiver shall by virtue of his office, act as liquidator until such time as the vacancy is filled.
- (2) At any time after the presentation of a petition and before the making of a winding up order, the appointment shall be provisional and the court making the appointment may limit and restrict the powers of the liquidator by the order appointing him.
- (3) In the application of the foregoing provisions of this section -
 - (a) if a provisional liquidator is to be appointed before the making of a winding up order, the official receiver or any other fit person may be so appointed;
 - (b) on the making of a winding up order, if no liquidator is appointed, the official receiver shall by virtue of his office become the liquidator;
 - (c) the official receiver in his capacity as provisional liquidator shall, and in any other case may, summon meetings of creditors and contributories of the company to be held separately for the purpose of determining whether or not an application is to be made to the court for appointing a liquidator in place of the official receiver;
 - (d) if a person other than official receiver is appointed liquidator he shall not be capable of acting in that capacity until he has notified his appointment to the Commission and given security in the prescribed manner to the satisfaction of the court.
- (4) If more than one liquidator of a company is appointed by the court, the court shall declare whether anything by this Decree required or authorised to be done by a liquidator is to be done by all or any one or more of them.
- (5) A liquidator appointed by the court may resign, or, on cause shown be removed by the court; and any vacancy in the office of the liquidator so appointed shall be filled by the court.
- (6) Where a person other than the official receiver is appointed a liquidator, he shall receive salary in an amount, or remuneration by way of percentage or otherwise, as the court may direct; and, if more such persons than one are appointed liquidators, their remuneration shall be distributed among them in such proportions as the court directs.
- (7) Where a liquidator of a company is appointed, he shall, after his individual name -

- (a) if he is the official receiver be described as "official receiver and liquidator of (add here name of the company)"; and
- (b) in any other case be described as "liquidator of (add here name of the company)".
- (8) The acts of a liquidator shall be valid notwithstanding any defects that may afterwards be discovered in his appointment or qualification.
- (9) If a liquidator is appointed under this section, all the powers of the directors shall cease, except so far as the court may by order sanction the continuance thereof.
- Custody of company's property. 423. In a winding up by the court the liquidator shall take into his custody, or under his control, all the property and choses in action to which the company is or appears to be entitled.
- Vesting of property of company in liquidator. 424. Where a company is being wound up by the court, the court may on the application of the liquidator by order direct that all or any part of the property of whatsoever description belonging to the company or held by trustees on its behalf shall vest in the liquidator by his official name, and thereupon, but subject to the requirements or registration under any particular enactment, the property to which the order relates shall vest accordingly; and the liquidator may, after giving such indemnity if any, as the court may direct, bring or defend in his official name any action or other legal proceeding which relates to that property or which it is necessary to bring or defend for the purpose of effectually winding up the company and recovering its property.
- Powers of liquidator. 425. (1) The liquidator in a winding up by the court shall have power, with the sanction either of the court or of the committee of inspection, to -
- (a) bring or defend any action or other legal proceeding in the name and on behalf of the company;
- (b) carry on the business of the company so far as may be necessary for its beneficial winding up;
- (c) appoint a legal practitioner or any other relevant professionals to assist him in the performance of his duties;
- (d) pay any classes of creditors in full;
- (e) make any compromise or arrangement with creditors or persons claiming to be creditors, or having or alleging themselves to have any claim, present or future, certain or contingent ascertained or sounding only in damages against the company, or whereby the company may be rendered liable;
- (f) compromise all calls and liabilities to calls, debts and liabilities capable of resulting in debts, and all claims, present or future, certain contingent, ascertained or sounding only in damages, subsisting or supposed to subsist between the company and a contributory or alleged contributory or other debtor or person apprehending liability to the company, and all questions in any way relating to or affecting the assets or the winding up of the company, on such terms as may be agreed, and take any security for the discharge of any such call, debt, liability or claim and give a complete discharge in respect thereof.

- (2) The liquidator in winding up by the court shall have power to -
- (a) sell the property of the company of whatever nature by public auction or private contract, with power to transfer the whole thereof to any person or company or to sell the same in parcels;
 - (b) do all acts and to execute, in the name and on behalf of the company, all deeds, receipts and other documents, and for that purpose to use, when necessary, the company's seal;
 - (c) prove, rank and claim in the bankruptcy, insolvency or sequestration of any contributory for any balance against his estate, and to receive dividends in the bankruptcy, insolvency or sequestration in respect of that balance as a separate debt due from the bankrupt or insolvent, and rateably with the other separate creditors;
 - (d) draw, accept, make and indorse any bill of exchange or promissory note in the name and on behalf of the company with the same effect with respect to the liability of the company as if the bill or note had been drawn, accepted, made or indorsed by or on behalf of the company in the course of its business;
 - (e) raise on the security of the assets of the company any money requisite;
 - (f) take out in his official name letters of administration to any deceased contributory, and to do in his official name any other act necessary for obtaining payment of any money due from a contributory or his estate which cannot be conveniently done in the name of the company, and in all such cases the money due shall, for the purpose of enabling the liquidator to take out the letters of administration or recover the money, be deemed to be due to the liquidator himself;
 - (g) appoint an agent to do any business which the liquidator is unable to do himself;
 - (h) do all such other things as may be necessary for winding up the affairs of the company and distributing its assets.
- (3) The exercise by the liquidator in a winding up by the court of the powers conferred by this section shall be subject to the control of the court, and any creditor or contributory may apply to the court with respect to any exercise or proposed exercise of any of those powers.

Liquidator to give information, etc. to official receiver.

If during the winding up of a company by the court a person other than the official receiver is appointed liquidator, he shall give the official receiver such information and access to and facilities for inspecting the books and documents of the company, and generally any aid requisite or necessary for enabling that officer to perform his duties under this Decree.

Exercise and control of liquidator's power.

Subject to the provisions of this Decree, the liquidator of a company being wound up by the court shall, in the administration and distribution of the assets of the company among its creditors, have regard to directions given by resolution of the creditors or contributories at any general meeting, or by the committee of inspection, so however that directions given by the creditors or contributories at any general meeting shall, in case of conflict, override directions given by the committee of inspection.

- (2) The liquidator may summon general meeting of the creditors or contributories for the purpose of ascertaining their wishes, and it shall be his duty to summon meetings at such times as the creditors or contributories by resolution either at the meeting appointing the liquidator or otherwise, may direct, or whenever requested in writing to do so by one tenth in value of the creditors or contributories as the case may be.
- (3) the liquidator may apply to the court in the manner prescribed for directions in relation to any particular matter arising under the winding up.
- (4) Subject to the provisions of this Decree, the liquidator shall use his own discretion in the management of the estate and its distribution among the creditors.
- (5) Any persons aggrieved by an act or decision of the liquidator may apply to the court for such order in the premises as it thinks just; and the court may confirm, reverse, or modify the act or decision.
- Payments by liquidator into Companies Liquidation Account. 428. (1) Every liquidator of a company being wound up by the court shall, in such manner and at such times as the Commission directs, pay moneys received by him into the public fund of the Federation kept by the Commission under and for the purposes of this Decree and known as "the Companies Liquidation Account", and the Accountant-General of the Federation shall furnish him with a certificate of receipt for the money so paid.
- Provided that, if the committee of inspection satisfies the Commission that for the purpose of carrying on the business of the company or of obtaining advances, or for any other reason, it is for the advantage of the creditors or contributories that the liquidator should have an account with any bank, the Commission shall, on the application of the committee of inspection, authorise the liquidator to make his payments into and out of such bank, in Nigeria as the committee may select, and thereupon those payments shall be made in the prescribed manner
- (2) If the liquidator of a company being wound up as aforesaid, at any time retains for more than ten days an amount in excess of either ₦500 or, in any particular case, such other amount as the Commission may approve, and fails to satisfy the Commission as to the need for the retention beyond that time, the liquidator shall pay interest on the amount so retained in excess, at the rate of twenty percent per annum, and shall be liable to -
- (a) disallowance of the whole or such part of his remuneration as the Commission thinks fit; and
- (b) removal from office;
- and in addition, he shall be liable to pay any expenses occasioned by the retention.
- (3) A liquidator of a company which is being wound up by the court shall not pay any sums received by him as liquidator into his private banking account.
- Audit, etc. of liquidator's account. 429. (1) Every liquidator of a company being wound up by the court shall, at such times as may be prescribed but not less than twice in each year during his tenure of office, send to the Commission an account of his receipts and payments as liquidator.
- (2) The account shall be in duplicate in the prescribed form, and shall be verified by a statutory declaration in the prescribed form.

- (3) The Commission shall cause the account to be audited, and for the purpose of the audit the liquidator shall furnish the Commission with such vouchers and information as the Commission may require, and the Commission may at any time require the production of, and may inspect, any books or accounts kept by the liquidator.
- (4) When the account has been audited, one copy shall be filed and kept by the Commission, and the other copy shall be filed with the court and each copy shall be open to inspection by any creditor or other person interested, on payment of the prescribed fee.
- (5) The Commission shall cause the account when audited or a summary thereof to be printed, and shall send a printed copy of the account or summary by post to every creditor and contributory.
- Books to be kept by liquidator. 430. Every liquidator of a company which is being wound up by the court shall, in the manner prescribed, keep proper books in which he shall cause to be made entries or minutes of proceedings at meetings, and of such other matters as may be prescribed, and any creditor or contributory may subject to the control of the court, personally or by his agent inspect any such books.
- Release of liquidator. 431. (1) Where the liquidator of a company being wound up by the court has realised all the property of the company, or so much of it as may, in his opinion, be realised without needlessly protracting the liquidation and has distributed a final dividend, if any, to the creditors, and adjusted the rights of the contributories among themselves, and made a final return, if any to the contributories, or has resigned, or has been removed from his office, the Commission shall, on the application of the liquidator, cause a report on the accounts of the liquidator to be prepared.
- (2) The Commission shall consider the report referred to in subsection (1) of this section together with any objection that may be raised by any creditor, or contributory, or person interested against the release of the liquidator, and may grant or withhold the release as it deems fit subject nevertheless to an appeal to the court.
- (3) If the release of a liquidator is withheld, the court may, on the application of any creditor, or contributory, or person interested make such order as it thinks just, charging the liquidator with the consequences of any act or default which he may have done or made contrary to his duty.
- (4) An order of the Commission releasing the liquidator shall discharge him from all liability in respect of any act done or default made by him in the administration of the affairs of the company, or otherwise in relation to his conduct as liquidator; but any such order may be revoked on proof that it was obtained by fraud or by suppression or concealment of any material fact.
- (5) Where the liquidator has not previously resigned or been removed, his release shall operate as a removal of him from his office.
- Control over liquidators. 432. (1) The Commission shall take cognizance of the conduct of liquidators of companies which are being wound up by the court and if a liquidator does not faithfully perform his duties and duly observe all the requirements imposed on him by any enactment, or otherwise with respect to the performance of his duties, or if any complaint is made to the Commission by any creditor or contributory in regard thereto, the Commission shall inquire into the matter, and may take such action thereon as it thinks fit, including the direction of a local investigation of the books and vouchers of the liquidator.

- (2) The Commission may at any time require the liquidator of a company being wound up by the court to answer any inquiry in relation to any winding up in which he is engaged and if the Commission thinks fit, it may apply to the court to examine the liquidator or any other person on oath concerning the winding up.

Committee of Inspection, Special Manager, etc.

appoint committee of inspection
after meeting
and others.

433. (1) Where a winding up order is made by the court, it shall be the business of the separate meetings of creditors and contributories summoned for the purpose of determining whether or not to apply to the court for an order appointing a liquidator in place of the official receiver, to determine whether or not application should be made to the court for the appointment of a committee of inspection to act with the liquidator, and who are to be members of the committee, if the appointment is made.
- (2) The court may make any appointment and order required to give effect to any determination under this section and if there is a difference between the determinations of the meetings of the creditors and contributories in respect of the matters aforesaid, the court shall decide the difference and make any order it thinks necessary.

Powers, etc.
of committee
of inspection.

434. (1) A committee of inspection appointed under this Decree shall consist of creditors and contributories of the company or persons holding general powers of attorney from creditors or contributories in such proportions as may be agreed on by the meetings of creditors and contributories or as, in case of difference, may be determined by the court.
- (2) A committee of inspection shall meet at the time or times appointed, so however that there shall be a meeting at least once in every month during its existence, but the liquidation or any member of the committee may convene a meeting as and when necessary.
- (3) A meeting of a committee of inspection shall be deemed convened if a majority of members are present; but at any such meeting the committee may act by a majority of the members present.
- (4) A member of the committee may resign by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the liquidator.
- (5) If a member of the committee becomes bankrupt or compounds or arranges with his creditors or is absent from five consecutive meetings of the committee without leave of those members who together with himself represent the creditors or contributories, as the case may be, his office shall thereupon become vacant.
- (6) A member of the committee may be removed by an ordinary resolution at a meeting of creditors, if he represents creditors, or of contributories, if he represents contributories, of which seven days notice has been given, stating the object of the meeting.
- (7) On a vacancy occurring in the committee the liquidator shall forthwith summon a meeting of creditors or of contributories, as the case may require, to fill the vacancy, and the meeting may, by resolution, re-appoint the same or appoint another creditor or contributory to fill the vacancy.

Provided that if the liquidator, having regard to the position in the winding up, is of the opinion that it is unnecessary for the vacancy to be filled he may apply to the court and the court may make an order that the vacancy shall not be filled, or shall not be filled except in such circumstances as may be specified in the order.

- (8) The continuing members of the committee, if not less than two, may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the committee.
- Powers where no committee of inspection is appointed. 435. Where in the case of winding up there is no committee of inspection, the Commission may, on the application of the liquidator, if he thinks fit, do any act or thing or give any direction or permission which is by this Decree authorised or required to be done or given by the committee.
- Power to appoint special manager. 436. (1) Where the official receiver becomes the liquidator of a company, whether provisionally or otherwise, he may, if satisfied that the nature of the estate or business of the company, or the interest of the creditors or contributories generally, require the appointment of a special manager of the estate or business of the company other than himself, apply to the court for an order appointing a special manager to act during such time as the court may direct, with such powers, including those of a receiver or manager, as may be entrusted to him by the court, and the court may make any order necessary.
- (2) A special manager appointed under this section shall receive remuneration as fixed by the court, and shall give security and account in such manner as the Commission directs.
- Official receiver as receiver for debenture holders, etc. 437. It is hereby declared that where application is made to the court to appoint a receiver on behalf of the debenture holders or other creditors of the company being wound up by the court, the official receiver may be so appointed.

General powers of Court in Case of Winding up by Court.

- Power to stay winding up. 438. (1) The court may at any time after an order for winding up, on the application either of a liquidator or the official receiver or any creditor or contributory, and on proof to the satisfaction of the court that all proceedings in relation to the winding up ought to be stayed, make an order staying the proceedings either altogether or for a limited time, on such terms and conditions as the court thinks fit.
- (2) The court may, at any time after an order for winding up on the application either of the liquidator or a creditor, and after having regard to the wishes of the creditors and contributories, make an order directing that the winding up ordered by court, shall be conducted as a creditors voluntary winding up and if the court does so the winding up shall be so conducted.
- (3) On any application under this section, the court may, before making an order, require the official receiver to furnish to the court a report with respect to any facts or matters which are in his opinion relevant to the application.
- (4) A copy of every order made under this section shall forthwith be forwarded by the company, or otherwise as may be prescribed, to the Commission, which shall make a minute of the order in its books relating to the company.
- (5) If default is made in lodging a copy of an order made under this section with the Commission as required by subsection (4) of this section, every officer of the company or other person who knowingly authorises, or permits the default shall be guilty of an offence punishable by a daily default fine of =N=25.
