Speaker

JAMAICA

No. 35 - 2013

I assent,

[L.S.]

(Sgd) P. L. Allen
Governor-General.

20th day of December 2013

AN ACT to Amend the Income Tax Act to include new fiscal incentives that are of general application and enhance existing fiscal incentives; to repeal certain enactments that grant fiscal incentives to specific sectors of the economy; and for connected matters.

[1st January 2014 ]

BE IT ENACTED by The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Representatives of Jamaica, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Fiscal Incentives (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 2013, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of January, 2014.

Short title and commencement.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the provisions of section 30 of the Income Tax Act that are specified in the Schedule to this Act to take effect at any date other than the 1st day of January, 2014, shall be deemed to have come into operation on the respective dates so specified.

Interpretation. 2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“annual allowance” means an annual allowance made under the First Schedule to the Income Tax Act;

“Commissioner General” means the Commissioner General appointed under section 4 of the Revenue Administration Act;

“continuing beneficiary” means a person who, immediately before the coming into operation of this Act, was entitled to fiscal incentives under a repealed enactment for a period of time specified pursuant to the enactment;

“fiscal incentive” means any exemption or relief, in respect of any tax, duty, fee, levy, fine or other impost, that is granted under any enactment;

“initial allowance” means an initial allowance made under the First Schedule to the Income Tax Act;

“remaining balance”, in relation to a capital expenditure in respect of an asset, means the original cost of the asset, less any annual allowance and any initial allowance, as the case may be, made in respect of that capital expenditure;

“repealed enactment” means an enactment that is repealed by section 4;

“revenue law” means any law that imposes any tax, duty, fee, levy, fine or other impost;

“termination date”, in relation to a person’s entitlement to fiscal incentives under a repealed enactment, means the earlier of—

- (a) the end of any period of time specified pursuant to the enactment during which a person is entitled to the fiscal incentives; and

- (b) the date when the person's entitlement to the fiscal incentives is terminated by virtue of an election made under section 5;

“year of assessment” means the year of assessment within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Income Tax Act.

3. The provisions of the enactments specified in the first column of the Schedule are amended in the manner specified respectively in relation to them in the second column of the Schedule. Amendment of Acts. Schedule.

4. The following enactments are repealed— Repeal of enactments.

- (a) the Cement Industry (Encouragement and Control) Act;
- (b) the Export Industry Encouragement Act;
- (c) the Foreign Sales Corporation Act;
- (d) the Hotels (Incentives) Act;
- (e) the Industrial Incentives Act;
- (f) the Industrial Incentives (Factory Construction) Act;
- (g) the International Finance Companies (Income Tax) Relief Act;
- (h) the Motion Picture Industry (Encouragement) Act;
- (i) the Petroleum Refining Industry (Encouragement) Act;
- (j) the Resort Cottages (Incentives) Act; and
- (k) the Shipping (Incentives) Act.

5.—(1) Notwithstanding the repeal of enactments under section 4, and subject to the provisions of this section, a continuing beneficiary is to be regarded as continuing to be entitled to fiscal incentives under a repealed enactment (in this section referred to as the “relevant repealed enactment”). Saving in respect of repealed enactments.

(2) Subject to section 8, the following applies in relation to a continuing beneficiary referred to in subsection (1)—

- (a) the relevant repealed enactment (with the exception of any provision relating to initial or annual allowances) shall be regarded as continuing to apply until the termination date in respect of the entitlement of the continuing beneficiary to fiscal incentives under the relevant repealed enactment;

(b) the following amendments made by section 3 shall not apply in respect of the continuing beneficiary until that termination date, namely—

(i) the deletion of items from Group 15 of Part II of the First Schedule to the General Consumption Tax Act;

(ii) the deletion of section 5(6) of the Income Tax Act;

(iii) the amendment of section 15 of the Income Tax Act;

(iv) the new section 32A of the Income Tax Act; and

(v) the deletion of section 36D of the Income Tax Act; and

(c) For the purposes of paragraph (b), a person who is an approved farmer within the meaning of section 36D of the Income Tax Act, as in force immediately prior to the repeal of that section with effect from the 1st day of January 2014, shall be deemed to be a continuing beneficiary.

(3) A continuing beneficiary may make an election to terminate the entitlement of the continuing beneficiary to fiscal incentives under the relevant repealed enactment.

(4) An election made under subsection (3)—

(a) shall be notified in writing to the Commissioner General; and

(b) may only be made in respect of all of the fiscal incentives that the person who makes the election is entitled to under the relevant repealed enactment.

(5) An election made under subsection (3) shall take effect—

(a) for the purposes of the Income Tax Act, from the first day of the year of assessment in which the election is made;

- (b) for the purposes of the General Consumption Tax Act, from the first day of the taxable period next following the date when the election is made; and
- (c) for the purpose of other revenue laws, from the date when the election is made.

(6) Where a continuing beneficiary has an entitlement to fiscal incentives under the Hotels (Incentives) Act or the Resort Cottages (Incentives) Act and has not, before the 1st day of July, 2014, made an election under subsection (3) to terminate that entitlement, then, as from the 1st day of July, 2014 until the termination date in respect of that entitlement—

- (a) the 10% rate of tax referred to in Part V of the First Schedule to the General Consumption Tax Act shall not apply in respect of the continuing beneficiary; and
- (b) the continuing beneficiary shall be liable to pay general consumption tax at the rate specified in section 4(1)(a) of the General Consumption Tax Act.

6. Notwithstanding the repeal of sections 5(6) and 36D of the Income Tax Act, where a person has been designated as an approved farmer by an order made under section 36D(1) of that Act before the 1st day of January, 2014, sections 5(6) and 36D of that Act shall continue to apply in relation to that person until the end of the period for which the designation has been made, or until revocation of the order, whichever occurs first.

Saving in respect of sections 5(6) and 36D of Income Tax Act.

7. Subject to section 8, where a person was entitled, under the provisions of the First Schedule to the Income Tax Act in effect immediately before the 1st day of January, 2014, to annual allowances in respect of capital expenditure that was incurred before that date, those provisions shall continue to apply in respect of the remaining balance of that capital expenditure.

Transitional provisions in respect of capital allowances, generally.

8.—(1) Where, immediately before the 1st day of January, 2014, by virtue of a repealed enactment no initial allowance or annual allowance was made to a continuing beneficiary in respect of capital expenditure incurred by the continuing beneficiary before the 1st day of January, 2014, the continuing beneficiary shall, where permitted, be entitled to an initial allowance and an annual allowance, in accordance with subsection (2), in respect of the remaining balance of that capital expenditure if, before the 1st day of July, 2014, the continuing beneficiary makes an election under section 5 to terminate the entitlement to fiscal incentives under the repealed enactment.

Transitional provisions in respect of capital allowances—repealed enactments.

(2) Capital expenditure referred to in subsection (1) (other than capital expenditure incurred on the purchase, alteration or improvement of a private motor vehicle) shall be deemed, for the purposes of the First Schedule to the Income Tax Act as amended by this Act, to be capital expenditure incurred on the 1st day of January, 2014, and—

- (a) subject to subsections (3) and (4), an initial allowance shall, where permitted, be made in accordance with the First Schedule to the Income Tax Act, as amended by this Act, in respect of the amount of that capital expenditure; and
- (b) annual allowances shall, where permitted, be made in accordance with the First Schedule to the Income Tax Act, as amended by this Act, in respect of the amount of that capital expenditure.

(3) Subsection 2(a) shall not apply where, had an election referred to in subsection (1) not been made, the relevant concession period would have ended before the 1st day of January, 2019.

(4) For greater certainty, no initial allowance shall be made under subsection (2)(a) in respect of capital expenditure for which an initial allowance has previously been made.

(5) In the case of a continuing beneficiary referred to in subsection (1) who does not make an election referred to in that subsection—

- (a) annual allowances shall, where permitted, be made in accordance with the First Schedule to the Income Tax Act in effect immediately before January 1, 2014 in respect of capital expenditure that was incurred before the 1st day of January, 2014; and
- (b) an initial allowance and annual allowances shall, where permitted, be made in accordance with the First Schedule to the Income Tax Act, as amended by this Act, in respect of capital expenditure incurred on or after the 1st day of January, 2014.

9. Paragraphs 6(3), 6(5) and 6(8) of PART III of the First Schedule to the Income Tax Act, as those provisions existed before the 1st day of January, 2014, shall continue to apply in respect of capital expenditure on the purchase of a second-hand private vehicle on or after the 1st day of January, 2014 from a connected person.

Transitional provisions—annual allowance for second-hand private vehicles.

10. Notwithstanding the amendment of section 30 of the Income Tax Act, where a large unregulated company (within the meaning of section 30(1A) of that Act as it existed before the 1st day of January, 2014) is permitted or required to compute its profits or gains by reference to a permitted accounting period (within the meaning of section 6(7) of that Act), the profits or gains of that company for the permitted accounting period ending in 2014 shall be calculated as a fraction of the company's income, profits or gains for that permitted accounting period—

Transitional provision—large unregulated companies.

- (a) the numerator of which is the number of months from January 1, 2014 to the end of the permitted accounting period; and
- (b) the denominator of which is the number of months of the permitted accounting period.

Junior Stock Market Companies

1. Subject to the conditions specified in paragraph 2 and such further conditions relating to the relief to be granted or other matters, as may be prescribed in relation thereto, a newly eligible company is, for each year of assessment falling within the incentive period, entitled to the specified incentive relief.

Provision

Amendment

2. The conditions referred to in paragraph 1 are that the newly eligible company—

- (a) is required to be listed on the Junior Market for a combined continuous period of not less than ten years from the date of initial admission; and
- (b) should not have been temporarily delisted by reason of being suspended from the Junior Market for any breach of the Junior Market or delisted in other circumstances.

3. If any term or condition imposed on a newly eligible company under or by virtue of this section is breached, then the company shall immediately become liable to pay all tax under this Act which, but for this provision, would otherwise have been payable by it under this Act, from the time of its initial admission.

4. For greater certainty, it is declared that—

- (a) an existing eligible company continues to be entitled to relief in accordance with the specified Remission Notice;
- (b) the specified Remission Notice does not apply to newly eligible companies.

5. In any year of assessment in respect of which an eligible company is entitled to the specified incentive relief, that eligible company shall not be entitled to any other incentives, credits or relief under this Act or under the Income Tax Relief (Large-scale Projects and Pioneer Industries) Act in respect of that year of assessment.

6. In this Schedule—

“admission” means admission of the participating voting shares or other securities of an eligible company to trade on the Junior Market;

“eligible company” means a company that meets the requirements of the Junior Market Rules for the purposes of the admission to the Junior Market

“participating voting shares” means—

- (a) ordinary shares or stock units;
- (b) ordinary preference shares or stock units; or
- (c) any other shares or stock units,

in respect of which, an eligible company secured initial admission to the Junior Market and which qualify for equity treatment under International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”);

Provision
—Amendment

“specified Remission Notice” means the Income Tax (Jamaica Stock Exchange Junior Market) (Remission) Notice, 2009, published in the Jamaica Gazette on August 13, 2009;

“specified incentive relief”, in relation to—

- (a) an existing eligible company, means the remission from income tax granted under the specified Remission Notice;
- (b) a newly eligible company, means exemption from the payment of one hundred per cent of the income tax that the company would, under this Act, have been liable to pay in respect of income, profits and gains, had it not been an eligible company.”.
